$140,000 GREENHOUSE OPENED AT NIAGARA — More than 1,000 persons from the Niagara district, and Ontario government officials, including six cabinet ministers, attended the official opening of the $140,000 greenhouse of the Niagara Parks commission at Niagara Falls, Ont., recently. After Mrs. Charles Daley, wife of Labor minister Daley, also commission chairman, opened the door, a thousand viewed the display of more than 2,000 'mums in full bloom, the largest 'mum display in Ontario. Photo shows Miss Jane Michener, daughter of Ontario's provincial secretary, Roland Michener, and Miss Pam Pepler, Oakville, being shown a display of 'mums by Labor Minister Daley.

Gyro Club Hears Reports; Plans For Installation

Receiving of annual reports and planning of immediate social activities occupied the attention of the Prince Rupert Gyro Club at its weekly luncheon yesterday. This Friday evening the club will have its installation of officers with International President Greg Yorke of Vancouver and District Governor Fred Hawes of Victoria coming north to officiate. There will be a reception Friday afternoon at the home of the president-elect, Ald. C. G. Ham, and a farewell for the visitor Saturday evening at the home of Past President W. F. Stone. Next Wednesday the Gyros will have a novelty pre-Christmas luncheon, the arrangements for which are in the hands of C. P. Balagno and N. R. Young.

Mrs. S. Dominato returned on the Prince Rupert yesterday afternoon from a trip to Vancouver.

Official Administrator,
Prince Rupert, B.C.

CIVIC CENTRE RIFLE RANGE

Project Approved and Organization of Club is About to Proceed

Newest adjunct to the Civic Centre here will be a miniature small-bore rifle range, installation of which was finally approved at the quarterly meeting of the executive on Tuesday night. It will be installed in the basement of the centre and work on the project will be commenced shortly. The length of the range will be twenty yards. The club, to be organized in the near future, will be affiliated with the Dominion Marksmen's Association.

PROTEST AT AUTO TAXES

SYDNEY, Australia, (AP)— Australian motorists' associations are canvassing for taxation relief which they claim is crippling motoring and has made it a luxury beyond the reach of the average man.

The organizations say the cost of keeping an average-sized car has risen from about $4.80 before the war to $12.80 a week. They estimate that few family men earning less than $3,200, which is much higher than the average Australian income, can afford an automobile.

Two charges against which they argue are a federal sales tax on cars and the gasoline tax. The sales tax is up from six per cent in 1939 to 12½ per cent and applies to higher car prices. The gasoline tax is 15¼ cents on a gallon of gasoline that retails at 34 2-3 cents. The tax represents an increase of about 64 per cent compared with the pre-war rate.

The associations contend also that not a large enough proportion of government revenue from gasoline tax goes to highway upkeep. Last year, they claim, only $12,000,000 of $40,000,000 collected from the gasoline tax was distributed to state governments for road maintenance.
