FLOAT NEEDED AT SALT LAKE

Capt. Swanson will Probably Put in Private Dock if City Fails

The efforts of the swimming club having failed in connection with the putting in of a float at the Salt Lake, Captain Swanson, who operates the launch 23, carrying passengers to and from the lake, is planning to put in a float this week, which will be for his private use.

Yesterday hundreds of people visited the Salt Lakes Park and a great many enjoyed the swimming there, even though the weather was not as warm as it was the previous day. Landing at the other side was difficult, the passengers having to be put ashore with a boat.

The beauty of this natural park and the advantage of the salt water swimming make it of inestimatable value to the people of Prince Rupert and those who use it think it is a pity that arrangements cannot be made for putting in a permanent dock for the accommodation of all boats.

The water at the lake yesterday was fairly warm, especially near the surface. For several days past a great many people have been swimming there regularly.

SWIMMING CLUB TO RE REORGANIZED AT MEETING TOMORROW

Float Needs Repairs and Question of Wharf to be Discussed

The Swimming Club is to make another effort to reorganize. A meeting has been called by President Boddie for tomorrow evening in the police court to which various organizations in the city are asked to send representatives and all who are interested in having the Salt Lakes swimming pool put in shape for the season are asked to be present. The floats and walks at the lake need repair and unless the club becomes active nothing will be done.

The question of the putting in of a wharf will also be discussed.

OPENING FOOTBALL GAME OF SCHOOLS

Booth Boys Proved to be Winners by Score of Two to One

Though the Booth School team defeated Borden Street by a score of two to one in the opening Junior League football game on Saturday afternoon, the score can hardly be called a fair indication of the play for the losing team was fully on a par with the winning one, whose goal keeper was largely responsible for saving the day. Harvey Crate, the Borden Street goalie, was stopping shots from an aggressive Borden street forward in a proportion of about two to one as compared with what his own forward line was doing. In combination Borden Street was the best, the tendency of the Booth team members being to hang on to the ball too long. Tom Kelsey made both scores for Booth school. Some promising material was disclosed and, in spite of a number of miskicks being made, the boys played with a will and it was good soccer at that. The Booth school won the toss and elected to kick uphill. The Borden St. score was made in the first half and the two Booth School scores in the second.

George Cochrane was referee and the teams lined up as follows:

Borden Street—McLean; Stiles and Veireck; Gurvich, Parkin and Rogers; Irvine, Smith, Hunt, Morrison and Millerd.

Booth School—Harvey Crate; Kami Miwa and Joe Scott; Willie Collison, Tom Kelsey and Dan Mackenzie; Eddie Smith, Willie Donald, Fred Dingwall, Jack Nelson and Willie Murray.

Sport Chat

The arrival at Stewart of Babe Fortin and his brother, Ed, and Bill Stickney, former Commercial leaguer at Vancouver, will give the northern mining camp the nucleus of what ought to be a strong baseball team this summer. Babe and Stickney are known in the north from past years while Babe says that Ed also plays at baseball which probably means he is no slouch at the game. Later in the season when it comes time to arrange for inter-town games at Prince Rupert the Stewartites will possibly be brought here. There is said to be a pretty good lot of material in this town already, and, when the time comes, Prince Rupert is also likely to have a team that will be well able to take care of itself.

Mike McTigue, light-heavyweight professional boxing champion of the world, is now reputed with putting the professional manager of prizefighters out of business. When someone asked once, why it was that prize-fighters needed to share their income often fifty-fifty with managers, someone else retorted: "Because they are stupid, for no one but a stupid fellow would become a prizefighter." Apparently, McTigue has proven himself to be not quite so stupid as the average. Some time ago he cut himself loose from his manager, and when it came to the point of signing articles for his fight with Paul Berlenbach, which is to take place at the end of the month, he produced instead of a manager a lawyer, to look after the legal and money ends of the fight, while he was looking after the physical end of it.

Those who have followed the fighting game for some years now, seem to think, that McTigue has touched a note, which will change the whole aspect of the fight business, at least among the higher classes of fighters. Managers or rather business agents will still be in demand for the newcomers no doubt, because they are usually improvident, and need someone to stake them to the necessary money for training and trainer's expenses, but it is more than likely that there will gradually evolve out of the present situation, boxing agencies, like theatrical agencies, for the arranging of matches, with lawyers, who for a reasonable fee will see that the contracts are properly drawn up.

In tonight's Stuart Shield football fixture, the Great War Veterans will have another opportunity of getting into a position of advantage on the standing sheet. Their opponents, the Callies, if they win the match, will again be at the top of the league ahead of the Sons of England.

The teams will line-up as follows:

Great War Veterans — Gawthorn; Barton and V. Menzies; Skinner, George Mitchell and Bell; Russell, Norwood, Erskine, Campbell and Cochrane; reserves Mac and McPherson.

Callies—A. Sinclair; R. Woods and W. E. Williscroft; J. Sims, S. Currie and James Harris; A. Mitchell, R. McDougall, D. Scott, W. Mitchell and J. Andrews; reserves, J. Hamilton and H. Hamilton.
