How high could Hawks fly

Chicago coach must often wonder

By The Canadian Press

Chicago coach Rudy Pilous must often wonder how high his Black Hawks would be in the National Hockey League standings if Ed Litzenberger and Tod Sloan were playing as effectively as they did last year.

These old stars shone again Wednesday night, combining their efforts with those of new stars Bobby Hull and Bill (Red) Hay to give Chicago Blacks Hawks a 5-2 victory over Detroit Red Wings.

HOWE TIES ROCKET

All Detroit had to cheer about was the 945th point of Gordie Howe's career, which tied him with Maurice Richard of Montreal Canadiens for the record for regular-season play. Howe scored in the second period, his 18th goal of the season and the 436th of his career.

Howe has played 887 regular-season games, Richard 948.

The Red Wings' loss, in the only scheduled game of the night was their fourth consecutive game without a victory. It left them a point behind the second-place Toronto Maple Leafs, who have a game in hand.

Chicago moved to within a point of fourth-place Boston Bruins.

Sloan led the Chicago attack with two goals, his 13th and 14th, which came 33 seconds apart early in the second period.

Litzenberger, in a bad slump this season after finishing among the league's top six scorers for the last three years, scored the Black Hawks' first goal in the opening period. It was his ninth this season.

It tied the score at 1-1, Detroit having opened on rookie Brian Smith's first NHL goal.

A three-goal Chicago blitz settled the issue before the second period was six minutes old. Hay, considered one of the year's best rookies, began the assault and Sloan finished it with his two goals.

Howe's goal, which came at 6:09, revived Detroit hopes but the Wings could not maintain the offensive.

Hull's solo effort, for his 25th goal, completed the Chicago scoring in the third period. It gave him 51 points, one less than Boston's league-leading Bronco Horvath, and set a personal mark. His previous one-season high was 50 points, collected last year in his sophomore season.

'Feast or famine for Americans as Seattle wins, Spokane can't

By The Canadian Press

It's either a feast or famine as far as the two American entries in the Western Hockey League are concerned.

Second-place Seattle Totems, enjoying a fine run on their last swing through the Prairies, scored a come-from-behind 5-2 victory over Calgary Stampeders.

Totems now have three wins and a tie in five starts on the tour which ends Friday at Edmonton. Their point-getting has enabled the team to whittle Vancouver's big lead down to a more respectable seven points from 11 and their scoring leaders to build a good cushion in the individual scoring race.

BEST MARKSMEN

The scoring race has been a Seattle monopoly since Vancouver's ace centre Eddie Dorohoy was sidelined for the season a month ago. Totems now hold the top four positions.

Meanwhile, lowly Spokane Comets suffered another cruel blow in their attempt to vacate the league basement.

Victoria Cougars humbled the Comets 5-2 before 2,000 Spokane fans while sixth-place Winnipeg scored a 3-2 overtime victory over Edmonton to open a five-point bulge between themselves and Spokane.

To rub salt in the open wounds Cougars also spoiled the debut of Roy McBride, who took over the coaching reins this week from defenceman Joe Crozier.

DESPERATION SWITCH

McBride, Comets' general manager too, made the switch this week in an effort to spark a late season drive toward a playoff spot. Crozier remains with the team as a player.

Pat Ginnell with two goals and Jim Powers, Guyle Fielder and Bill MacFarland with one each did the scoring damage for Seattle at Calgary. Terry Gray and Ron Leopold scored for Stampeders, both in the opening period when Calgary held a 2-0 margin.

At Spokane, Doug Macauley, Ron Matthews, Don Blackburn, Gordie Fashoway and Doug Anderson shared the Cougars' scoring honors with Ron Attwell and Eddie Stankiewicz replying for Comets.

Victoria was handled by the veteran Fashoway and trainer Barlyn Hodges as coach Hal Laycoe missed his plane to Spokane.

At Winnipeg, Ray Brunel's goal at 5:49 of overtime gave Warriors the nod over Flyers in a game watched by about 3,000 fans.

BRUNEL GETS WINNER

The marker came while Edmonton's Gene Achtymichuk sitting out a charging penalty. Brunel stopped teammate Bill Folk's shot from the point and flipped the puck past helpless goalie Dennis Riggin.

Al Nicholson and Barrie Ross added the other Winnipeg goals with Chuck Holmes and Roger Dejordy scoring for Edmonton.

In other Friday night action Spokane will meet the Canucks at Vancouver and Calgary will travel to Winnipeg.

Edmonton will be without Len (Comet) Haley, their top point-getter, for their encounter with Seattle. Haley, who has 35 points on 19 goals and 16 assists, began a three-game trial with Detroit Red Wings Wednesday night.

Kaien Cup team signs more help

"We'll have the best team we have had for a long time, with a lot more depth and bench strength," Ernie Novakowski spokesman for the Senior Ice Hockey team who are to travel to Smithers for a two game exhibition which will decide the ownership of the Kaien Cup, said.

"As of yet no definite date has been set with Smithers as I am waiting to hear from them", Mr. Novakowski said.

The meeting held at the Civic Centre to discuss plans was poorly attend, but more players have signed this year than ever before. Anyone who would like to make the trek to Smithers, phone 5530.

NHL LEADERS

By The Canadian Press

Bobby Hull edged a little closer to Boston's Bronco Horvath in the National Hockey League scoring race Wednesday night. His single goal gave him 51 points, one less than the Bruins centre.

The leaders:

	G	A	Pts.
Horvath, Boston	27	25	52
Hull, Chicago	25	26	51
Bathgate, New York	17	31	48
Beliveau, Montreal	23	24	47
Stasiuk, Boston	16	29	45
H. Richard, Montreal	18	26	44
McKenney, Boston	12	30	42

Remember When

By The Canadian Press

Way back in New Orleans Bob Fitzsimmons won the world middleweight title 60 years ago today by stopping the original Jack Dempsey, "the Nonpareil." Fitzsimmons six years later, in 1897, won the world heavyweight title by knocking out James J. Corbett in the 14th round at Carson City, Nev. He was dethroned in 1899 by James J. Jeffries but later held the light-heavyweight title. He died in 1918.

Golf balls lost

Forty million golf balls were lost or ruinously gashed last year by five million golfers. There were eight million playing softball. There are more skiers in the U.S. than in Switzerland—three million of them, and almost as many archers—five million—as inhabitants of the land of William Tell.

Sport Shop ace leading individual scoring race

Ernie Novakowski, sharp-shooting centre with Sports Shop of the Senior Floor Hockey League piled up eight scoring points in his last two performances to take over undisputed possession of first place in the individual race.

He pulled two points clear of his wingman, Doug Brunton who led the league until Tuesday, but only halved Novakowski's production.

Savoy's ever-dangerous Alf Moran has dropped eight points off the pace, but still manages a respectable 30 points.

Statistics as released by league statistician Len Harrington Wednesday follow: (include games played to Jan. 14).

KAMLOOPS (CP) — Japan's Olympic Hockey team suffered its seventh successive setback Wednesday night, falling 6-1 before Kamloops Cariboos of the intermediate Pacific Coast Amateur Hockey League before an overflow crowd of 3,100 fans here.

EXCELLENT BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY
in Prince Rupert, B.C.

For a smart merchandising minded young man preferably one who has grown up in the community. This is a splendid opportunity for such a person who wants to set up business in his hometown.

This is a three-quarter million dollar business in the sale and servicing of cars and trucks. It represents a direct factory franchise which would develop into the number one or number two dealership in terms of vehicle sales and profits in the area. It would include Canadian, U.S. and British built cars, trucks, parts and accessories. Naturally the opportunity would demand capital investments in garage building and inventories.
