X-Ray Spots Phony Rubbers

AKRON, Ohio, June 30 (AP) — How use of the X-ray to "see through" phony specimens of alleged synthetic rubber saved valuable time in research following Pearl Harbor, is one of the rubber industry's "now it can be told" stories.

After sources of natural rubber were cut off from the United States, many inventors came forward with claims of synthetic rubbers, Dr. H. E. Fritz, research director of the B. F. Goodrich company recalls. Some, he said, were "screwball" inventions. Others were downright attempts at fraud.

There are distinctive cell formations in natural rubber and all rubber-like synthetics, Dr. Fritz explained. With the X-ray, the expert could tell whether the material was already known to chemists, or something new that merited investigation.

QUEEN OF BURLESQUE

Replete with action, suspense, beautiful showgirls, smart songs, gay and fast-moving dialogue together with thrilling mystery, "Lady of Burlesque," starring Barbara Stanwyck and introducing a talented and handsome newcomer in the person of Michael O'Shea, comes to the Capitol Theatre here next Monday and Tuesday. It is an adaptation of Gypsy Rose Lee's story of backstage burlesque life "G-String Murders."

Miss Stanwyck plays the part of a queen of burlesque who is the star not only of a show but of two daring murders committed backstage during performances at an opera house. Excitement is keyed to a high pitch with accusations falling upon several suspicious members of the troup including the burlesque who, with the comic of the show, sets a trap to catch the villainous murderer and vindicate herself.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A.

(By Dorothy Garbutt)

We'll I'm in trouble. A lot of it. Thursday morning I went in to the post office at 10:30 a.m. as usual to see what mail there was and while there must have lost my keys because by the time I got up to the Y with my arms full of papers, letters and a parcel I had no keys. I noticed the loss right away. There were seven of them, I'm sure that's the number, two Yale keys, three small keys, an ordinary key and a long flat key and they were on a metal ball type chain. I am hampered in my work by the loss of them. I can't get at any of my supplies. It's really grim and I mean grim.

Tonight is the big dance at the Acropolis. It is sponsored by Special Services. There will be a 13-piece band to furnish the music and refreshments. It's open to all the services.

I hope the weather keeps fine for the regatta. I hear that the newly formed Petty Officers' Wives Auxiliary is going to have its baptism of fire that day by helping serve tea at the drill hall during the afternoon.

So Ted and Betty Lewis are leaving us. Ted, now Chief Petty Officer Lewis, has been up here for almost three years during which time he acquired himself a wife and a shore job, after putting in a good spot of sea time on the old C—, which was quite a boat as boats go. Or was it the crew that made it seem so? Does this list of hearties make you nostalgic, Ted, for the good old days—Andy Anderson, Ralph Smele, Wallie Watkins. Lightheart—he was on the C—, wasn't he Ted? Breen and I used to steel ourselves for the coming onslaught whenever we heard the C— was in port. And it came! Well, good luck. Ted and Betty!

GREENSTUFFS PLENTIFUL

Prices in some greenstuffs have taken a marked drop on the local markets in the past week due to their greater abundance. A greater variety of fruits is also appearing. Among the latter are red plums, apricots and gooseberries.

In the vegetable line new potatoes are selling at four pounds for 22 cents and fresh cabbage at seven cents a pound. In some stores green peas are selling at 2 pounds for 29 cents and green onions at 3 bunches for ten cents. The latter have dropped considerably since they were first put on the market.

Strawberries, of which there is an abundance in the south, are not being picked for market, so those which were expected to arrive here last week will probably not come at all. Interior berries are not ready yet.

C.W.A.C. Band Rated Tops

Girls Play at Parades and Rallies—May Go on Tour

WINNIPEG, June 30 (CP)— It took two years and a lot of hard work before Cwacs at Winnipeg's Fort Osborne Barracks formed their own band but now its rated as tops. Led by a high-stepping drum majorette from Fort William, Sgt. Betty Brading, the 24 young "soldieriettes" now are the only C.W.A.C. band in M.D. 10.

The girls have played at parades and rallies and even journeyed to Shilo Camp with the basketball team. Now they are looking forward to going on tour and playing for comrades-in-arms at other camps. Decked out in regulation uniforms, with gold lanyards and gloves, they admit they nearly all get "butterflies" when on parade.

Slim, drum majorette Brading enthused: "The girls are really wonderful. Only two had ever played a bugle before and they are all coming along splendidly." Sgt. Brading is also learning the drums and bugle.

Four provinces are represented in the band. Cpl. Evelyn Hillis, a bass drummer, Pte. Hazel Lamore and Sgt. Louise Scott, both buglers, are from Port Arthur. Cpl. Jean Earl is from Vancouver, Cpl. Alice Hawkens from Regina and Cpl. Isabel McKnight from Brandon, Man.

HELP FOR NURSES

LONDON, (AP)— To free nurses for invasion casualty treatment, 300 women war workers in West Middlesex are doing domestic work in hospitals which ordinarily was done by the nurses themselves. The war-worker women do this in their so-called "spare time."
