CYO basketballers pace senior pack by snapping Rainmakers skein at one

CYO moved into sole possession of first place in the Senior Basketball League as they edged Senior High School Rainmakers 59-55 in a substituted basketball fixture at the Civic Centre last night.

Rainmakers missed many vital and easy shots while the experienced CYO squad faked and drove around the scholar's defence to rack up the win.

	W	L	GP	Pts.
CYO	9	5	14	18
F & P	8	7	15	16
Empress	5	7	12	10
High School	4	7	11	8

The game was close all the way as the Rainmakers led 14-13 at the first quarter but fell behind 26-24 at half time.

The third quarter saw the Catholic squad in the lead by a 42-36 score and although the high school crew applied a final period rally they could only outscore the CYO contingent 19-17.

On the boards CYO's Gary Morison kept the scholars at bay grabbing the rebounds consistently and allowing Rainmaker forward's John Olsen and Mike Lemon a minimum chance for important second chance shots.

Bill Bailey and Bill Smith, CYO's guards, racked up 14 points apiece to lead the Catholic victors in the scoring department while centre Gary Morison garnered 11 counters to follow.

Other scorers for the CYO win were Ray Spring with 10, Syd Scherk with 6 and Mike Young with 4.

For the Rainmakers John Olsen led the scoring parade netting 16 tallies while deadly David Allen followed with 14 points. Other contributors for High School were Mike Lemon with 12, Dick Specht with 8 and Bob Mitchell with 5.

The final period saw the Rainmakers tie the CYO combination on two occasions but a jump shot by Bill Bailey at 8:21 of the final frame put the CYO quintet in the lead 57-55 followed by a foul shot by Bailey and Syd Scherk gave the Catholic men the insurance points with 25 seconds remaining in the game.

Referee's Bill Gurney and Art Helin called 21 personal fouls with 12 levied to the CYO crew.

Two unbeaten skips left in B.C. Ladies Bonspiel

VERNON (CP)—Prince George housewife Flo Gustafson and Victoria's Flora Martin were the only unbeaten rinks at the end of the first day's play in the annual B.C. Ladies Curling Association playdowns which opened here Monday.

Both recorded two wins and received a bye in the three draws of the round robin series to determine the provincial representative at the Western Canada championships in Victoria March 15.

Notching two successive victories and then suffering their first setback in the night competition were Kimberley's Ina Hanson and Irene Fraser of Vancouver.

Two straight losses by the highly-favoured Betty Tansely quartet of Vancouver provided the biggest surprise of the day's play.

In the morning she fell before veteran campaigner Ina Hanson 9-8 and crashed to Kamloops' Dot Fisher foursome 10-6 in the afternoon.

Mrs. Tansely finally hit her stride by dropping Shirley Stephens of New Westminster 9-7 in the third round.

Local rink takes C event at Smithers

Women curlers from Prince Rupert captured C event at Smithers Ladies Bonspiel last weekend with the foursome of Alma Whatman, Cathy Kerr, Janet Waldbauer and Ethel Eby entering the competition.

In other play, the regular club results follow:

Rivett 14, Bateman 6; Shier 9, Schuman 8; Kerr 9, Eby 8; Newton 17, Gordon 2; Merrison 5, Ritchie 8; Dominato 8, McDonald 7; Johnson 10, Hargrove 8; Billing 8, Eyolfson 5; McKay 11, Whatman 5; Gomez 10, Waldbauer 4; Bremner 16, Deane 7; Anderson 8, Scott 7.

Olympic injuries hit 14

SQUAW VALLEY, Calif (AP) — Controversy broke out on two fronts and the injury list spiralled to 14 today with the Winter Olympic Games fast approaching their Thursday opening.

Most severely hurt was Battista Pordon, 20-year-old Italian downhill ski racer. He fell into Squaw Creek Monday, suffering a broken leg, broken arm, broken collarbone, lacerations of the head and internal injuries. Doctors said recovery will take several months.

One dispute involved hockey, the other selection of the German alpine downhill skiing team.

In Colorado Springs, Colo., Rudolph Eklowe, Swedish delegate to the International Ice Hockey Federation, said hockey will not be played if organizers do not accept an 11-day schedule. A 10-day schedule with no hockey on opening day now is planned.

Seven-year old Andrea Paul veteran shot

Seven-year old Andrea Paul is already a veteran of the Civic Centre rifle range competition.

Daughter of Boys and Girls' Rifle clubs' instructor Dick Paul, Andrea, who has been shooting since she was four years old, shot a 93 last week in bronze medal competition.

For the boys, longtime marksmen Arnold Rivett racked up a perfect score of 100 from the sitting position and Jeffrey Clibbett also shot 100 in silver medal competition.

John Slaftreck shot a 99, Norman Viktil and Jim Strand 98s in gold medal shooting.

Silver medal marksmen's scores were Ken Parsons 99, George Fowlie 98, Wallace Bergen 97, Robin Halliwell and Jim Bremner 96s, John Menard 95, David Bell 94 and Wayne Watmough 93.

In bronze medal competition Kenny Pattison shot a 96, Art Pattison 94, Donald Silverhides 89, Douglas Wells 87, Boyd Barrie 83, Bob Janes 82 and Teddy Arney 81.

For the girls, Carol Menard shot a 97 and Pat Hill a 94 in silver medal competition.

Old Archie's NBA crown stripped by office type

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—The National Boxing Association Monday night withdrew recognition of Archie Moore as light heavyweight champion because he failed to defend his title within the prescribed six-month period.

Anthony Maceroni, NBA president, announcing the withdrawal said:

"Moore should make up his mind whether to continue as a light heavyweight or give up his crown and campaign for the heavyweight title. It isn't fair to Johnson and other contenders."

He said the NBA executive committee at its December 12 meeting in Indianapolis unanimously passed a resolution that Moore defend against the perennial No. 1 light heavyweight contender, Harold Johnson, not later than February 12.

After several warnings, Maceroni said, both Moore and his manager, Jack Kearns, showed no inclination to honor this edict.

Details for an NBA successor will be worked out at a March 5 executive committee meeting in New York.

Maceroni said Moore was given his chance at the then-light heavyweight king Joey Maxim, by intervention of the NBA at its 1952 convention in Montreal.
