RAILWAY EXECUTIVE HAS METEORIC RISE

W. M. Neal Appointed Assistant to Vice-President of Canadian Pacific

At 38 years of age Assumes Important Position at Montreal Head Office of Big Transportation Company.

Mr. W. M. Neal

Announcement was made recently by Grant Hall, vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, of the appointment of W. M. Neal as assistant to the vice-president, to succeed the late James Manson. Mr. Neal undertook his new duties as assistant to the vice-president of the Canadian Pacific on March 17th, a significant date for him, being of Irish descent.

Although still a comparatively young man, Mr. Neal is regarded as one of the most capable and promising of the upper group of officials in the service of the Canadian Pacific. His rise in the service during his 22 years of employment with the company has been little less than a meteoric succession of rapid promotions, owing to his capacity for hard work and intimate grasp of railway work.

W. M. Neal entered the service of the Canadian Pacific Railway in January, 1902, as a clerk in the superintendent's office at Toronto. In March of the same year he was transferred to the office of the general superintendent at Toronto.

He was transferred to the Winnipeg offices in September, 1904, as stenographer and clerk in the office of the superintendent of transportation there. In 1908 he was made chief clerk in the office of the superintendent at Souris, Man. Again in March of the same year he was sent to the general superintendent's office at Winnipeg as clerk, and in January, 1910, he was appointed chief clerk of the car service department at Winnipeg, and in May, 1915, he was transferred to the same position in Montreal.

In January, 1916, Mr. Neal was appointed car service agent of the Eastern Division, with offices at Montreal, and in June of the same year he was promoted assistant superintendent of Montreal terminals. In November, 1916, he became acting superintendent of the car service department at Montreal.

He was appointed general secretary of the Canadian Railway Association, National Defence, on October 23, 1917, in which capacity he did such notable work as to attract the attention of all having business to do with that important department during the latter years of the war.

In February, 1920, he was appointed assistant general superintendent at Montreal, and in April of the same year he went to Toronto, to undertake a similar position there.

Two years later, in July, 1922, he was appointed general superintendent for the Algoma division, with headquarters at North Bay, which position he vacated to take up his duties as assistant to the vice-president.

Mr. Neal was born in Toronto in 1886 and was educated at the Public and Wesely High Schools there. He was married in 1910 to Miss Francis J. Scott of Renfrew.

Mrs. W. B. Tobey, mother of W. H. Tobey of this city, returning to her home in Maine after visiting in Prince Rupert, had the misfortune last Sunday to break her thigh at Toronto when she was thrown off her feet while the train on which she was riding was being switched. According to word received by wire, Mrs. Tobey is in hospital at Montreal where she is progressing favorably.

Passengers sailing this morning on the steamer Prince George for the south included W. Jefferson, F. A. Rice and W. J. Crooks for Ocean Falls; K. Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. A. Pinkerton and family, F. Gordon, J. E. Geddes, J. J. Wynn, R. M. Macaulay, Father P. J. McGrath, Thomas Allan, H. B. Thompson, G. G. Langley, H. W. Hunt, R. B. Leigh, G. Henn, J. Talbot, R. Wagner and Mr. Pirillo for Vancouver.
