NO FRIEND OF HERS

The mistress was annoyed by the repeated calls of a certain negro on her colored cook.

"You told me," she protested to the cook, "that you had no man friends. But this fellow is in the kitchen all the time."

"Dat nigger, he hain't no friend o' mine," the cook declared scornfully. "Him, he's jes' my 'usban,."—Everybody's Magazine.

ANOTHER AUTO DANGER

"The whole population of the United States," says a statistician, "could go motoring at the same time." But that would ruin the grand old sport of pedestrian hunting. — Birmingham Age-Herald.

Steamer Celtic was in port this morning discharging general cargo for the Imperial Oil Co. The vessel left at noon for the Skeena River with cannery supplies.

TENDERS WANTED

Tenders will be received by the undersigned until March 1, 1924, for the purchase, with or without the lots, or the rent or removal of the buildings on Eleventh Avenue, formerly occupied by the Prince Rupert Dairy. The highest or any tender not necessarily accepted.
