Shower for Ridley Home

Successful Affair Is Held On Tuesday Afternoon

A very successful grocery shower was held at the Ridley Home Tuesday afternoon. The bright sunshine brought many friends with gifts who stayed for tea and were shown over the home. They also saw the boys' workshop which is being built by Harold Nordan who has given many hours of his spare time to do this.

Miss Bird and Mrs. J. B. Gibson received the guests and Mrs. James Gillett and Mrs. R. E. Mortimer received the groceries which were of great variety and well chosen for the needs of the home.

Another of Popular Dr. Kildare Pictures at Capitol Theatre Here Tonight

Romance behind the walls of a great hospital and dramatic moments of a life and death struggle mingle in "Dr. Kildare's Strange Case," fourth in this popular series, showing at the Capitol Theatre tonight and tomorrow. With Lew Ayres portraying the title role and Lionel Barrymore again as his elderly mentor, the story tells what goes on when a young interne takes matters into his own hands, acting solely on a hunch. After refusing a well paying position in a private sanitarium, Ayres returns to his hospital to learn that a doctor friend has apparently performed a Ayres, by ingenious methods, succeeds in vindicating his friend and showing his friends that his judgment was correct. The drama introduces the screen's first presentation of actual treatment of insane people by use of insulin to cause shock.

Settings include a bird's eye view of a large operating theatre and the picturization of a delicate brain operation.

Featured in the cast are Laraine Day, as the understanding sweetheart of Ayres, Sheppard Strudwick, Samuel S. Hinds, Emma Dunn, Nat Pendleton, Walter Kingsford and Alma Kruger.

COMMUNITY CHALLENGE

Much Work Could Be Done for the Benefit of Troops Here—Communtiy Centre Is Badly Needed

Speaking before the Prince Rupert Gyro Club at its regular weekly luncheon yesterday, Norman McEwen, local representative of the Young Men's Christian Association, said that soldiers in Prince Rupert complained of there being nothing to do, no place to go, no social life. The purpose of the Y.M.C.A. in its war service program here like elsewhere was to keep up the morale of the troops by occupying their spare time with interesting programs along recreational, social and educational lines, making the programs appealing enough to keep the men away from undesirable places. The Y.M.C.A. and other organizations were endeavouring to their best of their ability to meet the situation but here still remained a challenge to all service organizations to do everything possible in their power along these lines. The need in Prince Rupert, where the civilian population was so small in comparison with the number of troops here, was particularly great and, with even more coming in, the challenge would be even greater.

A community centre in Prince Rupert was urgently needed, Mr. McEwen declared. Indeed, it was remarkable that a city of this size had no recreational centre, particularly in view of local conditions. The need for such a centre could not be overestimated. If there was anything he could do in collaboration with the Y.M.C.A. with a view to assisting in bringing such a centre into being, Mr. McEwen said he would be only too glad to do it. He congratulated the Gyro Club on what it had already done in the matter of establishing and operating playgrounds here.

Continuing, Mr. McEwen told of some of the work he was endeavouring to carry on among the troops posted locally in the way of equipping of the United Services Hut with recreational facilities, games, etc., the organization of sports such as volleyball, basketball, bowling, badminton and boxing in the winter and the presentation of complete talking picture programs.

At the conclusion of his talk, Mr. McEwen projected a couple of talking picture reels typical of the programs which are offered to the troops at the various local concentrations. These proved very entertaining.

On behalf of the club, G. A. Hunter, the president, thanked the speaker. A luncheon guest was G. A. Macdonald of Winnipeg.
