Soap Box Derby Coming Up—Doll Contests Next Week— Softball Rained Out

An event which should prove a major attraction to boys and girls of the city is the proposed Soap Box Derby, to be run about August 17 by the supervisors of the Gyro playgrounds. The Derby is to be a miniature auto race. The cars used must be home made and, outside of minor restrictions as to size of wheels and total length, anything goes. Races of this sort have been run in various cities in Canada and the United States and, in recent years, have taken on the aspect of major sporting events. As far as possible, the race will be governed by the same rules and regulations as those used in such events as the Indianapolis Speedway Classic. Entry forms and all rules and restrictions governing the race will appear at a later date.

The jnior boys' softball game in the Gyro playground league scheduled for Wednesday afternoon between Acropolis and McClymont No. 2 was rained out and will be played on Friday afternoon, weather permitting.

Next Thursday afternoon there will be a doll contest at each of the four playgrounds. Prizes will be awarded for the best dressed, largest, smallest and most original dolls. The winners at each playground in each of the above classes, will again compete in a grand final contest to be held at a later date.

Man in the Moon

Two sport events in one day is going some for Prince Rupert. The city seems to be going sporty.

Its better to watch the sports than to stay at home and read about Hitler.

Jake says its much better to watch savages play than watch intellectuals fight. Its more natural.

At any rate the Zulus do their stuff like gentlemen

Lady (to parachute jumper): "I really don't know how you can hang from that silken thing. The suspense must be terrible."

Parachute Jumper: "No, ma'am; it's when the suspense ain't there that it's terrible."

Car Salesman—And is there anything else I can show you about this new model?

Young Lady— Yes, please show me how to turn on the radiator if the car gets cold.

"No," said the proprietor of the wayside cafe. "I don't want any slot machines which include gambling."

"That's quite all right," replied the salesman. "These aren't gambling machines. The customer hasn't a chance.

THRILLER OF OCEAN

New Type of Naval Picture is "Submarine Patrol"—Louis-Galento Fight Films Too

"Submarine Patrol," feature picture on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here for tonight and Friday, is not a typical "navy picture" like many that have been seen. It is based on an heroic but so far missed chapter in naval warfare surrounding the activities of tiny, wooden patrol boats which were designed to clear the submarine-infested lanes of the Atlantic, some of them manned with the sorriest crews of civilian odds and ends ever to board fighting ships. How they faced ordeals such as men seldom encounter even in wartime provides thrilling action.

Handsome Richard Greene is seen in the role of a young social registerite who joins up as chief engineer and promptly falls in love with Nancy Kelly, a promising newcomer of films, whose father is the skipper of a munitions freighter which Greene's ship is assigned to convoy across the Atlantic. Others in the cast are Preston Foster, George Bancroft, Slim Summerville, John Carradine, Joan Valerie, Henry Armetta, Warren Hymer, Douglas Fowley, J. Farrell MacDonald and Maxie Rosenbloom.

An interesting added attraction on tonight's Capitol bill will be the Louis-Galento fight pictures.
