NELS JEPSEN THREW BURNS TWO OUT OF THREE LOSING FIRST

ANYOX, Sept. 20.— Recreation Hall was the scene of a wrestling match on Wednesday night, when Nels Jepson, light-heavy-weight champion of Canada, and Jack Burns, of Spokane, worked for a decision. There was nothing at stake, but a very pretty exhibition of the big man's game was witnessed by a small crowd of fans, who waxed enthusiastic. The best two out of three falls decided the winner, and Jepson got 'em . The first fall went to Burns in fourteen minutes, a double-scissors and hip lock doing the trick. Jepson won the next two straight, it taking just eight minutes for each, and both falls were secured with a toehold.

A. Lafortune was the third man on the mat, and A. Sinclair held the watch.

COLE WINNER OF PRESIDENT'S CUP IN ANYOX TENNIS

ANYOX, Sept. 20. — The big event of the Anyox tennis year is the competition for the president's cup, donated annually by whoever happens to be president of the club, J. E. C. Stroud being the donor for 1924. The finals for this bit of silverware was contested on Sunday last, the two players qualifying being D. Cole Jr., and H. T. Ballion. Mr. Cole won in two straight sets, the scores being 6-4, 6-4, 6-1. It was expected that it would take at least four and possibly five sets to determine the winner, and considerable disappointment resulted among those followers of the game who were attracted to the courts for the play. Mr. Cole played a thoroughly excellent game, however, and no play seemed to be too difficult for him, while Mr. Ballion appeared decidedly off color and was certainly not performing up to his usual standard. This is the second year in succession that Mr. Cole has won the president's cup.

Sport Chat

Despite all the advance heralding that was published by Victoria sporting editors, the scheduled ten-round bout between Joe Bayley and Alex Roy on Thursday night ended rather suddenly and seems at this distance to have turned out more or less of a joke. While it is hard to say how far Bayley will get with his claim for the Canadian lightweight championship, which he held ten years ago, it does look as if his opponent, Roy, must have gone down a good deal since he left Prince Rupert or really was not much good when he was here. In any case, he let a "has-been," who most everybody thought was done with the boxing game for good long ago, administer the knock-out to him in the second round. Bayley fought several battles here some ten years ago and is known to many fistic fans. Even though the lightweight title does not seem to be very much in demand it is generally felt that Bayley will never be able to hold it officially again.

The three senior Eastern Canada rugby unions will open their schedules early in October. In the Intercollegiate Union, three teams — McGill, Varsity and Queens—are entered and the first match of the six game schedule will be McGill at Varsity on October 11. The first games of the twelve fixture schedule of the Big Four Interprovincial Union will be Argos at Ottawa and Tigers at Montreal on October 4. There are four teams entered, Balmy Beach, Varsity and Hamilton will play six games in the Ontario Rugby Union with the first game on October 4 Balmy Beach at Varsity.

TYPHOON STRIKES LURID JAZZ PARTY IN BLAZING TROPICS

Dramatic Scene in "Thundering Dawn" at the Local Theatre Tonight

Gayety at its height—weird but seductive jazz of the Orient where graceful bodies swayed through soft toned lights, and no one cared for the morrow. Eager eyes sought each other through half drunken stupors.

Occasionally a man reached for his gun. A woman's eyes subdued him. Here a couple fell exhausted — from drink and drugs and endless whirling. Freedom! Bohemia! Madness! The seasons were changing. The long hot half year of white burning sun had given ground to the six month sway of rain.

Across the floor the queen stepped. A siren in soul, brazen with the conquests of unnumbered men. The picturesque swarm of men and women, refugees of every land, bold and unwavering, stepped aside to give her ground.

Straight to the young American outcast she went. By his side was his sweetheart from the States pleading tearfully for his regeneration. The lure of the Oriental vampire mounted to his brain, but the pain-wrenched face of the civilized woman beside him held him back. The crowd watched in silence. Two women were battling each other for their souls and for the soul of a man. The man was hopelessly enmeshed by both.

Suddenly a shriek of mad wind was heard—

"Typhoon!" A woman screamed.

Crash! Came the great timbers of the gilded palace splintering like bamboo. Men fled. Women huddled and shrieked.

Tidal wave! The sea dashed in to wash everything away. Who could survive such a mad tropic storm?

That was one of the scenes in Thundering Dawn at the Westholme last night and tonight.

George H. Arnold, who has been in the south for the past few weeks on a combined business and pleasure trip, returned to the city on the Prince Rupert yesterday afternoon.

At a meeting last night final arrangements were made for the re-opening of the Lutheran Church night school in the King Edward High School building on Monday. It is expected to have three classes, particularly for the study of English. The classes are under the management of the church and the teachers, so far have given their services voluntarily.
