Local Couple Are Honored In South

Silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Squire, former residents of Prince Rupert, was celebrated recently in Vancouver by a number of former Prince Rupert residents at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Mackenzie. Mr. and Mrs. Squire were recipients of a silver sandwich platter presented by Mal. John Lamb. Mr. and Mrs. Squire lived in Prince Rupert for 16 years before moving and taking active part in social activities in the group of former local residents in the southern city.

CARD OF THANKS

We sincerely thank Dr. Collis, Miss Scott, Mrs. Vincent and Miss Fulton of the Port Simpson Hospital staff, also Mrs. B. Leite, field matron, and all the people of Kincolith for their kindness during our recent sad bereavement.

HOW CAN I ? ? ?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I clean zinc?

A. Cut a lemon into halves, take one half and rub the zinc. Allow it to remain for an hour, then wipe off. It will make the zinc look like new.

Q. How can I remove mold from book bindings?

A. Rub leather book bindings that have become moldy with a soft cloth dampened with ammonia, and then wipe dry with a soft cloth or chamois.

Q. How can I remove white stains from polished furniture?

A. If the stains are not too deep, try rubbing with a solution of olive oil and salt.

NEW COACHES ON C.N. LINE

Announcement of the addition of two modern, air conditioned coaches on the run between Prince Rupert and Jasper was made by Canadian National special passenger representative William Cruickshank today as the demand for rolling stock to transport repatriated troops eases slightly.

In addition, trains on the Prince Rupert line now carry two sleepers where formerly the need for sleeping cars for troop service allowed only one on this line.

The new coaches, which will go into service shortly, are air conditioned and have individual reclining seats for the greater convenience of passengers.

Mrs. Will Robinson of Terrace sailed aboard the Princess Adelaide last night for Vancouver to attend a Red Cross conference.
