Davey Moore fighter of month

Eddie Machen moves into fourth spot

NEW YORK (AP)—Davey Moore of Springfield, Ohio, is Ring Magazine's fighter of the month.

The world featherweight champion received the award for his eight-round knockout of former European champion Sergio Caprari of Italy in their recent nontitle bout.

Moore was the only world champion to get into action during the last few weeks, so there was little disturbance in Ring's monthly ratings.

Two gains occurred in the heavyweight division. Eddie Machen of Redding, Calif., moved into fourth place in the list of challengers through his knockout over Billy Hunter. Alex Miteff of Argentina, jumped to eighth from 10th after knocking out Jose Georgetti.

The rankings:

Heavyweights — Champion, Ingemar Johansson, Sweden. 1. Zora Folley; 2. Floyd Patterson; 3. Sonny Liston; 4. Eddie Machen; 5. Henry Cooper, England.

Light-Heavyweight—Champion Archie Moore. 1. Harold Johnson; 2. Erich Schoppner, Germany; 3. Mike Holt, South Africa.

Middleweights — Champion, Paul Pender. 1. Ray Robinson, and Gene Fullmer; 3. Gustav Schelz, Germany.

Welterweights — Champion, Don Jordan. 1. Luis Rodriguez, Cuba; 2. Rudell Stitch; 3. Ralph Dupas.

Lightweight — Champion, Joe Brown. 1. Carlos Ortiz; 2. Paolo Rosi; 3. Dave Charnley, England.

Featheweights — Champion, Moore. 1. Ricardo Gonzales, Argentina; 2. Harold Gomes; 3. Hogan (Kid) Bassey, Nigeria.

Bantamweights — Champion, Joe Becerra, Mexico. 1. Alphonse Halimi, France; 2. Freddy Gilroy, Ireland; 3. Eder Jofre, Brazil.

Flyweights — Champion, Pascual Perez, Argentina. 1. Pone Kingpetch, Thailand; 2. Sadao Yaoita, Japan; 3. Mimun Ben Ali, Spain.

Bauer challenges Maple Leafs

KITCHENER, Ont. (CP)— Bobby Bauer, who coached Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen to a second-place silver medal in winter Olympic hockey, Tuesday challenged Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League to a game with the Dutchmen "under Olympic rules."

He said his team would play the second-place Leafs either in Toronto or Kitchener and proceeds could go to charity if the NHL team wanted.

"The only condition I would want is that two referees with experience in international hockey handle the game," he told a reporter. "One of them should be Hughie McLean, who was hailed as the finest referee ever to appear in the Olympics."

In Toronto, Maple Leaf's spokesman Harold Ballard laughed off the challenge as "a joke."

"They better win something before they try the Leafs," he said. "They messed up things pretty good down there. They better get some organization and co-operation in their own team before they challenge anybody."

RAINMAKERS IN TOURNEY

Exhibition slated as Hartley Bay out

Through no fault of their own, Prince Rupert Senior High school Rainmakers find themselves in the All-Native tournament but only for exhibition purposes.

At a meeting of the tournament committee last night at the Civic Centre, where the tourney got underway this morning, it was learned that the Hartley Bay cagers could not make the series.

To establish continuity in the schedule the sponsoring Prince Rupert Basketball association arranged for the Rainmakers to play exhibition games with those teams slated to meet Hartley Bay.

Teams playing the Rainmakers will be awarded automatic wins by default so far as the tournament is concerned whether they win against the high school team or not.

The senior teams are engaged in a double knockout series while the intermediate's are playing a round-robin tournament.

At 9 this morning the senior Miller Bay Vikings met Port Simpson YPEA in the tourney opener while at 10:30 a.m. Aiyansh Comets and Rupert Royals faced each other in the first intermediate encounter.

This afternoon at 2:30 Kitkatla KEC and Kitkatla Aces met in a senior tilt.

Following is a schedule for the remainder of today's games.

4 p.m. (intermediate) Mansons vs Metlakatla.

6:30 p.m. (intermediate) Port Simpson vs Aiyansh Comets.

8 p.m. (senior) Kitimaat vs Aiyansh Y's.

9:30 p.m. Rupert Thunderbirds vs Prince Rupert Senior High Rainmakers.

GOLD MEDAL for Canada — Ottawa's Anne Heggtveit, seen swinging through the gate on her first slalom run, won Canada's first-ever Olympic skiing medal at Squaw Valley, Calif., when she won the women's slalom. The 21-year-old blonde topped 42 women, including European and American stars, with a total time for two runs of one minute, 49.6 seconds. —CP from AP.

Carol Heiss takes lead in world skating meet

VANCOUVER (CP)—The pace gets tougher today for the lithe, dedicated young ladies in the 1960 world figure skating championship.

With two of the six compulsory figures completed, the 24 entrants in the women's singles tighten up their laces and their nerves to take on the remaining four in the drafty, barn-like atmosphere of the Vancouver Forum, site of the championships.

There wasn't an upset worth talking about after the first day's figures.

Twenty-year-old Carol Heiss, her smooth page boy framing a twinkling smile, skated coolly into a substantial lead in the first two figures, on the way to carrying her fifth consecutive world championship back home to Ozone Park, N.Y.

Based on unofficial figures only—the official totals won't be released until all six figures are completed—Miss Heiss had 266.1 points, 11 more than shapely, 18-year-old Sjoukje Dyjkstra of The Netherlands.

Bespectacled Barbara Ann Roles of Los Angeles ranked third with 242.7 points. The same three girls finished in that order in the winter Olympics at Squaw Valley, Calif.

TIGHTER RACE

The list tightened up after that. Joan Haanappel of The Netherlands had 234.3 points in unofficial standings, Regine Heitzer and Karin Frohner of Austria were next with 231.3 and 224.1 points respectively and Laurence Owen of the United States was seventh with 223.5.

Skin divers hope to show undersea film

An underwater adventure film "The Silent World" will be given a public showing by the Orcas, if the Prince Rupert skin-diving club can complete all necessary arrangements.

The Orcas made the decision at a recent meeting at which it was planned to show the film in the Civic Centre in conjunction with a membership drive. A display of the club's diving equipment will also be on display at the film screening.

The meeting, held at the home of Orcas president Gunther Diehl, was told that a compressor had been ordered and will be available for club use shortly. Members also saw an underwater film entitled "Ten Fathoms Down."

Persons wishing to join the Orcas are asked to call Bruce Eggleston at 6035.

Quarter-finals, semis tonight in Grotto play

Quarter and semi final games in the Grotto Cigar Store trophy playoffs are scheduled for 7 o'clock and 9:15 respectively tonight at the Prince Rupert Curling club.

Results of last night's games in Grotto play are:

7 p.m.—Lamble 7, Berg 6; Simundson 4, Ford 8; Simpson 7, Kerr 5; Gomez 7, Dominato 5.

Tomorrow night at 7 o'clock the Rupert Motors trophy playoffs get underway with Lamble meeting Simpson; Gomez vs Manson; Lindsay vs Parker and Mitchell meeting Scott in the quarter finals.

The semi finals are set for 9 p.m. tomorrow.

Grotto, Rupert Motors and Women's club Columbia Cellulose trophy finals will be played Saturday night and will be followed by presentation of trophies.

Juvenile All Stars outshoot, outhustle RCMP in exhibition

What the Prince Rupert Juvenile All Stars lacked in weight they more than made up in determination as they downed the Junior RCMP 12-10 in an exhibition floor hockey game at the Civic Centre last night.

The diminutive juveniles used accurate passing plays and outscurried the RCMP crew to pull into a 4-2 first period lead, boosted the score to 7-6 at the end of the second period and outscored the constabularly 5-4 in the last frame.

The heavier RCMP attackers were harassed by smooth-working juvenile defence combinations and although they outshot their younger opponents were thwarted by the smart goaltending of Juveniles' Ernie Baines.

Jim Murdoch and Jack Martin of RCMP opened the scoring and it wasn't until the eight-minute mark that Juveniles' Adolpho Pavinelli fired in two goals to tie the score.

Minutes later Brian Specht took a pass from Skip Cronk and banged in a goal to put the juveniles in the lead.

Standout defence man John Dopson fired in the final Juveniles' goal of the frame.

Bill McLeod of RCMP netted a hat trick during the second period with Martin adding a singleton. Dopson of juveniles scored two more and Skip Cronk another to boost the All-Stars' total.

The final stanza saw RCMP make a determined rally with Bill McLeod, Larry Veitch and Bruce Moore each scoring once. Juveniles Brian Specht fired in two goals and Skip Cronk one to maintain Juveniles' 10-9 edge with two minutes remaining.

Pavenelli, however, snubbed RCMP's hopes a few seconds later when he blasted in two quick 15-footers.

Orme's force playoff in junior puck loop

Orme's Drugs forced a playoff battle with Bob Parkers last night as they whipped a hard-fighting Sports Shop crew 11-4 in the final Junior Floor Hockey League for the season at the Civic Centre.

The two teams are now tied for the league leadership with 23 points apiece.

	W	T	L	GP	Pts.
Parkers	11	1	6	18	23
Ormes	11	1	6	18	23
RCMP	8	1	9	18	15
Sports Shop	4	1	13	18	9

Although forced to play with only four on each side for nine minutes due to penalties, the druggists edged into a 3-2 first period lead, increased it to 7-3 at the second frame and outscored the sportswear crew 4-1 in the final stanza.

Don Martin with two and Gene Dorash with one were first period scorers for Ormes' while Brian Kangas and Hans Dorlas with one apiece opened Sports Shops record.

The second period saw Orme's Chris Harvey add two, Greg McLeod and Adolpho Pavenelli each scored once while Sports Shop's Kangas fired in one.

In the final period, singletons by Allen Specht, Dorash, Pavenelli and Bob Adams cinched their victory.

Sports Shop's lone third period scorer was Robert Ericson.

LAST NIGHT'S FIGHTS

Los Angeles (AP)—Jim McCarter, San Bernardino, Calif., stopped Irish Roy Smith, Raleigh, N.C. (1). Heavyweights.

Honolulu (AP)— Henry Mallolo, 145½, Honolulu, outpointed Tony Noriega, 144, Fresno, Calif, 6.

Richmond, Calif. (AP) — Ocie Chatmon, 180, Oakland, Calif., stopped John Balla, 178, Stockton, Calif. (8).

Fresno, Calif. (AP)—Ben Medina, 140¼, Fresno, awarded decision over Orlando Zulueta, 140¼, Havana (8). Fight stopped because Medina's right eyebrow severely cut by accidental butt from Zulueta, Medina ahead on points and under California rules awarded decision.
