Fans urged to hoop games

For an evening of good entertainment, you are urged to attend the basketball games tomorrow night at the Civic Centre.

The battle to decide leadership of the Intermediate League will take place then with the powerful Sunrise Grocery team tangling with the speedy Old Empress Chieftains.

These two teams are exceptionally well balanced and the game should prove to be one of the finest of the season.

Columbia Cellulose will take on the UFAWU's 'fighting fishermen" in the other intermediate game.

In the senior contest, league-leading Savoy Hotel meets Old Empress Vikings.

Games start at 6:30, 7:45 and 9 p.m. with hoop action terminating about 10:30 p.m. Your support is needed to keep basketball going in Prince Rupert. See you at the game.

Senate wants more details on Norris, Carbo relations

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER

WASHINGTON (AP) — James D. Norris, who says he dealt reluctantly with mobster Frankie Carbo, faced his last round today before Senate investigators who want more details of relations between the two prizefight figures.

Norris was called back for additional closed-door questioning by the Senate anti-trust and monopoly subcommittee, which made public a transcript of testimony he gave Thursday.

He testified he associated with Carbo in the fulfilled hope of averting difficulties with boxing managers who howled for more money and theatened to pull out of televised bouts.

Norris, 53, formerly headed the International Boxing Club, disbanded by court order last year for monopolizing championship fights. He was excused from testifying in public after doctors agreed the strain might provoke another heart attack. He already has suffered two.

John G. Bonomi, special counsel to the subcommitttee, said he planned to get down to cases today about Norris's contacts with Carbo. Long regarded as the underworld's boxing boss, Carbo is in the midst of a two-year prison term for undercover manipulations as manager and matchmaker.

Of his relationship with Carbo, Norris said:

"It was a reluctant one that in some ways I sought to develop."

KEARNS DISCUSSED

Norris also discussed his employment of Jack Kearns, a veteran boxing manager who other witnesses had said received $137,000 from Norris Enterprises over a period of years. As Norris told it, his televised boxing shows were in desperate trouble caused by Kearns' International Boxing Managers Guild.

Kearns, testifying Wednesday, had made light of his role in the guild, but Norris said he viewed Kearns as a power in the organization.

Norris said he blamed the guild for labor troubles at Madison Square Garden, boycotting of his fights by some managers, and other troubles. "They were threatening us all the time," Norris said.

Suspensions handed out in floor hockey

Three suspensions were handed out to junior floor hockey players at an executive meeting held last night at the Civic Centre.

Dennis Ostopowich of Elks and Lawrence Atchison of Van's were both suspended for one league game for a fight during a game on December 2. Ken Nakatsu was suspended for three league games for abusing referee Floyd Jessop during the same game. All three suspensions go into effect immediately.

The league pointed out that any suspended junior players who also play in the senior league, will not be able to play in either league until the period of their suspension is over.

Honors split in 708 league

Bowling action on December 2 saw honors split in both A and B sections of the Local 708 League.

In A section, Mary Kimmins of Hopefuls took woman's high single with 238 while Betty Hyndman of Cardinals rolled 564 for woman's high three. Wilf Bowen of Woodroom captured men's high single with 293 while mens high three was taken by Alan Campbell of Kingpinners with 680.

Team high single went to Woodroom with 1,034 and high three to Cardinals with 2,709.

In B section, Pat Anderson of Maniacs captured both woman's high single and high three with 235 and 584. Dave Lockhart of Cellars took men's high single with 252 while Louis Martin rolled a 659 to take men's high three.

Cellars captured both team high single and high three with 994 and 2,727.

Results were: A section--Cardinals 4, Digesters 0; Dodgers 2, Hopefuls 2; Kingpinners 1, Woodroom 3.

B Section—Maniacs 3, Analysts 1; Sparks 3, White Sox 1; Orbits 1, Cellars 3.

Penticton, Kelowna combine in OSHL

KELOWNA (CP) — A combined Penticton and Kelowna club will enter the Okanagan Senior Hockey League.

This was decided here Thursday night at a meeting between executive from both cities. No details on the new team were immediately available but it was known that the players will be employed residents from both cities.

The Penticton Vs and Kelowna Packers both withdrew from the OSHL last week because of financial difficulties. Penticton, which was drawing good crowds, had difficulty finding jobs for its players.

Kelowna's coach, Jim Middleton, will coach the new entry.
