Moore takes but three to batter Texas deputy

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Archie Moore, world light-heavyweight champion, batered heavyweight George Abinet of Dallas into a bloody hulk in three rounds Tuesday night, then said he wasn't dodging a title fight as the National Boxing Association alleges—he just wants $200,000.

Archie, trimmed down to 193 pounds and admitting he was 46 years old, floored Abinet twice in the third round. Abinet, a deputy sheriff making a comeback after being out of boxing two years, didn't come out for the fourth round when he found he had a broken nose. The scheduled 10-rounder was recorded as a technical knockout in the fourth.

Moore said he knew he was overdue at defending his crown but it was up to the NBA to get him the amount of money he wanted.

MORE MOUTHS TO FEED

"My price is rising—a sort of cost-of-living increase. I got three kids now, you know.

"They want me to fight Harold Johnson. But nobody will put up the money. I've fought Johnson before and he's a good boy, but I'm not afraid of him."

Archie's next bout will be against Roy Shire of Indianapolis October 1.

Abinet, 34 and weighing 198 pounds, could do little against Moore but he did knock him to his knees with a left hook in the third round. Archie got up and dropped Abinet with a right to the head. The latter took a seven-count and Archie was on him again. He knocked Abinet flat as the bell sounded.

Asked how much longer he would fight, Arch grinned and replied: "Sixteen years—that's when my son will be old enough to win the championship and keep it in the family."

No free balls

REGINA (CP)—A Regina magistrate said Tuesday it should be made clear to football fans that footballs are not to be taken from the field as souvenirs. He was commenting on the case of a Regina youth charged with stealing a football after a Labor Day Western Interprovincial Football Union game. The charge was withdrawn, but the football has not been found.

Placed on waivers

OTTAWA (CP) — The Ottawa football club announced today that import halfback Collins Hagler has been placed on waivers. The 25-year-old American from the University of Iowa came to the Rough Riders this fall after a season with Saskatchewan Roughriders.

Rangers edge Maple Leafs

PETERBOROUGH, Ont. (CP) — New York Rangers came from behind to edge Toronto Maple Leafs 4-3 Tuesday night in a National Hockey League exhibition game that ended in a stick-swinging duel between Lou Fontinato and Frank Mahovlich.

Fontinato, hot-tempered New York rearguard, and the Leafs' big forward drew match penalties.

Referee-in-chief Carl Voss, who talked with league president Clarence Campbell by telephone after the game, said Campbell will consider disciplinary action against Mahovlich and Fontinato, possibly today.

In the past, pre-season outbreaks among players, however serious, have been ignored by the league.

Dave Koen scored two for the Leafs and Ron Stewart one.

Rangers' goals were by Andy Bathgate, Jim Morrison, Irv Spencer and Don Johns.

Los Angeles (AP)—Eddie Pace, 126½, Los Angeles, outpointed Silvestri Vilareal, 124½, Monterrey, Mexico, (10).

White Sox close gap in race as leaders knocked off pace

By The Canadian Press

The third-place Chicago White Sox won their sixth in a row, beating Washington 6-5 on Nellie Fox's 11th inning home run, and closed within two games of first-place New York in the American League race Tuesday night. The Yankees were walloped 12-3 at Kansas City, but retained their one-game lead over the Baltimore Orioles, who lost 3-1 at Detroit.

In the National League, Pittsburgh's lead was shaved to 6½ games when San Francisco beat the Pirates 6-3 and second-place St. Louis defeated Milwaukee 6-5 in 11 innings.

Los Angeles swept a twi-night pair at Philadelphia, 2-1 in 10 innings and 4-1, and Cincinnati beat Chicago Cubs 8-6 in the other NL games.

Cleveland defeated Boston 5-3 in the other AL game.

Detroit	64	76	.457	19
Boston	61	79	.443	22
Kansas City	49	90	.353	33½

The White Sox, now three games back of New York in the "lost" column with 14 to play, put it away on Fox's second home run of the season and third hit of the night. Bob Allison and Harmon Killebrew homered for the Senators, who out-hit Chicago 11-9, but were held hitless over the last 3 2/3 innings by winning reliever Frank Baumann (11-6). Tom Morgan (4-5) was the loser in relief.

Dick Williams drove in six runs for the A's. He swatted a three-run homer in the first inning that beat Whitey Ford (9-9), and capped a clinching four-run fourth with a two-run single. Bud Daley (15-14), who had won only two of his last 12, checked the Yanks on eight hits, one a homer by Clete Boyer.

FIRST WIN OVER ORIOLES

Jim Bunning (10-12) beat the Orioles for the first time this season with a three-hitter backed by homers from Norm Cash and Rocky Colavito off loser Milt Pappas (13-10). Colavito's two-run shot in the fourth inning did it. It was his 29th of the year—but his first off Baltimore. Ron Hansen homered for the Birds in the seventh.

The Giants defeated the Pirates and lefty Wilmer Mizell (11-8) with three runs in the sixth, capped by Ed Bressoud's two-run single. Mike McCormick (13-11) was the winner. He allowed 10 hits, one a homer by Roberto Clemente, but struck out 13.

Stan Musial's two-run homer gave the Cards a 5-5 tie in the eighth, and Ken Boyer's single and Daryl Spencer's triple broke it against Lew Burdette (16-11), the loser in relief. Ernie Broglio, who came on in the eighth, won his 19th, tying Vern Law of Pittsburgh and Warren Spahn of Milwaukee for the season high.

An unearned run won the opener for the Dodgers and Johnny Podres (12-11). Sandy Koufax (8-12) then beat the Phils with a five-hitter in the nightcap.

The Reds scored their first six runs on home runs by Gordy Coleman and Eddie Kasko, who hit a grand slam, then sewed it up on a sacrifice fly by Willie Jones against losing Cub reliever Don Elston. Marshal Bridges won his sixth in relief.

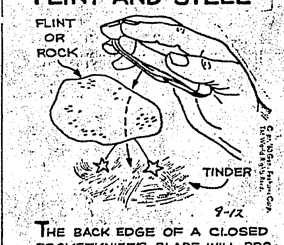
START A FIRE WITH FLINT AND STEEL



THE BACK EDGE OF A CLOSED POCKETKNIFE'S BLADE WILL PRODUCE SPARKS WHEN SCRAPED ON FLINT (A HARD ROCK THAT WON'T SCAR MAY BE USED INSTEAD OF FLINT IF IT WILL MAKE SPARKS). DRY SHREADED BARK, WOOL OR COTTON THREADS, FIELD MOUSE OR OLD, DRIED BIRD'S NESTS ARE GOOD FOR TINDER. HOLD KNIFE IN CUPPED HAND AND STRIKE FLINT WITH DOWNWARD MOTION SO SPARKS FLY INTO TINDER BELOW. WHEN IT SMOKES, FAN IT INTO A BLAZE. THEN PLACE IT UNDER PREARRANGED KINDLING.

Ti-cats tested tonight in Big Four grid action

By The Canadian Press

If Hamilton Tiger-Cats are really dead, the Big Four football union will find out when the failing Cats meet the Alouettes tonight in Montreal.

The Alouettes have been unpredictable so far this season, winning two games and losing three. Slaughtered by pace-setting Toronto Argonauts and Ottawa Rough Riders, they came back to whip the Riders and lose a one-point thriller to the Argos.

Montreal squashed Hamilton 23-10 in the opening game of the season and the Tiger-Cats have lost four more games since then, winning none.

The Steel City Kitties, accustomed to leading the league by the nose in recent seasons, have obviously been shaken by this year's experience.

FUMBLE FROM TENSION

In their last game, they might have beaten Toronto had not ace back Paul Dekker dropped a pass from quarterback Bernie Faloney in the end zone. That lapse—possibly a result of the pressure which observers say is driving the whole team—cost the Cats a 16-12 loss.

Alouettes looked good in their last start, beating Ottawa 39-22. But only two days before the Riders had smashed them 40-16.

Montreal's problem — exposed when Toronto quarterback Tobin Rote set passing records in beating the team 36-14—has been pass defence.

But Als coach Perry Moss has been leading the Als to gradual improvement, and the defence looked good against Ottawa last time out.

JERRY JANES BENCHED

Hamilton coach Jim Trimble has placed import end Ron Miller into tonight's lineup, yanking Jerry Janes—a lanky end who played most of his football with British Columbia Lions in recent years. Janes was unimpressive in the game against Toronto.

In tonight's other contest, Toronto will seek to extend a five-game winning streak in Ottawa. The Riders have won three and lost two to gain second place.

Behind quarterback Rote, the Argos have finally lived up to the notices Toronto fans have been reading for several seasons.

With the halfway point in the 14-game schedule approaching, the question is whether Toronto can continue the torrid pace.

Leaders quit

MONTREAL (CP) — Chairman Morgan M. Johnston and three other members of the board of directors of Montreal Alouettes resigned today for undisclosed reasons.

A spokesman for the Big Four Football League club said the four resigned after a meeting this morning "but believe me I don't know why."

In addition to Johnson, those who resigned are David McConnell, W. Howard Wert and Lucien Beauregard.

London (AP) — Henry Cooper, 185½, England, outpointed Roy Harris, 190¾, Cut and Shoot, Tex., (10).

Nine-year-old Australian may be next miracle miler

MELBOURNE (AP)—A South Australian boy who is only nine years old, Ivor Caudle, may be veteran track coach Percy Cerutty's next wonder miler.

Speaking in Rome Monday, Cerutty claimed a 3:20 mile is possible and added "I might know the boy to do it some day."

Cerutty's wife, speaking from the famous coach's camp at Protsea, 60 miles from Melbourne, Tuesday named Ivor as the potential record breaker. "Ivor is just turned nine but he already has run a 6:30 mile and two miles in 14 minutes," she said.

"The father became interested in Percy's teaching and has sent Ivor to Portsea four times," she said. "He is not a big boy and we are not pushing him hard but he has done everything Percy has asked of him.

"He does the same sort of training as Herb Elliott, running over sand dunes and along rough bush tracks. He follows Herb's basic diet of dried oatmeal, nuts and raisins. And he gets a big thrill out of the fact that he is sleeping in John Landy's old bunk."
