Lions fall farther behind Stampeders

Manage only tie with Roughriders

By The Canadian Press

How to avoid injuries should be the theme of tonight's only game in the Western Interprovincial Football Union. The first-place Winnipeg Blue Bombers invade Edmonton to meet the second-place Eskimos and both have clinched the positions.

The big battle now is the one for the third and last playoff berth between Steve Owen's Calgary Stampeders and Wayne Robinson's British Columbia Lions. That battle could be decided when Calgary plays in Vancouver next Saturday night.

STAGE SET

The two games last Saturday night set the stage.

At Calgary 17,000 cheering fans saw Stampeders keep third place by outscoring Edmonton 35-17.

At Regina a slim crowd of 7,255 fans saw Lions roar from behind with two converted touchdowns in the last five minutes to gain a 14-14 tie.

The results left Calgary with two points more than British Columbia but Stampeders have only one game left, Saturday night at Vancouver, while Lions have a second against the last-place Saskatchewan Roughriders October 29.

TWO FOR LUNSFORD

Fullback Earl Lunsford, the WIFU's leading rusher this season, barged over for two Calgary touchdowns. The two other Stampeder six-pointers were scored by ends Ernie Warlock and Bill McKenna.

Doug Brown converted all four and kicked two field goals. Quarterback Joe Kapp was credited with a single when he fumbled into Eskimos' end zone and Gino Fracas fell on the ball.

Edmonton's two touchdowns were tallied by end Tommy-Joe Coffey and fullback Johnny Bright. Coffey converted both touchdowns and booted a field goal.

Brown's 10 points gave him a total of 79 and put him in fourth place in the individual scoring race, five points behind fullback Gerry James of Winnipeg and halfback Willie Fleming of British Columbia.

Quarterback Jackie Parker of Edmonton leads with 95.

BAILEY BIG FOR B.C.

At Regina fullback By Bailey scored both British Columbia touchdowns and George Grant converted them.

Fullback Clair Branch counted Saskatchewan's only touchdown with halfback Jack Hill kicking the convert and two field goals. The other Rider point was a single kicked by fullback Fred Burket.

The playoff between the second and third-place teams is a two-game, total points series November 2 and 5.

The winner meets Winnipeg in the best-of-three finals, November 12, 14 and, if necessary, 19.

Black Hawks start season right scoring nine points in five games

By LAURENT CHIASSON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Chicago Black Hawks are off to one of their finest starts ever in the National Hockey League—unbeaten in five games with nine out of a possible 10 points. It's a far cry from last season when the Black Hawks flopped badly at the beginning, winning only one and tying another in their first 13 games. They came back strong and finished third, but 23 points behind front-running Montreal Canadiens.

If anybody is to dislodge Montreal from first place this season the Hawks would have to be rated as the club most likely to do it, though no team from Chicago has ever finished higher than second place in the NHL.

The Hawks played only one weekend game, beating Boston Bruins 5-2 Sunday night. The win left them in second place, one point behind Montreal but with two games in hand.

SCORING RAMPAGE

Montreal's big guns went on a scoring rampage Saturday in an 8-4 triumph over New York Rangers but Canadiens lost their first game of the season Sunday, 6-4 to Detroit Red Wings.

In other weekend games, Toronto Maple Leafs scored their first victory—7-2 over New York—and were held to a 1-1 tie by Boston Saturday.

Bobby Hull, Eddie Litzenberger, Tod Sloan, Ken Wharram and Ab McDonald split Chicago's scoring while Hall turned back 25 shots.

Two members of the Uke line—Vic Stasiuk and Johnny Bucyk—scored for Boston.

Boston goaler Don Simmons was cut under the eye by a shot by Eric Nesterenko with less than 30 seconds left in the game. He left the ice bleeding heavily and forward Jerry Toppazzini replaced him in the nets, without bothering to put on heavy protective gear normally worn by goaltenders.

Toppazzini was not forced to make a save, however.

TWO HAT TRICKS

Dickie Moore and Bernie Geoffrion each scored three times for the Canadiens against New York Saturday. Moore's achievement was a pure, unvarnished hat trick—three goals in succession.

Henri Richard and Phil Goyette also scored for Montreal while Andy Bathgate, with two, Camille Henry and Earl Ingarfield took care of New York's scoring.

The Wings rolled up their highest total against Montreal in more than three seasons.

Gordie Howe, Alex Delvecchio, Warren Godfrey, Len Lunde, Murray Oliver and Norm Ullman tallied for the Wings while Jean Beliveau, Billy Hicke, Goyette and Moore scored for Canadiens.

THREE SCORE TWICE

Toronto got two-goal performances from Frank Mahovlich, Ron Stewart and Larry Regan in their win over New York.

Both of Mahovlich's goals were unassisted. The first came when he took the puck away from Ranger rookie Dave Balon, and then got around defenceman Harry Howell. Mahovlich again got by Howell for his second goal, swiping the puck from Howell's stick for a close-in shot.

Rookie Dave Keon got Toronto's other goal while Henry tallied twice for the Rangers.

Stasiuk was the hero in Saturday's Bruins-Leafs clash as he scored with less than four minutes to go to earn Boston the tie. It was the fourth tie game for Boston which has no victories in six games.

Bert Olmstead had sent the Leafs ahead 1-0 with an early first period goal.

New York mayor pledges stadium for NL expansion

NEW YORK (AP)—The National League expansion committee will go into its meeting in Chicago Monday armed with a pledge from the mayor of New York to have a baseball stadium ready in 1962.

Fearful of being bypassed, Mayor Robert Wagner of New York sent telegrams to committee members Friday asking an "early indication" that franchise will be granted.

It was New York's big pitch for a spot in the league and brought favorable comment from baseball commissioner Ford Frick and National League president Warren Giles.

Bill Shea, chairman of the New York baseball committee, said he was aware that any ideas of using Yankee Stadium, home of the American League Yankees, would kill New York's chances.

Richardson welcomed

SUMTER, S.C. (AP)—Bobby Richardson, a New York Yankee hero of the world series, says "I'd much rather play baseball before 70,000 people" than face the several hundred hometown folks who welcomed him back Sunday.

"I don't think I'm hot, I'm just nervous," said the perspiring second baseman after the ceremony.

A banner across the street in this city of 25,000 proclaimed "Welcome Home Bobby 'Grand-Slam' Richardson" in tribute to his bases-clearing home run in the series against Pittsburgh Pirates.

Chadwick fails

DONAGHADEE, Ireland (AP)—Irish coast guard said American long distance swimmer Florence Chadwick gave up her attempt to swim the Irish Sea today when she reached the half-way stage.

Her third attempt to conquer the 19-mile stretch of water between Ireland and Scotland ended in failure about eight hours after she dived in here and headed for Scotland.

Car rally set

TORONTO (CP)—A trans-Canada automobile rally, a test of driving skill and endurance, will run from Montreal and Toronto to Vancouver during the first week of next May, it was announced Friday.

The rally is not a race but a strict driving competition, with the route divided into timed sections and interspersed with check stations. Drivers will be penalized for arriving early or late at check stations.

Any competitor caught breaking a federal, provincial or local highway law is automatically disqualified.
