SPENDING CASH ON SARCOPHAGUS PETER VEREGIN

Five Thousand Dollar is Cost so Far and Another Five Thousand to Complete.

GRAND FORKS, June 4.—The body of the late Peter Verigin, ruler of the Doukhobors, now rests in its tomb on the hill high above Brilliant under a costly sarcophagus, made of three kinds of Kootenay granite. Three doves of white marble stand in the gable of the main cap, fruit trees are carved in the panels of the sides, and the end panel is ornamented with three singing birds on a branch, carved in relief. These decorations were the suggestions of Anastasia Verigin, niece of Peter Lordly.

Son to Choose Wording

The inscription plate incised at top and bottom, is blank at present. When "Young Peter," son of the late ruler, and present leader, arrives from Russia, he will be asked to choose the wording for this.

The sarcophagus has cost the Doukhobors $5,000 up to the present time, and it is expected it will cost a little more before it is finally completed.

It rests on a concrete platform which in turn lies on the cemented top of the tomb in which the body lies. It is 12 feet 8 inches long, 5 feet 6 inches wide, and about 8 feet high at its highest point.

The lower base and the slightly smaller upper base are of light grey Nelson granite. The sarcophagus itself is of dark grey Nelson granite with light grey granite caps and pilasters of brown pearl Ymir granite.

Ground Terraced

The ground all about the tomb has been terraced by the Doukhobors, and will be sown in lawns. Before it stands a little red table on which are the huge loaf of bread, the jug of water and the fruit always put beside their dead by the Doukhobors, as typifying the necessities of life.

IN THE MORNING HER TONGUE WAS COATED HAD BAD TASTE IN MOUTH

Miss Pearle, L. Zinck, Barss Corner, N.S., writes:—"I was awfully troubled with my liver, and used to get such dizzy spells I would have to sit down while I was doing my work.

In the morning, when I used to get up, my tongue was coated and I had a bad taste in my mouth and often times, throughout the day, I was troubled with pains in my stomach.

I suffered in this way until a friend of mine who had used your told me of having taken them, so I decided to try them, and I can truthfully say that they certainly did me a lot of good.

I cannot recommend them too highly to all those who suffer as I did."

You can procure Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills at all druggists or dealers; put up for the past 30 years, by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

BUYS PUAKO FOR TOWING

Hecate Strait Towing Co. Adds to Fleet; Cape Scott and Lorne Busy

The local office of the Hecate Straits Towing Co., Ltd, announce that the company has recently purchased the American barkentine "Puako" which will be added to their fleet and used in their coastwise coal and lumber trade. The "Puako" is a wooden vessel of 1,085 tons gross, 221 feet long, 42 feet beam and was built in Oakland, California in 1902. She has laid at anchor in Esquimalt Harbor for about five years awaiting litigation against her, and was sold to the present owners at a sheriff's sale.

The tug Cape Scott owned by the same company is due to arrive at Prince Rupert tomorrow with a large tow from Surf Inlet for the Prince Rupert Spruce Mills Ltd., and the tug Lorne, now enroute from Cumshewa, Q.C.I. to Captain's Cove with a deep-sea raft is due here for fuel oil on the same date.

These two tugs have just delivered 77 sections of logs totalling 3¼ million feet to the Pacific Mills, Ltd. at Ocean Falls.

The large steel barge Drumrock, 5,000 tons D.W. which the Hecate Straits Towing Co. is equipping at Vancouver for the log carrying trade is progressing satisfactorily and is expected to be in commission by the middle of August.
