Deputy Registrar of Titles

WHIFFLETS
From the Waterfront

To spend the remainder of the week here engaged in barnstorming flights over the city with sightseeing passengers, Pilot Jack McConnachie arrived here from Anyox at 11:30 yesterday morning with his Eastman flying boat. He is making his headquarters for the flights at the Armour Salvage Co. floats.

With 170 passengers, mostly round trip tourists, on board, C. N. R. steamer Prince George, Capt. H. E. Nedden, arrived in port at 10 o'clock yesterday morning from Vancouver, Powell River and Ocean Falls and sailed at 1 p.m. for Skagway and other Alaska points whence she will return here next Monday southbound.

T. A. Kelley Logging Co.'s service boat Nora Jane, Capt. W. L. Dass, arrived in port yesterday from the company's camp at Atli Inlet, Queen Charlotte Islands, being a piece of machinery for repairs at the local dry dock. The Nora Jane will arrive in port for a few days while the job is being carried out.

With 188 passengers, most of whom were round trip tourists, on board, C. P. R. steamer Princess Louise, Capt. Thomas Cliff, arrived in port at 9:30 this morning from Vancouver and sailed at 11 a.m. for Skagway and other Alaska points whence she is due to return here Tuesday afternoon southbound. The vessel had no passengers for here, two embarking from this port aboard her for the north.

EAVESDROPPING?

Perhaps—

But . . .

There are certain places—the ball park, the hockey game for instance; or street cars and buses where conversations become eloquent, sometimes forceful, but always semi-public.

These daily gatherings offer a vivid cross-section of the thoughts, ambitions, and ideals of an entire people; and it is only one more step to the questions, "Where are all these opinions created?" "What basic agency can be held responsible for the origination of so great a number of ideas?"

The answer lies in a great unconfined power in which the Canadian public places its faith; an institution in which ideas form an ever-changing picture yet maintain a firm grip upon the imagination, the desires, and the buying thoughts of the entire world.

ONLY ONE MEDIUM can measure up daily to this exacting standard and yet maintain the balance and stability necessary to the sanity of the nation—THE DAILY NEWSPAPER
