STEWART CASE PROCEEDING

respect to the charge of killing against Gladys Gale, His Lordship said he did not see on what basis the crown expected to proceed with that unless it was on the ground of aiding and abetting on which point he proceeded to make certai nexplanations to the jury. Of course, if one incited another to such an offence the one inciting was equally guilty with the one who had actually committed the offence.

Phinney Case

Speaking of the charges against Edgar Phinney, first of unlawfully wounding and second of assault and battery, His Lordship remarked that there were some rather odd circumstances. A celebration appeared to have been going on in accused's house at Lockeport on the day in question, January 23. Phinney had apparently not taken part in the celebration and had not been drinking. George Ness, Nels Larson and Albert Sandstrom, the latter the man who was alleged to have been wounded, had all been drinking more or less. Along toward evening, accused apparently not enjoying the proceedings himself asked the men to leave his place. Sandstrom did not go and, according to his (Sandstrom's) evidence, Phinney struck him across the abdomen with the butt of a gun. Evidence of doctors was that Sandstrom had been in a bad condition for some time. An important question in connection with the case was whether or not Phinney had used "reasonable" force in ejecting Sandstrom.

His Lordship also mentioned the bills of indictment in which three young men were alleged to have been implicated in an occurrence in this city. He stated that he would address the Grand Jury later on this case. In the meantime, he asked that the three bills already presented be dealt with, the Stewart case first on request of A. M. Johnson, crown prosecutor.

Was Nearly Crazy From Headaches

Miss K. Brill, 579 Redwood Ave., Winnipeg, Man., writes:—"I was troubled with such severe headaches that some times I was nearly crazy with them.

One day a friend told me about, and advised me to use

Burdock BLOOD BITTERS

so I tried it, and it has done me a world of good. I just took two and a half bottles, and I haven't had a headache for a long time, now."

LIQUOR CONVICTION QUASHED IN SUPREME COURT HERE TODAY

On the condition that the case be reopened should counsel appear before the session of the Assises ends on behalf of the crown which was not represented today, Mr. Justice W. A. MacDonald, on certiori application of L. W. Patmore, this afternoon quashed a conviction and fine of $300 that was imposed on James Robertson in December by J. L. Barge, J.P., of Queen Charlotte City on a charge of keeping liquor for sale.

The appeal was presented on the grounds that the magistrate had heard no evidence in the case except from the accused and that the conviction did not state where the offence had taken place.

Various technical points in connection with the case were looked up by His Lordship before giving his decision.

LORD WILLINGDON WHO WILL BE CANADA'S NEW GOVERNOR HAS HAD DISTINGUISHED CAREER.

should be mentioned, was Governor of Victoria, Australia, from 1895 to 1900, and during that period his son-in-law served as his aide-de-camp. It was immediately after his return from this first official experience overseas that Mr. Freeman-Thomas captured Hastings. This borough he continued to represent until 1906, when he was defeated and transferred his services to the Bodmin Division of Cornwall, for which he was the Parliamentary representative until 1910.

That year saw the end of his career in the House of Commons on his being given a peerage, but his Parliamentary activities were continued in the House of Lords until he was selected for the Governorship of Bombay. He proceeded to India in 1913 and did not finally return home until 1924. During the first half of this period he governed the Bombay presidency with such conspicuous ability that at the end of his term of office the Government were very anxious to retain his services in India, and he was persuaded to accept the Governorship of the Madras presidency. In this office he remaind until 1924, when he retired with a greatly enhanced reputation for skill in handling Indian problems and difficult native character.

Heaped With Honors

The success of his work in India was signalized by his promotion to the rank of Viscount. He had previously been honored with the highest decorations of the orders of the Indian Empire, the British Empire and the Star of India. He is also a Knight of Grace of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem in England. This honor Viscountess Willingdon shares as a Lady of Grace. She is also G.B.E. (Civil Division), a Dame of the British Empire Order (Civil Division) and holds the Kaisar-i-Hind Gold Medal, First Class.

A pleasant incident marking the home-coming of Lord Willingdon from India was the conferment upon him by his old constituents, and neighbors, in Hastings, of the freedom of their borough, and last year—on July 16—the continuance of the friendship between them was further manifested in his lordship being selected to represent the town in the ceremony attending the restoration to Canada of the Quebec Shield, a trophy which was brought from the gates of Quebec by Major Murray, the first British Governor, and presented by him to the borough of Hastings. In exchange for the shield Canada presented to Hastings a replica, to hang in the Council Chamber at the Town Hall, where the original was so long an object of interest to visitors. In the ceremony the Canadian High Commissioner (Hon. P. C. Larkin), the French Ambassador (M. Fleuriau), Lord Clarendon (representing the Colonial Office), the Mayor of Hastings and other prominent persons took part, the event serving as the occasion of a remarkable demonstration of pro-Canadian feeling, to which Lord Willingdon's speech in handing over the shield was the leading contribution.
