Sport Chat

New champions were crowned in a majority of branches of sport during 1923, which witnessed one of the greatest seasons of activity in athletic history. Prominent among new titleholders were the New York Yankees, world's baseball champions; Miss Helen Wills, California girl who won the United States women's tennis championship; and Bobby Jones and Max Marston, new open and American amateur golf kings. Outstanding among those successfully defending their laurels were United States, in the Davis Cup tennis competition; William T. Tilden, II., as American single tennis champion; Jack Dempsey, heavyweight boxing king; and Johnny Weissmuller, all-round swimming star.

The 1923 champion baseball list is as follows:

World's, New York Yankees.

American league, New York Yankees.

National league, New York Giants.

Leading batsman (American league) Harry Heilmann, Detroit.

Leading batsman (National league), Rogers Hornsby, St. Louis.

Leading pitcher (American league), Herb Pennock, New York Yankees.

Leading pitcher (National league), Adolfo Luque, Cincinnati..

The world's professional boxing champions are:

World's heavyweight, Jack Dempsey, Los Angeles.

World's light heavyweight, Mike McTigue, New York.

American Light Heavyweight, Gene Tunney, New York.

World's middleweight, Harry Greb, Pittsburg.

World's Welterweight, Mickey Walker, Elizabeth, N.J.

World's lightweight, Benny Leonard, New York.

World's featherweight, Johnny Dundee, New York.

World's Bantamweight, Joe Lynch, New York.

World's flyweight, Pancho Villa, Philippines.

American flyweight, Frankie Genaro, New York.

Tennis Champions:

Davis Cup, United States.

Wightman's trophy (Women) United States.

World's singles, W. M. Johnson, San Francisco.

World's doubles R. Lycett and L. A. Godfree, Eng.

World's singles (Women) Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen, France.

World's Doubles (Women), Mlle, Lenglen and Miss Elizabeth Ryan, Calif.

World's mixed doubles, Mlle. Lenglen and R. Lycett, Eng.

CHRISTMAS AT SMELTER TOWN

Chrildren Wewe Entertained at Many Splendid Affairs

ANYOX, Jan. 2.—From all accounts the celebration of the holiday season in Anyox was the happiest remembered since the beginning of things here. Certainly everybody seemed to be imbued with the desire to be happy and at the same time contribute to the happiness of others. While the family man and his good wife spread the Xmas table and entertained those whose homes were elsewhere, the majority of the single men made their own pleasures more or less as their fancies willed. In the general whirl of celebrations, the younger ones were not overlooked. In fact there were a number of Xmas trees and feasts especially arranged for them.

The newly organized order of Moose were the first to get away with a tree on the afternoon and evening of December 26, when all the children were recipients of Xmas gifts, and enjoyed a program of varied dance and singing numbers.

Following the Moose, the "Brother Bills" cut loose on Thursday evening and had Santa Claus and his reindeers appear on the floor of the Elks' Hall with a goodly load of presents, which were distributed to the eager youngsters present. Then came Friday, when the Community League entertained two parties—the first from three to five, to which all Anyox children under eight years of age were invited, and the second from eight to ten, to which all children over eight were asked to come. Among the latter, a number of children considerably over eight joined in the fun, and kept the youngsters busy until the all-too-soon hour of going home arrived.

The halls where the treats took place were made as Christmassy as possible, the Gymnasium being especially decorated for the children's feasting party. The committee in charge of the League affair consisted of Mesdames Cloke and Dwyer, who were splendidly assisted by Mesdames Kelley, Herrin, Selfe and Miss Leitch; Rev. J. Gibson and Rev. J. Herdman. The Community League during the afternoon and evening dispensed all kinds of colored drinks and cakes of every description, bon bons, candies, nuts and fruit. The annual affair for Anyox kiddies is undertaken by the Communtiy League in cooperation with the Granby Company, company and league each bearing a share of the expenses.

MINE CLUB OPEN NIGHT AT ANYOX

Fine Wrestling and Boxing Bout at Smoker Last Week

ANYOX, Jan. 2.—The Mine Club took advantage of the holiday time to stage a smoker in their hall on the hill and held open house, dispensing refreshments and smokes between the different bouts and other items on the program. Some good boxing and wrestling exhibitions took place which was a credit to Chairman Perry, of the Mine Club Entertainment Committee.

The program was as follows: Wrestling, boys: Farnell and Brown, two rounds, no falls; Lindgren brothers, here a fall was made in the second round; Mayes and Stubbs, two rounds, no falls; a pillow bout on the wooden horse between C. Ferguson and Ted Halverson caused a lot of amusement, Ferguson being the winner; duet, Dave Evans and Dick Owen; boxing, all four rounds exhibitions, Williams and Frost; Young Brown and Kid Colderino; Instrumental selection, Three Johnson brothers and Hall; step dance, Dick Brown; boxing, Williams and Halverson; sack fight, wooden horse, Ferguson and Stubbs; boxing, Williams and Evans.
