FAMED FOLK SINGER and star, Burl Ives, who is now the owner of the Monte Carlo saloon in Dawson City, Yukon, chats with Canadian Pacific Airline stewardess, Devine McDonald, following a flight from the far north community where he layed plans for Dawson City's historical festival in 1962. According to present plans, Mr. Ives' singing will be featured at the festival. While in Dawson City, Mr. Ives purchased the saloon, which was built in 1880 by "Swiftwater" Bill Gates. Commented Ives during his brief stopover in Vancouver on the weekend, "I've always wanted to be a saloon-keeper, ever since I was a boy." — (CPA Photo).
