GYRO PICNIC HAPPY OUTING

Local Gyro folk, from veteran "grandpa" members to the months old babes of the service club juniors, mingled happily on the sunny shores of Auriol Point in Metlakatla Passage yesterday as the Prince Rupert Gyro Club held its annual picnic. A mid-September extension of Prince Rupert's superfine summer weather lent warm favor to the outing. There was the traditionally lavish hospitality for old and young alike. The crowd was the largest yet, numbering upwards of sixty. The arrangements of Amerigo Dominato, chairman of the picnic committee, went off without a hitch.

The trip was made aboard Dr. R. G. Large's commodious power cruiser, Soogwillis, and there was the customary feat of Bill Stone leaping overboard from the wheelhouse roof to swim ashore in leading the procession of landing craft. Thus commenced a happy day given over to beach sports, boating and other pastimes including the full enjoyment of the lunch and evening meals with soft drinks, ice cream, hot dogs and canteloupes supplied in a measure to amply satify the most juvenile appetites.

Sunburned and happy, the big party, which left at 10 a.m., was home safe and sound by 9 p.m.

Those who enjoyed the memorable outing were Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Large, Peggy and Dick Large, Mr. and Mrs. A.
