Douglas quits

CALGARY (CP)—Otis Douglas, 48, coach of the Calgary Stampeders of the Western Interprovincial Football Union, resigned his job Friday.

The announcement, by club president George McMahon, followed the 50-7 thumping the Stamps took at the hands of the Winnipeg Blue Bombers Thursday night.

Stampeders, with only one point to their credit, are fourth in league standings with a solid 103 points having been scored against them.

Douglas joined the Stampeders in 1956, coming from Villanova University. His other coaching jobs have been with the U.S. Navy, Drexal Tech in Arkansas, Baltimore Colts and Chicago Cardinals.

BLACKWOOD on BRIDGE

By EASLEY BLACKWOOD

"The trouble with you, Muzzy," said Mr. Heinsite, "is that you just won't use any imagination on the defence."

"Who asked you?" replied Mr. Muzzy.

Mr. Heinsite barged right ahead. "Bidding and dummy play are routine, but you recognize a real player by the way he defends. You've got to have imagination and initiative."

"Please tell me more," sneered Mr. Muzzy. "Give us just one more hour of these fascinating remarks."

Mr. Heinsite shrugged resignedly and picked up his cards. He glowed inwardly when he saw that his hand contained no less than ten honor cards. He elected to open the bidding with one club and Mr. New responded with one diamond.

Mr. Heinsite

Here Mr. Muzzy asked for a review. Learning that Mr. Heinsite had indeed bid clubs, he went into a huddle. Finally, he decided they were not going to keep him out of the bidding and he came in with one spade.

Mr. Heinsite now unloosed his big guns. "Two no trump," he said loudly. Mr. New suggested that diamonds might be the best spot with a call of three in that suit. But Mr. Heinsite was to be talked out of playing this hand and then went on to game at no trump.

Mr. Muzzy appeared confused by these developments, but after some thought he announced, "I think I'll double."

Mr. Heinsite's tone was mocking. "And I think I'll redouble," he chanted.

Whether Mr. Muzzy remembered it or not, the double in this situation strongly suggests that partner lead the doubler's bid suit and Mr. Dale dutifully led a spade. Mr. Muzzy won with the ace and tortuously cashed six straight clubs to hang a 1600 point penalty on Mr. Heinsite.

Mr. Dale congratulated Mr. Muzzy on his spade bid, which was instrumental in getting him off to the right opening lead. (As you see, on a heart or a diamond opening, Mr. Heinsite could have won the first ten tricks).

"If I can do this well on just one lecture, Heinsite," kidded Mr. Muzzy, "what could I do if I subscribed to your entire course?"

LITTLE LEAGUE

exploded in the fifth for seven runs of five hits and three walks.

Playing first base, Bob Pottle—one of the team's better chuckers—got five assists and four put-outs, which proves that a good man can play anywhere.

Pottle also went two for three in the batting as did Joe Magaldi.

Both of Electricians' hits went to the starting chucker, Barbour.

That closes the book on the 1969 Little League season. It was a good season and let's hope we have many more.
