Neat Piece of Rescue work Effected Near Here — Shell Fish Plant About Ready — Oil Construction Man Arrives.

A neat bit of marine rescue work was carried out about 6:30 Saturday evening among the boulders in front of Garden Island near the entrance to Metlakatla Passage when Lino Colussi of Georgetown risked his own boat Marjell to pick up Orme Stuart's Columbia River boat which had broken down with pump trouble and was perilously close to being swept ashore in the shoal during a storm which was on about that time. Colussi was coming in from Georgetown when the flashing of a light was seen, indicating a boat was in distress. As the Marjell approached, it touched the bottom itself but did not go fast aground. It was able to give a line to the distressed boat and towed it into port. On board with Orme Stuart was L. H. Haworth. They had been on a hunting trip to Georgetown, having left there at noon Saturday. It was a bad week-end for Orme who was aground on the mud flats while at Georgetown and, after returning to port struck a rock near the Yacht Club.

C.N.R. steamer Prince John, Capt. Neil McLean, was having a rough voyage south from Prince Rupert to Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands at the end of the week. At 8 o'clock last night the vessel was still stormbound in the lee of Tow Hill. She had made her calls in Massett Inlet on Saturday and was on her way to Queen Charlotte City.

Capt. Dan McKinnon returned to the city on the Catala last evening from Vancouver to resume duties here as resident pilot. As far as is known, the next ship coming here which will require the services of a pilot is the British motorship Moorby which is due next month to load a full cargo of grain for the United Kingdom or Continent.

The fish packer Marguerite, Capt. H. R. Coulter, of Ketchikan, arrived here yesterday and left today on its return north. It was here on business.

Union steamer Catala, Capt. James Findlay, arrived in port at 6 o'clock last evening from the south and sailed at 8 p.m. for Port Simpson, Stewart, Anyox and other northern points whence she will return here on Tuesday southbound.

F. M. Hofer, construction engineer for the Standard Oil Co. of British Columbia, arrived in the city on the Catala last evening from Vancouver, being here in connection with the erection of the company's new plant on the local waterfront.

By the end of this week it is expected that the contractors, John Currie & Son, will have completed construction of the new shellfish cannery on the local waterfront just west of the Imperial Oil Co. plant. Machinery has been installed and the plant is almost ready to be taken over by the Shellfish Packing Co. and put in operation. Supply of shellfish has been organized and the company has already been packing in the old cannery at Sourdough Bay, Seal Cove Crabs, shrimps, clams and oysters will be canned.

A meeting of the city council is called for Wednesday morning for the purpose of authorizing agreements for the sale of lot 52, block 17, section 1 and lot 9, block 4, section 8 as well as the exchange of lot 22, block 46, section 7 for lots 1 and 2, block 16, section 7. Further exchange of old bonds for refunding issue will be authorized and accounts will be passed. A meeting of the school board will be held immediately after the council meeting. City Commissioner W. J. Alder sits at both as city council and school board.

TWO FINE PICTURES

"Theodora Goes Wild" and "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town" Return to Capitol Theatre

Two great pictures—"Theodora Goes Wild" and "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town"—return to the Capitol Theatre in a double bill presentation at the first of this week. Both were highly popular in their first showings and many who saw them then will, no doubt, enjoy them again. Those who may have missed them before but have heard them talked about so much will, doubtless, avail themselves of this opportunity of enjoying them.

"Theodore Goes Wild" is a gay, light, sophisticated comedy concerning the adventures of a small town girl who tries to get her big city man in big city ways. Irene Dunne is the star with Melvyn Douglas in the leading male role.

In "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town" Gary Cooper on a $20,000,000 spending spree with Jean Arthur as a girl reporter to help him. It is the adaptation of a well known Clarence Budington Kelland story.
