PRINTED PATTERN M 438

A Radiant Original

THE COSTUME—backbone of a smart fall wardrobe—is deftly shaped by Keith Adams for you who wear custom or half sizes (12½ to 22½). This designer likes to focus flattery on the face—keeping the lines below simple and fluid. In Pattern M438, he cleverly curves the brief jacket to reveal the soft, scarf-tied neckline. Note the paneled pleats at the hemline of the dress—they add grace to every step you take. Our Printed Pattern is true to each detail of Mr. Adams' design for Radiant Originals—shoulders, waist, hipline are superbly proportioned to fit. Choose sheer wool, jersey, fine cotton for fall days—silk crepe, faille, or satin for gala occasions.

Printed Pattern M438 is available in Half Sizes 12½, 14½, 16½, 18½, 20½ and 22½. Size 16½ dress and jacker require 5 yards 39-inch fabric.

Send ONE DOLLAR for Printed Pattern M438 to Prince Rupert Daily News, Pattern Department, 60 Front Street West, Toronto, Ontario. Please print plainly YOUR NAME, ADDRESS with ZONE, STYLE NUMBER and SIZE.

Parker hot as Esks' win

EDMONTON (CP) — Edmonton Eskimos, eating up yards relentlessly with the help of near-perfect pass-completion record by quarterback Jackie Parker, smothered Calgary Stampeders 41-10 Saturday night before a crowd of 17,003 at Clarke Stadium.

The easy victory, second within a week over the Stampeders, put the Eskimos in a solid midway position between front-running Winnipeg Blue Bombers and third-place British Columbia Lions in the Western Interprovincial Football Union.

With the season almost half gone, Edmonton has 10 points, four behind Winnipeg and four ahead of B.C.

Parker gave a dazzling display in perfect football weather, completing 14 passes on 15 attempts and scoring 16 points to push his WIFU lead to 22 points more than second-place Carver Shannon of the Blue Bombers. Parker has 6 5points and Shannon, 43.

BLACKWOOD on BRIDGE

By EASLEY BLACKWOOD

Mr. Muzzy thought he had Mr. Champion, in an error. But he was wrong, as usual.

Mr. Dale made a fine choice for his opening lead. He laid down the jack of spades. If he had made the routine opening of the ace of hearts, Mr. Champion could have discarded a diamond from dummy and ruffed in his own hand. Later he could have given up a diamond and ruffed his two low diamonds on the board, making his contract with ease.

But it was considerably tougher with the spade opening. How would you play it for twelve tricks? To Mr. Champion it appeared that the only chance was to set up dummy's club suit for diamond discards.

Mr. Champion

To accomplish this he had to find the opposing clubs divided 3-3 and he had to have three entries to the board after the ace of clubs had been played from his hand.

That pesky deuce of spades in dummy seemed to ruin everything. But after some thought he hit on a sensational play which overcame all of his difficulties. He ducked the first trick and let the jack of spades win.

The bidding:

West	North	East	South
1 ♥	Pass	4 ♥	4 ♠
5 ♥	5 ♠	6 ♥	Pass
Pass	6 ♠	Dbl.	All Pass

Opening lead: Jack of spades.

This delighted Mr. Muzzy, who had certainly not counted on winning a spade trick. He saw fit to wink at the kibitzers. Clearly the great Champion had pulled the boner of the year.

But the hand wasn't over yet. At trick two Mr. Dale led a low diamond and the queen fell to the ace. Mr. Champion now cashed the ace of clubs, entered dummy with a trump and ruffed a club. He led another trump to dummy and ruffed another club in his hand. He still had a trump entry to the board and enough clubs to get rid of his losing diamonds.

"Your winking was a little premature, Muzzy," he remarked.

"Well, anyway," said Mr. Muzzy, grasping at straws, "you could have made seven if you hadn't pulled that silly play at trick one."

Mr. Muzzy was wrong. If you win the first trick, you can't even make a six-odd. Try it.
