Last Revival Meeting Held

Final Gathering of Series at Army Citadel Last Night

The final meeting of the series of revival gatherings which has been conducted by Major Moses Jaynes of Vancouver was held in the Salvation Army Citadel last night. A large number of people were present and enjoyed the service.

The Major gave a very interesting account of his life as a Salvation Army officer. He entered the Army work in Newfoundland forty-three years ago and has held appointments in Newfoundland, Canada and Alaska. Many were the hardships endured by the early day officers of the organization when their kindly ministrations quite frequently met with blows and derision. However, the speaker said, the work has grown until now the Army was at work in nearly every country in the world. Even in Germany, where there was so much distress, the Army flag was still flying and its members were giving assistance both materially and spiritually to the people of that country.

Mrs. Howard Fisher and Mrs. Ivan Halsey rendered a vocal selection. Also Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Jones and the family gave several songs.

Major Jaynes left later in the evening aboard the Prince Rupert on his return to his home in Vancouver.

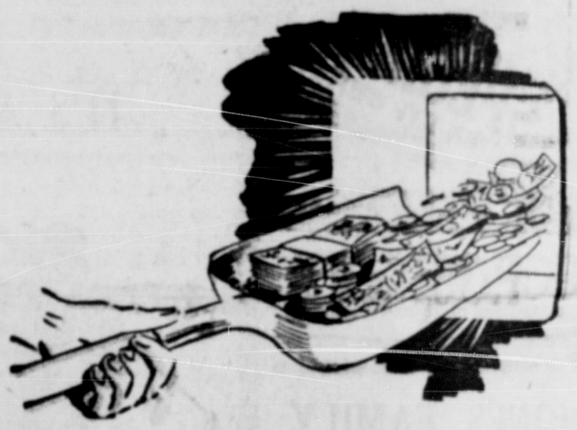
WHY BURN MONEY?



You wouldn't burn five dollar bills. Why burn coal that gives you anything less than 100 per cent coal heat value? Our coal is carefully selected, clean-burning fuel, specially picked for maximum heat and low ash content. Costs no more than ordinary coal.
