EASTWARD, HO!

U.S. Marine Corps paratroops stream out from a transport plane in their final leap before completing a vigorous six-weeks basic course at a school somewhere in New Jersey. These specially-trained troops are leather-necks who volunteered for their hazardous job. The value of paratroops has already been proven in modern warfare, especially in the Nazi invasion of Crete.

Timely Recipes

VEGETABLE CASSEROLE

¼ cup butter, 1 cup onion, chopped, 2 cups celery, 2 cups carrots, 1½ cups string beans, ½ medium green pepper, chopped, 1 can tomato soup, 1 cup water, 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 3 cups mashed potatoes, 4 to 5 frankfurters, split.

Cut celery, carrots, into strips about 1 inch long and ¼ inch wide. Split string beans and cut into one inch lengths. Melt butter in heavy saucepan and add onions, celery, carrots and string beans; cover pan tightly and allow to simmer slowly for 20 minutes. The vegetables should cook in their own steam, but not brown. Add pepper, tomato soup, water and seasonings, cover pan tightly and allow to simmer for 45 minutes in a very slow oven or on a part of the range where it will not boil. Pour vegetables into a baking dish cover with seasoned mashed potatoes and then arrange split frankfurters on top. Brush with melted butter and cook in hot oven 450 degrees F. for 15 minutes or until frankfurters are cooked and brown. Serves 6.

TO FOSTER RECRUITING

Local Civilian Committee Recognizes Seriousness of Need—New Quarters Opened

In view of the increasingly serious war situation and the need immediately for more men for the army, the local civilian recruiting committee, under chairmanship of Alex MacKenzie, was in session yesterday afternoon at recruiting headquarters to study what steps could be taken to foster further voluntary enlistments in which Prince Rupert, it was felt, has not been holding up its end. The feeling was expressed that it might be advantageous for some young men to join up voluntarily before conscription became a government policy as might be the case after the forthcoming plebiscite.

New local recruiting headquarters were opened today in the McIntosh building on Third Avenue in the office being used temporarily as Victory Loan headquarters.
