DRAMATIC PICTURE

Joan Crawford And Melvyn Douglas Seen in "A Woman's Face"

Joan Crawford has a dramatic role in "A Woman's Face," gripping drama of a woman's soul, coming to the Capitol Theatre, with Melvyn Douglas and Conrad Veidt this Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Crawford makes her first appearance in a weird makeup, representing a woman horribly scarred from birth, and, as a result, the poisonous enemy of all mankind. Infatuated with a brilliant madman, she sets out to commit murder for him. Restored to beauty by a surgeon, her nature gradually changes with her face in a graphic story of regeneration.

Miss Crawford, as Anna Holm, on trial for murder for the first decent thing she had ever done in her life, presents a striking dramatic figure. Douglas plays the surgeon who restores her beauty and later figures in her regeneration, and Veidt enacts the madman.

The supporting cast features Osa Massen, Reginald Owen, Albert Basserman, Marjorie Main, Donald Meek, Connie Gilchrist, Richard Nichols, Charles Quigley and Gwili Andre.

A cable trip over a roaring gorge, a mad race against death in the snow in sleighs drawn by galloping horses and other thrills mingle with dramatic courtroom scenes.

Skeena Crossing Family Reunion

McDames Folk Get Together for First Time in Seventeen Years.

KITSEGUKLA, Dec. 29.—A very enjoyable Christmas was spent in Skeena Crossing by the McDames family when for the first time in seventeen years all members of the family were able to sit down to dinner.

Mrs. Mollie Wagner arrived from Prince Rupert and Miss Annie McDames arrived from Kispiox and both were cordially welcomed by the people since it is the first Christmas that either have spent together at Kitsegukla.

Fourteen sat down to a huge turkey dinner and later Santa Claus paid his visit leaving a generous amount of gifts for all.
