PROPOSAL TO HAVE MERCHANTS PATROL

Plan to Pay for Protection of Down Town Shops From Separate Fund

A plan is afoot, fostered by Commissioner Coombs of the police board, to institute a patrol service for the business section of the city and it has already been before the Retail Merchants' Association and the Board of Trade promised it every possible aid at its meeting in the city hall last night.

A letter of Mr. Coombs to the Retail Merchants' Association points out that the cost to each merchant would be from $1.50 to $2.00 a month, according to the number wishing protection other than members of the association.

HER FACE WAS COVERED WITH PIMPLES

SHE GOT RID OF THEM BY USING

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

Miss T. Hunter, R.R. No. 8, London, Ont., writes:—"I wish to recommend Burdock Blood Bitters to all women who are suffering from pimples or any other facial blemishes. About two years ago I was greatly troubled with pimples and sores breaking out on my face, and could get no relief until, finally, a friend recommended me to take B.B.B. This I did, and I am now glad to say that your remedy has given me the desirable results, and I now have a nice smooth, clear skin, as it has eliminated all the impurities from my blood."

Get B.B.B. when you ask for it; it has been on the market for the past 46 years; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

The Man Who Came Back

A screen presentation of the outstanding stage success of that name. An absorbing, stirring story of a man who pawned his soul to the Devil on Broadway on the Barbary Coast, and in the depths of the Orient and the girl who pledged her honor to redeem him. The fast adventures of a ne'er-do-well Millionaire's son, and the girl he dragged down with him. One dramatic incident after another, thrills and surprises are hurled at the audience until the case looks about hopeless, then comes the rehabilitation. Many big scenes, including the dope dens of Shanghai. A picture with a great moral lesson. Superb cast.

RUMOR REGARDING MARTIN GIRLS IS FALSE IS STATED

There has been a rumor going the rounds that the two Martin girls of Los Angeles, May and Nina, whose bodies were found this week and in connection with whose death, according to despatches, murder is suspected, were of the W. R. Martin family that formerly resided here. Local friends of the family state that this is entirely false. In August, when the girls became missing in Los Angeles, the Martin family was here. They were also heard from at Christmas time. It is an odd coincidence, however that the murdered girls had the same names and were of the same age as members of the former local family.

GRIZZLY REAPPEARS CALIFORNIA MOUNTAINS

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 7. — The California grizzly bear, supposed extinct, has appeared after a lapse of 40 years in the Sequoia National Forest, according to a reliable report.

At one time the California grizzly ranged the Sierra Nevada and Coast ranges in such large numbers that he was made the official emblem of the state and still graces the state flag. He is considerably larger than the Rocky Mountain grizzly, is of a grayish tinge and has a distinct hump on top of his shoulders. As a fighter he was feared by all other animals of the early California days. Yet he was not considered by man a dangerous animal, and he usually took to flight on man's approach. He was even less carnivorous than the smaller black or brown bear and lived largely on acorns, berries, roots and grasses.
