WESTHOLME THEATRE

WEDNESDAY ONLY, 7 and 9 P.M.

"The Galloping Fish"

Fun! Nerve! Originality! The year's big laugh buster! The hilarious adventures of a timid little bridegroom with a diving Venus and her trained seal. Come and get in the swim with Freddie, the galloping fish; Willie, the alligator—the diving Venuses—crowds of bathing beauties—the flirtatious newly-wed—his jealous wife and all the rest of the uproariously, funny bunch. Hot stuff comedy pulled in cold water. A photo-play packed with laughs from start to finish with a spectacular flood at the climax.

All-star cast. Sidney Chaplin, Chester Conklin.

Admission 35c and 10c.

NEW PUBLICATION IN KETCHIKAN IS LIKELY

Plans Laid to Publish Alaska Fisherman at that Place from Big Plant

There is a scheme on foot to extend the scope of the present monthly journal "The Alaska Fisherman." The management has entered into an agreement to purchase the plant of the "Daily Alaskan" and to move it to Ketchikan and to publish there in a building of their own.

Efforts are now being made to raise money for the enterprise and a good many of the bonds are being taken up by The Alaska Nation Brotherhood, a native Indian organization. In case of liquidation is is agreed that the bonds taken by the Brotherhood shall be paid off last.

The prime mover in this is William L. Paul, an educated native, managing editor of the publication and candidate for representative in the Alaska legislature.

Paul is an associate of Dan Sutherland, John Rustgard, F. J. Hunt, and others all of whom believe in closer trade relations with Prince Rupert.

WOMEN ROBBERS IN BERLIN

BERLIN.—Holdup women have appeared in Berlin. They operate in the suburbs, usually after midnight, and all the victims so far have been men. The women are big and strong and instead of carrying revolvers they use hammers or clubs.

MRS. PHELAN DIED YESTERDAY IN SOUTH

Mother of Mrs. J. W. Nicholls Was Frequent Visitor Here —Demise will be Regretted

The death occurred in Vancouver yesterday morning of Mrs. J. T. Phelan, wife of J. T. Phelan, superintendent of Government Telegraphs, and mother of Mrs. J. W. Nicholls of this city. Mrs. Nicholls received the distressing news by wire yesterday afternoon and will leave this afternoon for Vancouver.

The late Mrs. Phelan, who visited this city frequently, had many friends here and the regret at her demise will only be exceeded by the sympathy that will be extended Mrs. Nicholls in her sore bereavement. Mrs. Phelan underwent an operation a short time ago and since then had not been in good health.

FLOODS CAUSE MUCH DAMAGE BELLA COOLA

Bridge Washed Out and Settlers Isolated but no Loss of Life

Word has been received by the provincial police department that there have been floods in the Bella Coola valley commencing Sunday which washed out a number of the buildings and many of the settlers are isolated. The heavy rains of the past few days have been responsible for the condition.

One of the bridges is washed away and there is no way by which the settlers may reach the wharf.

Only a short time ago there was a flood which did much damage in the valley and at that time it was suggested that the village should be moved to the other side of the river to prevent isolation as the bridge is likely to be washed out at any time when the water rises.

No casualties have been reported and the isolated settlers are well supplied with food so far.

BABIES WILL BE JUDGED IN OLD CARLETON CAFE

The old Carlton Cafe has been engaged by the Fair Board and will be used for the judging of the Baby Show in connection with the Exhibition. Entries for the Baby Show close on September 6 and judging will commence immediately thereafter. The winners will have been decided before the fair opens. Judging will be conducted along similar lines to last year.

FAIR WEEK SPORT BILL DISCUSSED

Will be Conference Later With Baseball and Football Associations on Certain Details

The sport program for Fair Week was discussed at a committee meeting last night. The representatives of the Baseball and Football Associations were unable to attend, however, and final details will not be settled upon until such a joint conference has been held. In the meantime, the program will stand as published in this paper yesterday.

PORCUPINES ANNOY RAILROAD

SEWARD, Alaska. — The government's Alaska Railroad has to fight porcupines. Rubber in any form is to the porcupine what wastepaper and rubbish are to the American goat, popular for lunching purposes, and the railroad officials have ordered rubber hose in pumping stations and all rubber fixtures to be hung on high poles.

SEES WHITE DEER

BONNERS FERRY, Idaho. — White deer, a buck and doe, have been seen near here recently, according to reports from several sources. George LaFountain, a rancher, said the doe was entirely white while the buck had two brown spots, each about six inches in diameter, on his back.

BIG RECEPTION FOR KETCHIKAN

Arrangements Well Under Way for Taking Care of Alaskans When They visit city for Fair

There was a joint meeting of representatives of the Fair Board, Elks and Moose Lodges last night to arrange further details for the reception and entertainment of the excursionists from Ketchikan who will visit the city during Fair Week. Committees were slated and further features in connection with the visit of the Alaskans were decided upon.

Attending the meeting were Jarvis McLeod, D. Milne and E. Sabourin for the Elks; N. Mussallem, P. Cameron, H. Jackson, J. Bacon and F. Scadden for the Moose, and Joe Greer, Ben Self, H. M. Daggett and Frank Dibb for the Fair Board.

Committees from the three organizations were selected as follows:

Accommodation — Jarvis McLeod, N. Mussallem, H. M. Daggett and M. L. Stepp.

Decorations—F. Scadden, Ald. S. D. Macdonald, Ald. R. F. Perry, E. Sabourin and S. L. Warrior.

Entertainment—P. Cameron, J. Slaggard, G. Royer, H. Jackson, J. Bacon, W. E. Williscroft, D. Milne, C. Balagno, Dr. R. D. Tassie, C. Folsom, H. Daggett, B. F. Self and F. Dibb.

Finance—F. Dibb, L. M. Fuller and N. Mussallem.

Entertainment

The Elks' Home is to be thrown open to the Ketchikan visitors while they are here and they will be entertained there by the Elks' and Moose lodges.

The program being arranged while the visitors are here includes a Midnight Frolic at the Westholme Theatre on Thursday night, September 11, in which the Ketchikan City band, Moose saxophone band and local Elks and Moose will take part. The proceeds will go towards paying off the expenses incurred in bringing the bands and ball teams to to the city.

On Saturday there will be a big parade in which four bands—Ketchikan City Band, Ketchikan Moose Saxophone Band, Kitimaat Native Band and North B. C. Regiment Band—will participate. There will be a dance in the evening followed by a farewell smoker.

Welcome Arch

Among other things, the decoration committee has in its hands the erection of a large welcome arch at the corner of Third Ave. and Sulton Street.

MONKEY FOR PRESENT

PORTLAND, Aug. 26.—A monkey three years old, the size of a man's hand, was received as a wedding present for Mrs. B. V. Bealey from Captain Thorsen, stationed in Ecuador. The species is rare and not represented in the New York zoos. The monkey is seven inches long and has a 14-inch busy tail which is useless except when sleeping. Then the tail is curled like a coiled rope and is used by the monkey as a pillow.
