No Pay Day!

The laborer does hard, unpleasant work — but every Saturday he gets his pay.

You're doing work that's just as hard and unpleasant when you "do the wash." But at the end of a week of washdays—who pays you?

A bad bargain—so why not call for our Thrif-T-Service? Everything will be carefully washed, thoroughly rinsed and the flat-work neatly ironed and folded. And you stop working for Mr. Washtub—one employer who never pays his help.

G. Chambers, manager of the Naas Harbor cannery, arrived in the city on the Cardena this morning from Vancouver where he has been spending the winter.

Not enough members being in attendance to form a quorum, the annual meeting of the Canadian Club, called for last night, was postponed until next Friday evening.

A meeting of the Prince Rupert Billiard Association will be held in the G.W.V.A. rooms on Sunday, February 28, at 2.30 to arrange for championship games. All interested are requested to attend.

Archdeacon G. A. Rix leaves on this evening's train on a trip to Eastern Canada on business in connection with the arrangement of finaces with a view to the appointment of the bishop for the diocese of Caledonia to succeed the late Archbishop Du Vernet.

C.P.R. steamer Princess Beatrice, Capt. Thomas Cliffe, arriving from the south at 7 o'clock this morning, proceeded at 8.30 to Ketchikan having on board 100 tons of Vancouver Island coal for that port. The Beatrice will return south direct from Ketchikan without calling here.

Miss Janet Lee, R.N., who recently completed training as a nurse in the local hospital and will join the graduate staff, will return on the Camosun tomorrow night from a brief holiday trip south. She will take the place of Miss M. Hebden, R.N., also a recent graduate, who leaves next week for California.

Major Van Tausk of the Alberta Department of Agriculture has been a visitor in the city for the past couple of days in the course of a trip to the Pacific Coast for the benefit of his health. He arrived from Edmonton on yesterday morning's train and sailed this afternoon aboard the Princess Mary for Vancouver. He is a member of the Edmonton Gyro Club.

Union steamer Cardena, Capt. J. A. Findlay, which is replacing the Catala for a couple of weeks in the Prince Rupert-Anyox and cannery route, arrived from the south at 4:30 this morning and sailed for the north at 6:30. The vessel is due back in port tonight southbound. The Calala is now undergoing annual overhaul and inspection in Vancouver but will be back in service the week after next and the Cardena, which has completed overhaul, will return to her regular run on which the Camosun has been relieving.

VICKS VAPORUB

FREE AT LAST OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

ILLNESS ENDED BY "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

MRS. THOS. EVANS

"I have been troubled for some years with dyspepsia, liver trouble and kidney trouble, from which it was impossible to get relief until I started taking "Fruit-a-tives", which had been recommended to me by a relative. Before taking this wonderful Fruit Juice remedy it was impossible to carry out my daily work, but now, thanks to "Fruit-a-tives," I am free from those ailments, and able to do my household duties without pain or fatigue."—Mrs. Thomas Evans, R. R. No. 1, Everett, Ont.

The remarkable medicine, "Fruit-a-tives," made from intensified fruit juices and tonics, has more than 20 years of success to recommend it. It can always be depended upon to give positive relief from pain in the Back, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Neuralgia and Headaches, which are due to improper action of the kidneys, stomach and bowels. Sold everywhere, 25c. and 50c. a box.

Harold Sostad of the Engineer Mine was a passenger bound for Vancouver aboard the Princess Mary which was in port this afternoon.

H. C. Nunan, manager for the New England Fish Co. at Ketchikan, was a passenger aboard the Princess Mary this afternoon going through to Seattle on a business trip.

The failure of the fishing boat Arctic to arrive in port today for the sale caused some talk that the boat might have got into difficulties. The weather was bad and some of the other boats had a hard time making port. It is expected that she ran for shelter or returned to Ketchikan.

R. G. Gunningham, well known Port Essington businessman, arrived in the city on the Cardena this morning from Vancouver. He is just back from a trip of several months' duration to Great Britain and the Continent, having returned via the Panama Canal to Vancouver aboard one of the Royal Mail Packet Line's motorships.

QUEBEC, Feb. 27.—Left alone in the home which was destroyed by fire, three children of Edward Beaulieu of Escort were burned to death last night.

DEPORTED MAN FOR STEALING SUPPLIES

EDMONTON, Feb. 26.— "The groceries you stole from William Carruthers' cabin might have made all the difference between life and death to him," said Judge Taylor in the criminal court on Tuesday when passing sentence of four months' hard labor on Richard T. Hudgins, who pleaded guilty to a theft of some clothes, foodstuffs, tools and a pair of snowshoes from a trapper's cabin at Pelican Portage last August.

His Honor added that he was amazed that any man in the north could bring himself to commit such an offence, and elicited the fact that the prisoner had only been in the country a month when the crime took place.

His Honor recommended that he be deported back to the U.S. on completion of his sentence.
