NEW FORMAT RECOMMENDED

Conrad PTA to hold tea in September for mothers

A new format for the Conrad Street school Parent-Teacher association's annual bazaar was suggested at the regular meeting of the association held in the school Tuesday night.

Recommendations that next year's bazaar be held in the spring instead of the fall with focus on a children's fashion show, will be passed on to the newly chosen bazaar convener, Mrs. Arvid Maki for the consideration by her committee.

It was decided to hold a tea for the mothers of children entering Grade 1 in September under the convenership of Mrs. A. S. Marshall. Invitations will be sent out as soon as lists of beginners are complete it was announced.

PTA president Mrs. John Denning was in the chair.

Principal T. G. Bateman was authorized to purchase an opaque projector for the school. The PTA's goal is to have the equipment paid for by the end of the year.

W. A. Bisset was named to head the nominating committee.

Arthur Janzen's classroom of Grades 5 and 6 won the attendance pennant for the month.

The session concluded with the showing of films "The Threshold," depicting the problems of an immigrant family and how it found help in integrating through a PTA and the new film "Portrait of Prince Rupert."

"IN HIM IS LIFE..."

We cannot be prisoners of an event. This is the significance of Easter. Man cannot be held by the past or the future. He lives in the timeless present. Life and death have been brought to light by the eternal Presence, for death has been abolished.

When we were 10 years old we knew what happened could not exhaust our possibilities.

Then we became teenagers because we were ripe for the things that could not be included in our "under 10 dimension. Then on into the decisive twenties and still we realized that no single event could imprison us and so we were able to hold our aspirations over against the facts as they happened. That fact on the horizon constantly informed the events that you had a Divine destiny.

This is the significance of Easter that took death in its stride.

Easter is the symbol of Life. It is not so much the over stressed statement that Christ is alive. There is no doubt about that but the more pressing question is—am I alive? What do we call life? We call it the temporary endowment of vital forces that animate our bodies, that sees with the eyes, hears with the ears and thrills in the heart.

It was in that light that men conceived Jesus' death. Death died not Christ and life did not mean what men call life. A whole new scale of values had to be set—here was something that was greater than nature.'

A symbol of what Life is—"Behold I set before you an open door that no man can shut.

Easter is a strategy. It is one of the most revolutionary ideas to walk across the face of history.

He who would save his life must lose it for my sake.

Each new day is eternity for us to live through and it can be done because of him who gave us the key, John Oxenham has said:

For Christ is more than all the creeds,
And his full life of gentle deeds shall all the creeds outlive,
Not what I do believe; but Whom'
Who walks beside me in the gloom?
Who shares the burden wearisome?
Who all the dim way doth illumine, and bids me look beyond the tomb
The larger life to live—
Not what I do believe, but whom—.
