SERVICE FOR MRS. RAYMOND

Mourners Gather in United Church to Pay Last Respects Before Remains Forwarded East.

Kindly tribute to the memory of deceased and words of comfort and sympathy to the mourning relatives were expressed by Rev. George G. Hacker at the funeral service for the late Mrs. Maria Raymond which was held on Saturday afternoon in the First United Church. In addition to the daughter, Mrs. H. H. McLeod, of New York, and son, W. J. Raymond, of this city, who were accompanied by Miss Isabel Haddock, church deaconess, there was a concourse of friends to pay their last respects to the late Mrs. Raymond, who was highly respected. The presiding clergyman was assisted by Rev. Evan Baker and Miss M. A. Way played organ accompaniments for the hymns, which were, "How Firm a Foundation," L"ead Kindly Light," and "Nearer My God to Thee."

Rev. Hacker referred to the kindly qualities and upright principles of deceased and stressed the fact that death had removed only the physical and not the spiritual presence. A mother had been removed from this earth who would await in the greater Kingdom beyond the coming of those who had been near and dear in earthly life. God in His wisdom had removed the late Mrs. Raymond just as, he believed, she would have wished. Her end had come in such a manner as she in life had hoped it would come to those around her.

The body lay in state at the church and before the casket was closed the mourners were given the opportunity to take a parting glance at the remains which were then taken to the chapel of the B. C. Undertakers to lie before being forwarded east by train today to St. John, New Brunswick, where deceased will be laid to rest in Fernhill cemetery beside the body of her husband. The remains are being accompanied east by the daughter, Mrs. H. H. McLeod.

Pallbearers were Theo. Collart, D. C. Stuart, E. C. La Trace, W. J. Kirkpatrick, Phil McDonald and William Anderson.

Among those sending floral tributes were the family, Mr. and Mrs. Phil McDonald, Sergeant and Mrs. A. H. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dibb, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Craig and Miss Nanette Clark, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lorne MacLaren, S. G. Webb, Editorial staff of Daily News,

The family, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Macdonald, Misses Evelyn and Dorothy Macdonald, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Stuart, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kirkpatrick, Mayor Newton, Mrs. A. Love and family, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hart, Mr. and Mrs. John Wynne, Mr. and Mrs. John C. McLennan, Ald. and Mrs. M. M. Stephens and mother, H. B. Rochester, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. LaTrace, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. McDonald, D. McCorkindale, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, Smith & Mallett, Ltd., L. I. Marren, Mr. and Mrs. B. Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sherman, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McGlinchy and family left on this morning's train for Prince George where Mr. McGlinchy will assume his new duties with the provincial police.

A. C. Little is again a patient in the Prince Rupert General Hospital to which he was admitted last Saturday.

ATTACK MADE UPON RUSSIA

Chancellor of the Exchequer Puts no Restraint on His Words In Dealing With Soviet

LONDON, July 19.— Winston Churchill, chancellor of the exchequer, dealt with the Russian methods and Government without gloves in a recent address. He said:

We are the object of an unceasing campaign levelled upon us by the Russian Bolsheviks. Those miscreants who have ruined their own country are powerless in their efforts to ruin ours. In their plans of world revolution they find this island an obstacle. If they could only pull down Britain, ruin its prosperity, plunge it into anarchy, and obliterate the British Empire as a force in the world they are convinced that the road will be clear for a general butchery, followed by a universal tyranny of which they will be the head, and out of which they will get the profits.

Are Powerless

They will not succeed in their aim. They do not understand at all the resources of tempered strength on which this nation rests. The parliamentary and democratic institutions of Britain, which were venerable while this band of cosmopolitan conspirators were hiding in the underworlds of the cities of Europe and America—these parliamentary institutions will continue, sedate, powerful, and glorious, when they have expiated their crimes and their crimes lay buried in a liberated Russia and an enlightened world.

They have their dupes in this country, but H.M. Government is not among them. We understand exactly their aims and their methods. The question is asked, quite legitimately, why the Government let them stay in this country. It would give a great deal of satisfaction if they were thrown out. Personally, I hope I shall live to see the day when either there will be a civilized Government in Russia or when we shall have ended the present pretence of friendly relations with the men who are seeking our overthrow.

Lloyd George Folly

But we must not let our policy be swayed unduly by our feelings. We must act at each stage with cool and careful judgment. As for the money they have sent here, that is a mere trifle compared either with what the miners need or with what the Russians have stolen from us. Does not this show what a folly Mr. Lloyd George committed when he brought these Russian intriguers into our midst? It was one of the fatal steps in his downward career. We have decided, after a careful survey of the whole situation, that the present time is not the time when we should take the step of rupturing negotiations and relations with Russia. The present situation is precarious and it is being vigilantly watched.

Adds Warning

I have to add this warning. Persons who lend money to Russia, as they are entitled to do, must be alive to the risks they run, and must understand that in no circumstances will the British Treasury accept any responsibility if they are defrauded. Should the Government find it necessary at any moment to expel the Soviet agents no claims for losses will be entertained by the Treasury. My advice to traders is to make sure they get paid, or get full security before their goods leave this country. If they lend money and lose it they will have no one to thank but themselves, and the Government must remain absolutely free to take any action they think necessary in the public interest.

Mrs. T. H. Johnson returned to the city on yesterday afternoon's train from Terrace where she spent the last week as the guest of Mrs. G. H. Munro.

SAILORS BEAT HIGH SCHOOL

In Good Game of Football on Saturday R.C.N.V.R. Defeated High School 4-3.

In the last game of the first half of the Intermediate League football series on Saturday between the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve and the High School, the sailors registered their second consecutive victory by defeating the High School 4 goals to 3.

The Naval Reserve team has shown a marked improvement on play in the last two games, and the second half of the Intermediate soccer series will doubtless see the Naval boys right on their toes and some interesting games will be the outcome.

Playing the first half with the grade against them the Reserve score at half time stood 2-1 in their favor. While the High School boys put up a game fight, the sailors played a determined game and notched two additional tallies, while the High School did well to mark up three goals.

Chief Petty Officer Instructor Dawes refereed the game.

SYNOPSIS OF LAND ACT AMENDMENTS

PRE-EMPTIONS

Vacant, unreserved, surveyed Crown lands may be pre-empted by British subjects over 18 years of age, and by aliens on declaring intention to become British subjects, conditional upon residence, occupation, and improvement for agricultural purposes

Full information concerning regulations regarding pre-emptions is given in Bulletin No. 1, Land Series, "How to Pre-empt Land," copies of which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the Department of Lands, Victoria, B.C., or to any Government Agent.

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes, and which is not timberland, i.e., carrying over 8,000 board feet per acre west of the Coast Range and 5,000 feet per acre east of that Range.

Applications for pre-emptions are to be addressed to the Land Commissioner of the Land Recording Division, in which the land applied for is situated, and are made on printed forms, copies of which can be obtained from the Land Commissioner.

Pre-emptions must be occupied for five years and improvements made to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivating at least five acres, before a Crown Grant can be received.

For more detailed information see the Bulletin "How to Pre-empt Land."

PURCHASE

Applications are received for purchase of vacant and unreserved Crown lands, not being timberland, for agricultural purposes; minimum price for first-class (arable) land is $5 per acre, and second-class (grazing) land $2.50 per acre. Further information regarding purchase or lease of Crown lands is given in Bulletin No. 10, Land Series, "Purchase and Lease of Crown Lands."

Mill, factory, or industrial sites on timber land, not exceeding 40 acres, may be purchased or leased, the conditions including payment of stumpage.

HOMESITE LEASES

Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesites, conditional upon a dwelling being erected in the first year, title being obtainable after residence and improvement conditions are fulfilled and land has been surveyed.
