Former World's Heavyweight Boxing Champion Is Decisively Beaten by English Opponent —Quitting Ring

LONDON, April 16:—Following his defeat at the hands of Tommy Farr, 23-year old Welsh walloper, in a twelve round bout here last night, Max Baer, former world's heavyweight boxing champion, announced his definite retirement from the ring. He said he was convinced he was "all washed up in the punching business." Entering the fight a heavy favorite to win, Baer was completely outboxed all the way by his opponent and was thoroughly beaten. In the very first round he was in trouble with a bad cut over the eye.

It was Baer's first major fight since he was knocked out by Joe Louis in September 1935.

By slapping Baer out of shape, Farr climaxed a ring career that began when he gave up the idea of remaining a kitchen hand in his native Tonypandl, Wales.

BOY TRIO FEATURED

Freddie Bartholomew, Jackie Cooper and Mickey Rooney Teamed up in "The Devil Is a Sissy"

Three of the screen's best known boy stars—Freddie Bartholomew, Jackie Cooper and Mickey Rooney—are teamed up in "The Devil is a Sissy" which comes to the Capitol Theatre here as the week-end feature picture. It is the story of three boys facing life on the sidewalks of New York. Freddie, the young son of a wealthy American mother and an English father who are separated because her money stands in the way of his realizing his ambition to become an architect and build his own life, meets two young American ideals. The first is Jackie Cooper, son of a braggart ex-soldier, who would keep out the "foreign element" such as Freddie represents. The second is Mickey Rooney, son of an electrocuted ex-gangster. Freddie is admitted to the roughneck boys' gang and, after a series of adventures, some rather poignant while others are amusing, they run foul of the law. There is a dramatic climax and everything ends happily not only for the boys but in Freddie's own home life.

Katharine Alexander plays the part of Freddie's mother. Ian Hunter, brilliant young British actor, is the father. Gene Lockhart and his wife, Kathleen Lockhart, also have important parts his mother. Dorothy Peterson in the picture, the former as plays the part of Mickey's mother.
