J. B. McCullagh and Rev. F. L. Stevenson. Mr. McCullagh, who has been carrying on the work of the church in the Naas Valley for over thirty years, had a number of the most fascinating reminiscences to relate, whilst Mr. Stevenson told of his 600 mile march along the telegraph line from Atlin to the Bulkley Valley.

RUSSIAN FARMERS WILL COME TO THIS DISTRICT TO LIVE

THOUSAND EXPERT FARMERS FROM RUSSIA ARE COMING TO SETTLE NEAR HAZELTON AND DECKER AND BURNS LAKES.

Vancouver, Sept. 26.—"One thousand Russians will leave in two weeks for Northern British Columbia, where they will establish themselves as permanent colonizers and residents."

This was the statement given out this morning by A. M. Assanshaw, the head of the Russian colonization movement, who with five Russian representatives, leaves for the north Thursday evening to complete arrangements for the immediate occupation of the land by the colonists.

Five hundred of the Russians will settle at Morrice town, thirty miles southeast of Hazelton, on the G.T.P., and the other half will colonize the territory between Decker and Burns Lakes, 100 miles farther south. Each colonist will have from forty to eighty acres.

Half of the Russians will start to clear the land and build homes immediately, while the rest will obtain work as contractors on the G.T.P.

They will live in tents or improvised houses until permanent dwellings can be erected.

Each colony will have a central village, where a school or church will be erected. A general store will be provided, where the colonists can obtain necessary provisions. The quantities of agricultural implements and horses and cattle which they will need will be supplied through the Vancouver office. These Russians were originally from south east Russia. They are expert farmers and are well fixed in a financial way.

Mr. Assanshaw is now negotiating for one hundred thousand acres additional land which will be settled next spring.

Five thousand more Russians will be provided with homes through this colonization association by next March in time for spring crops to be planted.

TWO BRITISH CITIZENS ARE KILLED IN SOUTH AMERICA

GREAT BRITAIN IS AWAITING ACTION OF UNITED STATES BEFORE TAKING ACTION—U. S. MARINES ARE FIGHTING THERE—WOMEN AND CHILDREN ARE KILLED.

Washington, D.C., Sept. 26.—Two British subjects have been murdered by Nicaraguan rebels at Achupaca, has been reported by the British Vice-Consul at Matagalpa. It is expected, however, that the British government, before taking action, will await the results of the American campaign.

Severe fighting between American marine forces and Nicaraguan rebels is believed to have occurred in the last few days near Barranca, although reports from there are meagre.

Rear Admiral Southerland is in the field with about 2,000 men, and if plans have not miscarried, has by this time cleared the route of the national railway of rebels and relieved the famine threatened city of Granada.

Conditions in Granada, Nicaragua, are worse than those which existed in the Congo and the Putumayo, according to State department reports.

The rebels have turned upon helpless non-combatants, women and children, and their warfare is characterized by a return to absolute barbarism.

American Minister Weitzel has received a letter from Pedro Rafael Cuadra, minister of finance to President Diaz, and from Carlos Cuadra, Nicaraguan minister of the mixed claims commission, in which in the name of humanity and civilization they beg Minister Weitzel to do all he can to protect their families, who are being ferociously persecuted at Granada by General Mena and his agents because they themselves are members of the Diaz government.

Their brothers, they declare, have been tortured, deprived of food, and obliged to pay large sums for a few crumbs. For five days the brothers were confined in a small, filthy closet, and for three days of that time were without food or water. When let out they were near death.

Colonel Daniel Mena, in command of For San Francisco, overlooking the town, has threatened to shoot the Cuadra brothers if the government troops attack Granada. It is said that Mrs. Cuadra, wife of the minister of finance, is being hunted in order that she may be tortured.

Early despatches to the State department today contain no news of Admiral Southerland and his marines. Officials are puzzled by the delay of communication. The lack of news was explained partly by the fact that Admiral Southerland must be many miles from Managua, his base, with no means of sending messages except by courier.

The relief of Granada with its foreign inhabitants, officials said, was imperative if other foreign governments would not take a hand in protecting their subjects. Definite advices from Admiral Southerland were anxiously awaited.

KIRMESS AND MINSTREL SHOW GREAT SUCCESS; DANCERS WERE EXCELLENT

Kirmess and Minstrel Show Held in Westholme Opera House Last Night Was Great Success—House Was Crowded and Singers and Dancers at Their Best

It would be a hard matter indeed to comment upon every number which deserved favorable mention at the production of the Kirmess last night under the direction of Prof. Douglas, for from the rise of the curtain to "God Save the King" there was not a single poor event, nor one dull moment.

The manner in which Prof. Douglas has trained the little tots who took part in the entertainment marks him as a man of great ability, and one who must have a superabundance of patience.

Tonight the programme will be changed, new dances and songs being introduced, and tomorrow evening in place of the minstrel show the prize dancing competition of the North will be held. Prof. Douglas will also dance against time and endeavor to break the record, held by himself.

Little Dorothy Hendricks and wee Effie Kyle, Seattle pupils of Prof. Douglas, were even better than the advance notices proclaimed them. The buck and ballet dancing of the tiny Miss Hendricks, who boasts the advanced age of five summers, and looks younger, was marvellous to behold. Never a step was lost, and the dances she figured in were of the most difficult kind. Her stage manners and conduct was most pleasing. In her dances Effie Kyle was just as proficient, and not one mistake was made by her in performing the intricate sword dance or highland fling. Her tiny coat was fairly plastered with medals won by her in different parts of the Northwest as champion sword and fling dancer.

Mr. E. J. Waterman and his minstrels proved to be a huge success, and he as interlocutor never allowed one dull moment to elapse. Song followed song and joke followed joke, the end men proving themselves to be not only good singers and jokesmiths but also proficient actors, as was evidenced by the one minute sketch put on entitled "The Inspection of the Earl Grey's Rifles." During the course of the minstrel show Mr. Waterman sang a song that was much appreciated.

"Bright Eyes," by Mr. Fletcher, was the first solo of the performance, and showed that gentleman to be possessed of a very pleasing voice, which he can use to good advantage.

Mr. Clapperton followed with "Loveland" and received deserved applause, as did also Mr. Corkill, for his song, "Your Daddy Did the Same Thing Fifty Years Ago." "Capt. Willie Brown" was admirably sung by Mr. Brown. Mr. Russell received a round of applause for his number, "If Every Little Star Was a Little Pickaninny," which he well merited.

Mr. Kerry, a wee Scotsman, sang Lauder's favorite, "I Love a Lassie," in manner which would have done justice to the illustrious Harry himself.

Mr. Waterman followed Mr. Kelly and sang "My Baby Rose" in a finished manner, which won for him the approbation of the house.

Mr. Demers gave a selection of bone playing that was a treat and delight to the audience.

After Mr. Demers' number the minstrel withdrew, concluding with a grand finale chorus.

Upon the lifting of the curtain Misses Shorey, McKay, Jean Bailey and Myrie Bailey appeared in a skirt dance, which, to say the least, was captivating. This was followed by the "Peek-a-Boo" dance, a very pretty figure, in which little Doris Pattullo and Mabel Westenhaver proved themselves to be very finished dancers. Both these little ladies appeared during succeeding numbers of the programme and in each instance carried out their parts to perfection.

Miss Lily Shrubbsall in a lime-light Dutch dance was excellent. Her terpsichorean abilities are wonderful and were shown to good advantage in the difficult dance in which she figured.

Miss Ethel Gray, the young lady who danced the highland fling before H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught on Monday, proved her versatility by appearing in several different dances last night. In the mirror dance she won rounds of applause, which were repeated when she appeared in the ballet number and sang delightfully.

Miss Lottie Casley, a pretty little tot, possessed of a particularly sweet, strong voice, appeared in adult garb and with the stage presence of a prima donna sang "Glow Worm," to which she had to respond to an encore.

"Little Dorothy Hendricks appeared like a little spirit and in a style seldom attained by professional adult dancers went through her ballet dance, proving herself to be a toe dancer of undoubted excellence, and later as a buck and wing dancer to worthy her title, "champion."

Nothing could be more charming than the ballet number by fourteen girls, in which tiny Flora Gray sang in a most captivating manner "I Want Some One to Flirt with Me."

With perfect time and faultlessly sixteen girls dressed in pure white appeared and went through a most difficult flag drill, winning the approbation they richly deserved.

The Virginia reel which was included in the barn dance act was a number that was pleasing in the extreme. Mr. Jimmy Russell appeared in this with one of his excellent songs.

Throughout the whole evening not one number was a failure, and nearly every performer had to respond to an encore.
