COMMUNISTS IN ALBERTA

Three Farmers Declare They Have Been Ordered to Get Out by Organization

EDMONTON, June 27.—Complete dominance of the country near Valhalla, in the Grande Prairie district, is the object of a party of reds or communists who are undertaking to expel from the neighborhood all those settlers of Anglo-Saxon birth, according to a farmer who arrived in the city.

"In the Grande Prairie country we now have something which closely resembles the Ku Klux Klan, and it is an organization which practically defies constituted authority," he said.

"They have openly stated that they are a law unto themselves and that their orders and instructions to the rest of the settlement are going to be enforced according to their ideas of government.

Community League

"A purely co-operative and agricultural society—the Lakeview Community League—which has been in operation at Valhalla for some time is now in the hands of a group of settlers of foreign origin," he stated, "and this society is being used to run out of the settlement the only three families of Anglo-Saxon blood.

"These three men, Robinson, Ward and Bond have been informed point blank that they will have to go, or steps will be taken to remove them by force. Robinson received a written communication which in addition to threats informed him that he was given twenty-eight days in which to leave the settlement.

Tar and Feathers

"Robinson and his son were brought before a self constituted court where they were threatened that they would be tarred and feathered if they did not comply with the orders of the League."

It is further stated by the visitor that the secretary of the League admits the threats and is to appear in court charged with intimidation the preliminary trial being set to take place in September.

Feeling runs high in the Grande Prairie country in respect to this matter, and it is expected that the case will excite more interest than any which has come before the northern courts for a long time.

EDMONTON PEOPLE COMMENCE ACTION CANCEL CONTRACT

Action Against Estate of Late Ambrose Small, Millionaire Theatrical Magnate

EDMONTON, June 27.—Several Edmonton men are participants in an action commenced in the Ontario courts against the estate of the late Ambrose J. Small, millionaire theatrical magnate, Percy W. Abbott, K.C., James Ramsey, Ltd., John Gillespie and Dr. C. C. Tatham, acting on behalf of themselves and other Edmonton shareholders in the trans-Canada chain of theatres, are suing to rescind the contract of November, 1919, for the purchase of the theatres and theatrical rights of the Toronto millionaire.

Alleged fraud in connection with representations which led to the purchase by the Trans-Canada-Theatres, Ltd., of the theatrical holdings of A. J. Small is given as the basis of the action taken. Claiming that audited statements showing the financial condition of the different theatres, on the strength of which the million dollar purchase was made were forged, the shareholders of the Trans-Canada Theatres, Ltd., are asking that the whole transaction be set aside and the purchase price refunded.

Fall Assizes

There was some discussion among the Edmonton shareholders before they became parties to this action. Since proceedings against the Small estate necessarily had to be taken before June 7, however, the four businessmen and firms mentioned agreed to commence action in the courts. The case, however, will not be heard before the fall assizes.

The proceedings are being taken against Ambrose J. Small, the Capital Trust Corporation, Ltd., Therese Small, executrix of Ambrose J. Small Trans-Canada Theatres, Ltd., and Harry W. Beauclerk, promoter and president.

SEATTLE, June 27.—When the Rt. Rev. Peter T. Rowe, Bishop of the Episcopal Church in Alaska, reaches Point Barrow, Alaska, this summer it will be the first time he has made an official visit within the Arctic circle for three years.

Preparations have been made by Bishop Rowe to sail from Seattle July 5, on the steamship Victoria for Nome, Alaska, and thence to Point Barrow on the revenue cutter Bear.

After a call at Point Barrow, Bishop Rowe will travel by dog team southward, crossing the mountains and traversing the Tanana and Yukon Rivers, visiting his white and native congregations along the route. He expects to be absent from Seattle all next winter.

FASHIONABLE CHINESE WEDDING AT VICTORIA

The way in which Chinese are adopting Canadian customs and becoming Canadianized is shown in the following description from a Victoria paper of a Chinese wedding there:

On Wednesday evening a large number of guests assembled in the Chinese Canadian Club which was artistically decorated in the colors of the rainbow, to witness the marriage of Mr. David Song Mar, merchant of Seattle, and Miss Elsie Hai Lee of Victoria. The bride came into the hall on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She was gowned in white charmeuse satin with cascade drapery of orange blossoms and brilliant stones, and carried a bouquet of ophelia roses, sweet peas and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sisters, Miss Edith and Miss Effie Lee, gowned in Hilo Chinese silk, and carrying bouquets of sweet peas and sweatheart roses. The flower girls who were trainbearers were Miss Evangeline Lee, her sister, and Miss Rosie Chan, in frocks of pink Duchesse satin, and carried baskets of roses, gladiolus and maidenhair fern.

After the ceremony which was performed by the Rev. Dr. Campbell, the guests were served with dainty buffet refreshments.

The bridegroom is a native of Nanaimo and the bride of Victoria. They are spending a honeymoon in Nanaimo, Vancouver and Victoria, after which they will make their home in Seattle where Mr. Mar has been in business for several years.
