NO PILOT IS NEEDED HERE

Freighter Norman Monarch, Capt. A. W. Kane, Arrives in Port After Speedy Trip From Japan

Evidence of the ready accessibility and easy entrance of this harbor by ocean going vessels, the big tramp freighter Norman Monarch of the Monarch Steamship Co. of Glasgow arrived in port direct from Mororan, Japan, at 9.45 last night, Capt. A. W. Kane having negotiated the entrance to the harbor without the assistance of a pilot. The vessel arrived here six days ahead of time, having not been due until June 3. A fast passage of fourteen days was made in spite of the fact that there was a good deal of dirty weather and on Thursday night, while nearing the Queen Charlotte Islands, there was a living gale which lifted everything moveable off the decks of the ship. The Norman Monarch was here last fall and Capt. Kane stated that, once having been here, there was no trick to coming to this port again without the aid of a pilot.

After having passed customs and quarantine, the Norman Monarch pulled out of the harbor early this morning for Queen Charlotte City to load lumber for the Atlantic seaboard, completing later at southern mills. The vessel came across the Pacific in ballast.
