TICE TO RGLARS!

It is now two weeks since you boys rolled our store and we have not heard from you to date.

You might have saved yourselves the trouble of breaking in if you had known how low our prices are. We are glad to know, however, that you prefer our merchandise.

Every article is guaranteed by us—whether you buy it or steal it. If what you fellows took does not give you good service bring it back and we will make it good.

P.S. — Special reception for burglars after store is closed. Bring your friends.

John Bulger
Jeweller

Gossard Corsets
BRASSIERES and COMPLETES.
Let us fit you. Competent girl in attendance.
J. S. Wallace Co. Ltd
Phone 9 3rd and Fulton

SHOE PROBLEMS VANISH
When You Wear
ONYX Shoes
Canada's Best Known Shoe for Women and Young Women.
Carried in all fittings.
Family Shoe Store
3rd Ave. Phone 357

COAL COAL
Let us put in your coal supply for the winter. Have you tried our Reco Coal? A fine clean hot coal at $11 per ton, nut size. Stove coal $12.50. Lump coal $12.50. This coal will not soil your pipes with soot. We can quote you low prices on lumber, also attend to small deliveries promptly.
TAXI—New clean Sedans at your service day or night. Charges, 50c for one or two passengers.
Call 112
The Prince Rupert Transfer & Taxi Co.
Second Avenue. Phones 189-112

Dr. E. S. Tait
DENTIST
Sulgerson Block, Prince Rupert, B.C.
Office Hours—9 to 6.
X-Ray Service
Phone 686.
Open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday Evenings

TERRACE NOTES

Quite a number of friends of Dr. and Mrs. Grant and daughter Lorraine, who were enroute from Prince Rupert to Fort William gathered at the C.N.R. station here on Friday afternoon to bid them farewell as they passed through on the train.

In compliment to her mother, Mrs. Smith of Vancouver, Mrs. L. H. Kenney entertained at a delightful afternoon tea on Friday November 6. Several violin selections were rendered by Miss Kerr, accompanied by Mrs. Keith and Mrs. Munro sang several solos.

Mrs. Geo. Little was hostess on Saturday afternoon at an informal tea given in honor of Mrs. Kenney's mother, Mrs. Smith, who is returning this week to Vancouver after having spent the last two months in Terrace with her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Barker entertained at Bridge on both Tuesday and Friday evenings. Three tables were engaged each evening, the winners on Tuesday evening being Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Keith and on Friday, Mrs. Geo. Dover and J. K. Frost. Musical and humorous selections were much enjoyed as were the delicious refreshments served by the hostess.

R. A. Harlow, Prince Rupert, was a Terrace visitor on Friday. Mrs. Harlow and son accompanied her parents Dr. and Mrs Grant as far as Edmonton.

A. Goodenough, Smithers, was in town Friday.

Miss Mayme Dobb of the Public School staff left on Saturday to spend the holiday at her home in Prince Rupert.

W. Attwood left on Friday for Hazelton to complete the installation of the plumbing in the new nurses' home being built there.

R. Howe, of Prince Rupert was a business visitor at the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Nutt left on Saturday for Hanall where he has taken a position with the Hanson Lumber Co.

R. H. Edwards of the Canada Products, Ltd., Usk, was in town Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Lassen who have spent the summer at the Black Wolf mining claims at Kalum Lake, left on Saturday for Seattle.

F. P. Murray, mining man of Seattle, together with Mr. Weller and J. Hoar, manager of the Hopper-Davis Mines at Kalum Lake, left on Saturday to spend the winter in the south. Activity at the mines has ceased for the winter but will be started on a larger scale in the spring.

W. Jordan, Usk, was a business visitor on Saturday.

Governor D. W. Davis, who has spent the last two months at the Hopper Davis Mines and his associate J. H. George, of Boise, Idaho, who has been at the lake for the past two weeks left on Saturday for their homes in the U.S.A.

Miss Etanda Marsh of Prince Rupert public school staff arrived in Terrace on Saturday to spend the holiday with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. T. J. Marsh. She returned to Rupert on Monday.

Friends of Peter McDonald, ferryman at Remo, and who for many years ran the Terrace ferry will regret to hear of the death of his faithful old dog "Don" who for so long seemed almost a part of the ferry here.

Miss Andrews and Miss Malott returned on Monday after having attended the Teachers' Convention held at Burns Lake at the week end.

Rev. T. J. Marsh went to Remo on Monday to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. A. Y. Wilson.

Special Thanksgiving Harvest Service was conducted in St. Matthew's Anglican Church on Sunday morning by Rural Dean Marsh. The church hall, which was very appropriately decorated was filled to capacity and Mr. Marsh delivered a very impressive sermon. He also conducted special Armistice service in the G.W.V.A. Hall on Monday at 11 p.m.

W. Jones left the end of the week to spend the winter in Vancouver.

Mrs. O'Connell left on Monday for Prince Rupert to be with her daughter Mary, who is ill.

Miss Wetherhead of the public school teaching staff, Prince Rupert, and well known here, spent the holiday at Usk, where she taught two years ago.

SMITHERS

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Hospital Auxiliary was held at the home of Mrs. S. H. Hoskins on Friday afternoon The treasurer's report showed that the ladies cleared over $160 at their annual Hallowe'en dance.

Mrs. H. W. Sharpe of Hazelton is spending a few days in Smithers the guest of her sister-in-law Mrs. C. Reid.

J. Roberts arrived in town Sunday morning from Prince George to spend Thanksgiving here with his family.

E. B. Cox of Hazelton, was a visitor in town over the week end.

The girls of the Golden Key and the Trail Rangers held a bazaar at the Union Church on Saturday afternoon. The candy booth, home cooking table and the tea room were well patronized by the public. The proceeds are to be used by the boys and girls in the work of their organizations.

An exceptionally large congregation attended the Armistice-Thanksgiving service held in the Anglican Church on Sunday night. The pastor Rev. J. B. Gibson endeavored to impress on his congregation that the only way to eliminate war was for all people individually and collectively to act as peacemakers at all times.

Mr. and Mrs. Monk arrived in town from Winnipeg last week and are planning to make their future home here. Mr. Monk is an experienced garage man and most likely will follow this line of work in Smithers. Mrs. Monk is a daughter of Geo. Robinson of this town.

There was born at the Bulkley Valley District Hospital on Monday, November 2, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Neil MacDonald of Evelyn.

The Married People's Club held their second dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. McMillan on Tuesday. This event was in the nature of a celebration of two of the members' birthdays and a most enjoyable evening was spent at dancing.

L. S. McGill, local barrister, moved his office on Thursday from the Adams' block to upstairs at the Town Hall.

J. F. Duthie who, accompanied by his auditor, has been making an inspection of his mines on Hudson's Bay Mountain, left for his home in Seattle on Thursday evening by way of Jasper.

The first of a series of monthly card drives to be given by the ladies of St. Joseph's church was held on Wednesday evening with a big attendance of bridge and whist players who spent a most enjoyable time.

The winners at the bridge tables were Mrs. Geo. Wall and Mrs. W. Doodson for the ladies and E. Gunderson and W. Lewis for the men, while at whist Mrs. W. Goheen and Mr. Schwartz were first and Mrs. B. Messner and J. Bergman second. After the cards, refreshments were served before the guests dispersed for their homes.

F. Rendall, one of the local school teachers, left for Burns Lake on Thursday evening as a Smithers delegate to the school teachers convention being held in that town over the week end.

TUGBOATS
Day Phones 423 539 Gr. 238 Black 735
Rupert Marine Products Ltd.
Night Phones 687 539 Gr. 238 Black 735
GEO. G. BUSHBY, Man. Dir.

ALWAYS ABSOLUTELY RELIABLE
That's why there's more of it sold in Canada than of all other brands combined
E. W. GILLETT CO. LTD. TORONTO, CAN.

PRINCE GEORGE

The Tourist Club was raided by the police last week but a charge against Carl Sherman of keeping a gaming house was dismissed by Stipendiary Magistrate Milburn. A McB. Young was defence counsel.

W. E. Plumb of Vancouver has been appointed city clerk for Prince George with P. N. Baylis of Vancouver as second choice and George E. Davis of Vancouver, third.

J. H. Ashwell of Chilliwack, grand warden of the Oddfellows' Lodge for British Columbia, visited the local lodge last night.

Claude I. Bristol of Shelley and Miss Agnes Mary Bridgeman were married last week by Rev H. Kuring.

Last Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Wilson gave a dinner in honor of their daughter, Miss Patricia's, birthday. After the dinner, the party enjoyed the hospitality of Mayor Alward in his new apartment on Third Avenue.

Walter Edward Morsh and Miss Delia Dorothy Wilson were married last Tuesday by Rev. H. Kuring.

HAZELTON

The new school here has been completed and was occupied by classes for the first time last week.

After having spent a few months here visiting with her mother, Mrs. F. A. Goddard, Mrs. Ervin McMullen has returned to her home in Stewart accompanied by her two daughters.

C. T. Cabrera, after spending several days here, left last week for the East on business in connection with his local mining venture. Mrs. Cabrera expects to spend the winter here.

Miss Hogan, who has been a patient in the Hazelton Hospital is now making a satisfactory recovery and hopes to be able to return to her work in the near future.

Mrs. A. E. Falconer is now visiting with friends in Portland, Oregon, where she is recovering from a recent illness.

SKIDEGATE

The fishermen and settlers' of Skidegate Inlet and the East coast ask the Daily News to thank the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Company for the splendid service they have given since the beginning of May and also for their kindness in bringing over the mail whenever they could. They hope the boats will be back in the spring.

Chief Lagaic, on her last trip last week took 1000 cohoes to Prince Rupert.

Miss M. Phair and Miss Carrie Barge of Queen Charlotte City leave for Vancouver on the next trip of the Prince John.

W. Campbell, pioneer prospector of Jedway, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Stevens.

CANADIAN STEAM LAUNDRY
and
DRY CLEANERS
The Laundry of Personal Service, Phone No. 8.
Finished Laundry,
Wet Wash,
Thrift-T-Service,
Soft Finish,
And Dry Cleaning.
We are ready at any time, to receive your phone call, to take your instructions, to take personal charge of your Laundry and Dry Cleaning.

Wood! Wood!
Now is your chance
DRY CEDAR
Full load $6.00
Half load $3.00
Large sacks 50c
DRY BIRCH
Per load $6.50
HydeTransfer
139 Second Avenue
Phone 580 Night or Day
WE BUY BOTTLES.