Must Feel the War . . .

The News from Ottawa suggests that we are about to begin paying for the war, and it is about time, says Bruce Hutchinson. We have not begun to pay yet. Since September, 1939, we have been warned at least once a week that we must prepare ourselves for terrible sacrifices. With the result that the sale of all kinds of luxuries in Canada has reached its highest point in history, and among the well-to-do, the chief problem of the war has been the difficulty in getting servants.

As a people, apart from those actually engaged in the war, we have really sacrificed nothing of importance yet. Talking of income taxes as if they represented a sacrifice while other people are being bombed in Britain and slaughtered in Russia in our defence is a kind of obscenity. If we are really going to feel the war from now on, as they say in Ottawa, it will be a complete change.

The New CROSS CUT CIGARETTE TOBACCO

It's wonderful—this new CROSS CUT tobacco—wonderfully easy to roll—wonderfully pleasing to smoke! First, it's marvellously mild and fragrant. Second, the new "cross" cut makes it so simple to pick exactly the right amount for a cigarette that looks and smokes like a "tailor-made". And it just snuggles into the paper. You try it—you'll be delighted!
