CALLIES' FOOTBALL TEAM WHIST DRIVE

Successful and Enjoyable Affair Took Place Last Night in St. Andrew's Rooms

The Callies' football team staged a successful whist drive in the St. Andrew's Rooms last night. There were sixteen tables and the prize winners were: Ladies' first, Mrs. G. Frizzell; ladies' consolation, Mrs. Howard Steen; men's first, James Andrews; men's consolation, Robert Wood. Howard Steen was in charge and the committee consisted of Tom Beattie, George Abbott and J. Watson.

Refreshments were served, cakes being furnished by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the St. Andrew's Society. Before the gathering dispersed, there was a set of quadrilles, music being furnished by Mrs. Bruce Love at the piano.

SPECTACULAR FINISH TO YESTERDAY'S GAME

NEW YORK, Oct. 7. — In the big ball game yesteday the Giants emerged victorious in the third game of the world series after one of the widest baseball maelstroms ever witnessed. The Giants won 6 to 4 but the outcome was in doubt to the final play in the ninth inning when the Senators staged a typically spectacular finish. They were three runs behind when going in for the ninth. The Senators scored one run and had the bases full with only one out, when Long John Watson, the third Giant pitcher of the inning, stopped the rally and saved the game for the McGraw men.

SPILLING THE BEANS

"Yes, it's really remarkable. Bobby seems to eat twice as much chicken when we have visitors!" said the fond mother to her guests.

"Really? And why is that, Bobby?".

Bobby's reply was disconcerting.

"Because," he said, "that's the only time we have it."—Youth's Companion.

TIME TO MOVE

Workmen were making repairs on the wires in a Norwood schoolhouse one Saturday, when a small boy wandered in.

"What you doin'?"

"Installing an electric switch," one of the workmen said.

The boy then volunteered: "I don't care. We've moved away, and I don't go to this school any more."

Sport Chat

Billiard meeting tonight in Great War Veterans' rooms, 8 p.m.. Delegates from all entering teams asked to attend.

Jack Dempsey, the world's heavyweight champion, is becoming anxious about his standing in the pugilistic world. The big fellow feels he is rusting out for the want of work in the ring. The only real fight he has had within the past two years was his match with Tom Gibbons. His encounters with Carpentier and Firpo he does not put in the same class with the set-to with Gibbons. He had been out of the ring for a long spell when he met Gibbons, and it was the first time he experienced any uncertainty as to his ability to take care of himself and force the fighting. Had he met Firpo before he tied up with Gibbons the big man is willing to admit it might have been different. Dempsey has it doped out right. Athletes who stay out of competitions for long periods of time seldom come back to their best form.

Jim Corbett knocked out John L. Sullivan in 1892 and, five lears later after taking life easy, was knocked out by Bob Fitzsimmons. Jim Jefferies, greatest heavyweight of his time, dropped out of the ring for six years and was beaten by Jack Johnson. Jack Johnson in turn stopped fighting for three or four years and never had a chance against Jess Willard at Havana in 1915. Willard ate, drank and lived luxuriously and was practically knocked out by Jack Dempsey in the first round a couple of years later. Even Bob Fitzsimmons, when he lost to Jefferies, underestimated his young opponent's ability after having led the easy life for a couple of years. Dempsey can look back at the whole line of heavyweight champions who preceded him and see that they all except little Tommy Burns, went to defeat through losing their ability by not fighting.

RUSSIAN EDICT SAYS KISSING NOT ALLOWED

MOSCOW, Oct. 7—Dr. Nicholas Semashko,. Soviet commissioner of health, has issued an edict against kissing, which, he contends, is one of the most potent means of spreading disease.

The new order, if observed, will fall hard on the Russian peasantry who are in the habit of kissing one another, not only on the lips but three times on each cheek in salutation. Dr. Semashko is also opposed to the kissing of ladies' hands by men, a national custom in Russia. Not only is this unhygienic, he says, but it is a practice of the bourgeoisie which has no place in a proletarian republic.

Hand-shaking has been prohibited in many departments of the government and signs are appearing warning employes that the practice frequently results in communication of disease. The conventional salute, hand from forehead, is suggested as a safer greeting.

As a further health measure, the doctor advocates a ban on smoking, urging tobacco users to substitute candy.

THE RIGHT MAN

It takes a red-nosed man with a greasy vest and a soiled collar and a cheap cigar, with his feet on another chair, to put the proper emphasis into the words, "These women reformers make me weary."
