Our Guessing Sale

CONTINUES UNTIL FEBRUARY 10.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN

You have read about many sales, but this is a little different

We have just finished our stock-taking and find that we are much overstocked in our UNDERWEAR DEPARTMENT.

We can supply the City of Prince Rupert's children and adults with a garment each and a little to spare.

WELL, WHAT ARE WE GOING TO DO ABOUT IT? HERE IS THE ANSWER!

We are going to offer it at a ridiculously low price and turn it into cash. A dollar in the cash register is better than ten on the shelf. We are going to keep you guessing but we assure you it will be a good one.

REGARDING THE PRICE

Do not overlook our low priced Remnant Sale.

PLAYED MARSEILLAISE AT RUGBY MATCH WHEN IRELAND MET FRANCE

Paris Spectators Saw Irishmen March on to Field to Own Music

PARIS, Feb. 10.—"La Marseillaise" played as the National Anthem of the Irish Free State, came as a surprise to the 30,000 spectators who attended the France-Ireland rugby match at the Colombes Olympic Stadium. Few knew that behind the rendition of the martial strains of Rouget de Lisle's masterpiece there lurked the settlement of a diplomatic problem which has puzzled the French Rugby Federation since the creation of the Irish Free State.

In order not to wound any susceptibility, the Union Jack and the flag of the Irish Free State were flown on each side of the French tricolor.

"What anthem shall we play when you march upon the field?" the president of the French Rugby Federation asked Captain Crawford of the Irish team. Both Ulster and the south of Ireland were represented on the Irish team. The latter objected to "God Save the King," while the former were spared the necessity of protesting against the national anthem of the Irish Free State by the announcement of the leader of the military band on duty at the stadium, that his men could not play it.

"Just play the Marseillaise and we will go on the field at the same time as the French team," Crawford finally said.

Both teams walked in arm in arm. A few moments later they were using the straight arm blow and digging their fists into one another at every scrimmage in what proved to be one of the roughest matches ever played in the International Rugby Union.

DOES EVERY MEAL CAUSE YOU DISTRESS?

IF IT DOES YOU SHOULD TAKE

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

Mr. M. P. Eldridge, Beaver, Harbor, N.B., writes:—"I was troubled with my stomach for some time, ,and everything I ate seemed to distress me. I tried many different medicines, but without any results. Finally I was advised to try B.B.B., and after having taken several bottles I was completely relieved of my trouble. I can now eat anything I wish, thanks to B.B.B."

Burdock Blood Bitters puts the stomach into perfect shape by promoting proper digestion; and during the past 46 years it has been on the market has made a reputation, second to none, for relieving all stomach troubles.

WINNER OF KENTUCKY DERBY WILL ANNEX A FIFTY THOUSAND PURSE

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 10.—A record number of nominations or the fifty-first renewal of the Kentucky Derby is expected by urf writers who, taking into account the large number of high-class eligibles wintering at Louisville tracks and elsewhere, predict the 152 nominations of last year will be exceeded when the entries close February 21.

The race for three-year-olds, at a mile and a quarter, will be run at Churchill Downs Saturday, May 16, the seventh day of the spring meet.

The purse, with $50,000 added by the Kentucky Jockey Club, may be the largest in the history of the half century old classic. Last year 19 of the 152 nominees accepted the issue, making the purse $52,775 for the winner, Black Gold. The year previous when Zev, the Rancocas Stable's colt, won, 20 started, giving the race a net value of $53,600. The starting fee, $500, is added to the $50,000 purse.
