Garner, Bell, Lemire setting 'spiel pace

Two primary events down to eights

Three curling giants of the Golden Jubilee bonspiel emerged with five win-no-loss records early this morning as the Prince Rupert Curling club's ninth annual classic ground into the final 24 hours.

Sporting three wins each in the Fashion Footwear Grand Challenge A Event were the Ed Garner, Peter Bell and Gerry Lemire rinks. All three also had two wins in the secondary primary event for the Superior Auto trophy in B Event.

Garner is matched with Bell in A event, Lemire with Bert Rowbotham while still in the grand challenge event Lloyd Kristmanson's rink is paired against Darrow Gomez while Jack Paul is matched against the hot-to-go Terry Lewis RCMP rink.

The Lewis police quartet had a five-win skein going up until the 8:30 draw last night in B event when they tangled with the Bill Good rink skipped by Jim Georgeson, who took the abbreviated game 8-5.

By early morning Peter Moroz, Chuck Whatman and the Georgeson crew had reached the eights of B Event.

Curlers took time out from their labors Saturday night when they joined a crowd of relatives and curling fans, and jammed the Armoury about 500 strong for the annual Seafood banquet.

The exhuberant crowd feasted, sang, and listened attentively while Bill Good, Vancouver radio commentator spoke briefly about the Canadian Curling championships at Fort William, Ont., and the Canadian Women's curling championships at Victoria.

"There were some great exhibitions of curling at Victoria," Mr. Good said.

He promised that next year he would bring his own rink up here to compete in the 10th Annual Marine Bonspiel and possibly include Annis Stukus on his team. The six-foot-four-inch ex-newspaperman congratulated the Georgeson rink he had hoped to skip, had he been able to get away sooner from Victoria.

The noisy crowd wasn't so kind to veteran northern curler Dud Little of Terrace, who took a long time to get around to describing his trip with the Canadian curling team that played in Scotland.

However, Mr. Little maintained his good nature to the end telling the curlers that while "fellowship in Scotland is just about the best in the world, that displayed at the Prince Rupert bonspiels is the next best."

Curling club president Joe Scott welcomed the guests and paid tribute to bonspiel chairman Bob Rudderham and banquet chairman Stan Cooper for their hard work.

Harley Lewis was master of ceremonies for the entertainment. A dance concluded the banquet.

Results of games since Thursday, up to and including the 5:30 a.m. draw today are as follows:

Sports Shop knots floor hockey semis

By KEN SPECHT
Daily News Sports Writer

Paced by George Howe with five goals, Sports Shop downed Savoy Hotel 9-7 Friday night at the Civic Centre to tie the Senior Floor Hockey semi-finals at one win each.

Savoy upset the league champions 9-6 on March 8 in the semi-final opener.

A 5-1 first-period lead by Sports Shop Friday night proved too big a margin for Savoy to whittle down. The hotelmen narrowed the gap to 6-4 at the end of the second period but were only able to match Sports Shop's three goals in the last stanza.

Sports Shop's Harold Stamnes followed Howe with two goals while for Savoy Alf Moran scored a hat-trick and Bill Gurney fired in two.

A total of 22 penalties were handed out by referees Jim Arseneau and Jim McDougal with 13 going to Savoy.

In the Junior semi-finals a rejuvinated RCMP squad overcame a 7-6 second-period deficit and blasted home six markers in the final frame to defeat Ormes 12-10 and tie the best-of-three semi's at one game each.

They will clash again in the preliminaries Friday night.

Jack Martin topped RCMP with four goals while Jim Murdock and Larry Veitch banged in two each. For Ormes Adolpho Paolinelli, up from the juvenile ranks, scored four goals with Chris Harvey and Jerry Jensen adding two apiece.

KO Lausse stops Greaves

NEW YORK (AP) — Argentina's Eduardo (KO) Lausse celebrated his return to the U.S. ring Friday night by stopping rugged Wilfie Greaves of Edmonton in 1:33 of the fourth round of an action-packed scrap at Madison Square Garden.

Referee Ruby Goldstein halted the bout after Greaves, Canadian middleweight champion was dropped once and was taking some hard wallops. It was the first time Greaves had been stopped in 45 pro fights.

Canucks set for semis again Flyers

By The Canadian Press

Vancouver Canucks have convinced their Western Hockey League fans that they are the best team in the league. Their next assignment is to prove it to Edmonton Flyers.

Vancouver and second-place Seattle Totems officially completed the 1959-60 WHL schedule Sunday in Seattle, with Canucks winning 3-2.

The league winners now take on third-place Edmonton Wednesday in Vancouver in the first game of their best-of-five semi-final.

Victoria travels to Seattle Friday for the opening game of the other semi-final series.

Canucks won twice during the weekend. They edged Spokane Comets 5-4 in overtime Saturday in Spokane and then squeeked by Seattle on Sunday.

Plante, Hull end season with awards

By The Canadian Press

The National Hockey League season ended Sunday night in thrilling style.

Bombby Hull, Chicago's golden rocket, scored a third-period assist in his final game to win the scoring title by one point.

The Vezina Trophy winner was also determined at the last moment. Jacques Plante of Montreal won it by letting in two goals fewer than the 180 Chicago's Glenn Hall allowed during the season.

That gave Plante an unprecedented fifth straight Vezina Trophy, awarded to the goalie who played the most games for the team least scored upon.

BRUINS KNOCKED OUT

Boston Bruins' threat to sneak into fourth place fizzled Saturday night when they bowed 5-1 to Montreal Canadiens, who had already clinched the league title.

That was the crucial contest of the weekend. Bruins tied Chicago Black Hawks 5-5 and Canadiens bowed 3-1 to the last-place New York Rangers Sunday night.

The fourth-place Detroit Red Wings, the breath of the Bruins hot on their necks, sewed up the final playoff spot Saturday, whipping New York 6-3.

The Wings failed to grab third place when they dropped a 3-2 decision to the second-place Toronto Maple Leafs Sunday.

Toronto defeated Chicago 1-0 Sunday.

The leaders at the end of the regular schedule are:

	G	A	Pts.
Hull, Chicago	39	42	81
Horvath, Boston	39	41	80
Beliveau, Montreal	34	40	74
Bathgate, N.Y.	26	48	74
H. Richard, Mont.	30	43	73
Howe, Detroit	28	45	73

F & P captures senior cage title

By KEN SPECHT
Daily News Sports Writer

Fraser and Payne captured the Senior Men's Basketball playoff championship Saturday night with 73-57 victory over a short-handed Catholic Youth Organization.

The win, second in a row, gave the clothiers the best-of-three series, abbreviated from a best-of-seven playoff when CYO was reduced to five players.

Missing stars Bill Smith and Gary Morison, the Catholic Youth squad battled through the fixture with a minimum lineup and lost Don MacAfee when he fouled out with two minutes to go.

Art Helin scored two F & P field goals in the first 14 seconds of the game and the clothiers went on to lead 14-9 at the end of the first quarter, 38-24 at half time and 52-43 at three-quarter mark.

Terry Shenton scored 25 points to pace F & P with Helin adding 14 points and George Howe 11. Ray Spring with 22 points topped CYO marksmen while Bill Bailey, in his last athletic appearance here before moving to Vancouver, netted 17.

In the Intermediate Basketball league finals Van's Bakery trimmed Sunrise Grocery 44-34 in the first game of a best-of-five series.

Van's led 10-4 at the end of the first quarter, 20-15 at the half and 34-21 at the end of the third quarter.

Dick Wesch with 15 was top point-getter for Van's. Robert Gruber with 13 points led Sunrise.

Baseball Scores

By The Associated Press

Chicago White Sox won their seventh exhibition game Sunday with a 12-2 win over Baltimore. Other week-end exhibition games saw San Francisco wallop Cleveland 20-5, New York belt Cincinnati 13-5, Detroit beat Milwaukee 9-7, St. Louis edge Philadelphia 4-3, Los Angeles defeat Washington 7-5, Pittsburgh top Kansas City 6-3 and Chicago's Cubs defeat Boston 3-2.

Rainmakers still need $65 in funds

Prince Rupert Senior High school Rainmakers, still short $65 in expense money, leave tomorrow for Vancouver to take part in the British Columbia High school basketball championships.

The Rainmakers' boosted their funds by $27, Friday night with an exhibition game in the Senior High school gym where they bowed 77-69 to the Savoy Hotel All-Stars.

The exhibition tilt saw Rainmakers' coach Don Hartwig experiment too often with plays and player combinations. The All-Stars overcame a 56-50 third quarter deficit to take the game.

Bill Bailey with 25 points and Terry Shenton with 24 paced the All Stars while Mike Lemon was top man for the Rainmakers with 23 points.

Kelowna wins OSHL crown

PENTICTON (C)—Exploding for five goals in the third period Kelowna Packers stormed from behind to whip Vernon Canadians 6-4 and capture the Okanagan Senior Hockey League championship here Saturday night before 2,500 fans.

The victory gave Kelowna the best-of-seven series 4-3 with one game tied.

Kelowna now advances to the B.C. Senior A final against Trail Smoke Eaters, Western International League champions, with the best-of-seven series starting Monday at Kelowna.
