FEWER LORDS IN SCOTLAND

Number Has Been Gradually Reduced Until Today There Are Only 86

LONDON, April 3.—The Scottish peerage, once the strongest and most flourishing of Great Britain, now only contains 86 members, says the new issue of Debrett. At the time of the union of the parliaments of Scotland and England in 1707, the peerage enrolled 154 members, which included almost all the wealthiest men of Scotland, the clan chiefs and poitical leaders of the country. These peers were in almost absplute control of the country and owned most of the shipping interests, then the greatest commercial enterprise of the British Isles.

Attainder, extinction and dormancy have since then reduced the number, and the growth of new commercial interests has taken away the influence of the peers.

As no Scottish peerage could be created since 1707, to be a member of the Scottish peerage is a greater distinction than to be a member of any other British peerage. Forty-nine of the Scottish peers have been made peers of England and therefore allowed to sit in the House of Lords, which prerogative is not accorded to the Scottish nobles. The remainder are allowed to elect 16 of the number at the beginning of parliament to represent them in the House of Lords.

At the present time the peerage is composed of 4 dukes, 4 marquises, 42 earls, 2 countesses, 4 viscounts, 21 barons and 4 baronesses.

POLES DESTROY CHURCH SYMBOLIZING RUSSIA

WARSAW, April 3.—The Russian cathedral of Warsaw, which to the Poles has always stood as a symbol of the hated Russian regime, will have ceased to exist in a few months. The decision to demolish this church was taken a year ago, but influential Russians and some people in art circles who admired the special architectural beauties of the edifice, endeavored to postpone its demolition, counting on a possible change of opinion.

Now, however, the destruction has begun. A commission of artists is dismounting the paintings and mosaics which, together with the marble parts, will be used to decorate the church being constructed at the Citadel as a memorial to all Poles who perished in the fight for independence.

CANCELLATION OF RESERVE.

Notice is hereby given that the reserves covering the lands formerly held under Timber Licences Nos. 32379 and 32380 are cancelled.

RICH WOMAN DIES IN OBSCURE HOME

NEW YORK, April 2. — When Henrietta Coffin, an aged recluse, died recently she left an estate valued at $100,000. Her home had been in a meagre two-room flat on Fulton Street in Brooklyn. In all the six years that she had lived in the dingy old building she had never been known to speak to anyone, although it was whispered among the tenants that she had moved from a fine mansion on Madison Avenue.

No one knew why she chose to cover herself with obscurity and die away from her family and friends. Her death was discovered when tenants reported to the superintendent of the building that she had not been making her usual trip to the grocery. The door to her flat was forced and her body found huddled on the bed. Death was from natural causes.

A search of the room revealed several bank books all showing substantial accounts. In addition there were numerous mortgages and securities. A diploma was found showing that the woman had been qualified to teach school in the city of Brooklyn, together with some pieces of jewelry such as a girl might have worn in the '70s.

A postcard to a friend directed that her body be cremated.

NIGHT FLYING AIRPLANE MYSTIFIES THE POLICE

CHRISTIANA, April 3.—The police believe that a large airplane is engaged in the smuggling trade in connection with a mother craft out at sea in the region of Eosnaes.

On several moonlight nights recently, an airplane with immense engines and powerful lights has been observed flying along the coast, and is believed to be operating with a smuggler somewhere among the intricate mazé of islands and channels off the coast near Trondhjem.

LABOR CANDIDATE

WINDSOR, England, April 3.—The son of Lord Albermarle, the Hon. Arnold Keppel, has signified his intention of standing as a Labor candidate for this division at the next general election.

The sitting member for the division is A. A. Somerville, a Conservative, and while the Labor candidate was being educated at Eton Somerville acted as one of his tutors.

R. G. Cunningham came in from Port Essington on last night's train and is registered at the Prince Rupert Hotel.

T. Clarke, junior district forester, returned by last night's train from a trip to the interior on departmental business.

NEW COMPANY TO MINE AT STEWART

Stewart Highgrades Limited Is Latest Concern Capitalized at Million

VICTORIA, April 3. — The latest Stewart concern to be incorporated is Stewart Highgrades Limited. It is capitalized at $1,000,000, and will operate claims in the Stewart mining district, probably beginning work early in July or even before that date.

The newly-formed company will mine the Bayview, Grey Copper groups and various other portions of territory in the district, which, when they were mined by William Forrest, at present a director of the company, but one-time owner of the claims, were showing remarkably high values. In one shipment of ore to the Tacoma smelters, $362 per ton was realized in all values, and this was at a time when the price of copper was low.

The Bayview group of claims is situated about four miles from the town of Stewart, and the Grey Copper land is about eighteen miles from this settlement on the Bear River Mountains. The claims are all reached by good roads and trails.

The board of directors is made up almost entirely of local men, and is as follows: Aaron Gonnason, Harry R. Savage, Capt. Charles E. Clarke, William Forrest of Millbank, and Lieutenant-Colonel C. B. Simonds.

SYNOPSIS OF LAND ACT AMENDMENTS

PRE-EMPTIONS

Vacant, unreserved, surveyed Crown lands may be pre-empted by British subjects over 18 years of age, and by aliens on declaring intention to become British subjects, conditional upon residence, occupation, and improvement for agricultural purposes.

Full information concerning regulations regarding pre-emptions is given in Bulletin No. 1, Land Series, "How to Pre-empt Land," copies of which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the Department of Lands, Victoria, B.C., or to any Government Agent.

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes, and which is not timberland, i.e., carrying over 5,000 board feet per acre west of the Coast Range and 5,000 feet per acre east of that Range.

Applications for pre-emptions are to be addressed to the Land Commissioner of the Land Recording Division, in which the land applied for is situated, and are made on printed forms, copies of which can be obtained from the Land Commissioner.

Pre-emptions must be occupied for five years and improvements made to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivating at least five acres, before a Crown Grant can be received.

For more detailed information see the Bulletin "How to Pre-empt Land."

PURCHASE

Applications are received for purchase of vacant and unreserved Crown lands, not being timberland, for agricultural purposes; minimum price of first-class (arable) land is $5 per acre, and second-class (grazing) land $2.50 per acre. Further information regarding purchase or lease of Crown lands is given in Bulletin No. 10, Land Series, "Purchase and Lease of Crown Lands."

Mill, factory, or industrial sites on timber land, not exceeding 40 acres, may be purchased or leased, the conditions including payment of stumpage.

HOMESITE LEASES

Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesites, conditional upon a dwelling being erected in the first year, title being obtainable after residence and improvement conditions are fulfilled and land has been surveyed.

LEASES

For grazing and industrial purposes areas not exceeding 640 acres may be leased by one person or a company.

GRAZING

Under the Grazing Act the Province is divided into grazing districts and the range administered under a Grazing Commissioner. Annual grazing permits are issued based on numbers ranged, priority being given to established owners. Stock-owners may form associations for range management. Free, or partially free, permits are available for settlers, campers and travellers, up to ten head.
