Entertainment For Troops

The Sunday evening concert, given for the benefit of the men of the services, at the Canadian Legion Hall last Sunday evening was well attended and was under the direction of Mrs J. S. Black who arranged a very attractive program.

Those assisting were little Jean Murvold and Ann Stevens, dancing, Miss Nellie Lawrence, violinist, Harold Ponder and H. T. Lock, vocalists and R. King, monologue, while assisting troops were Messrs. Bell, Davies and Miller, vocalists, and Poitras and Andrews, violinists. Mrs. Black accompanied in her usual fine style.

Jack Preece was chairman for the evening and the ladies of Queen Mary Chapter, I. O. D. E., served coffee, cake and sandwiches after the concert.

The troops are keenly anticipating the return of the Operatic Society next Sunday evening.

The weather has been so mild of late that in many gardens roses have been in bloom. Two nice roses were in bloom this week in the police gardens at the City Hall and a number of residents have picked blooms for decorative purposes.

The Prince Rupert Rotary Club will have a youthful speaker tomorrow at its regular weekly luncheon in the person of Harold Nordan who will deliver an appeal for support of the Apple Day canvass next Saturday and will also tell of some Boy Scout activities in Prince Rupert.

At midnight delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Later a prettily decorated teawagon was wheeled in laden with many beautiful and useful gifts.

Those present besides the guests of honor and hostess were: the Misses Vivian Wrathall, Jean McLean, Thelma Davis, Elsie Davis, Geraldine Feero, Margaret Pierce (Douglas, Alaska), Edith Johnson, Cissie Armstrong, Phyllis Hamblin, Eileen Hamblin and Lorraine Brockway, Mrs. Cliff Madill, Mrs. F.
