

Legislative Library
LARGEST CIRCULATION
IN CITY AND NORTHERN BRITISH COLUMBIA

THE DAILY NEWS

Formerly The Prince Rupert Optimist

LIBRARY, LEGISLATIVE BUILDING
Camosun ... Saturday 10 p.m.
Princess Mary ... Sunday 9 p.m.
Prince Rupert ... Monday 9 a.m.
City of Prince Rupert ... Noon
Princess Sophia ... Monday noon
VICTORIA, B. C.

VOL. III, NO. 229 PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1912. PRICE FIVE CENTS

ULSTERITES SAY THEY WILL DIE AS FREEMEN

DUKE OF CONNAUGHT AND PARTY ARE ROYALLY RECEIVED AT THE CAPITAL CITY

KIRMESS AGAIN A SUCCESS; PROGRAMME TO BE CHANGED

MANY ATTEND PRODUCTION OF KIRMESS LAST NIGHT AND ARE PLEASED WITH DANCERS—SEATTLE BABES ARE WONDERFUL AND LOCAL TALENT VERY PLEASING.

Professor Douglas' unique entertainment, known as Kirmess, featuring a bevy of charming and accomplished children, played to a large and delighted audience last evening at the Westholme Opera House.

The first part of the programme, a short black face show, served to fill in the time while the audience was arriving.

The brilliant and refined salutes of the end men and allusions of a topical character caused shrieks of laughter and merriment.

A "Fairy" dance by Misses Edith Brown, Dorothy Tovey and Esther Naden proved entertaining.

Charming little Miss Kyle, one of Professor Douglas' little Seattle pupils, danced a Sailor's Hornpipe in imitable fashion, receiving round after round of applause. Then Miss Gray appeared in a novel dance turn in Eastern costume, making a big hit.

Suddenly and to those in the audience who had not previously seen her, a dazzling star appeared in the "ennamant," completely carrying them off their feet. It was little Dorothy Hendricks, the diminutive little elf of five summers, performing a ballet dance with all the grace, nerve and abandon of the most finished and accomplished artist. To have seen it to have believed, otherwise it would be impossible to credit such a performance by a child of such tender years. Professor Douglas is indeed a marvel as a trainer of children in the terpsichorean art.

Miss Wren of Metlakahla and the Misses Shorey McKay, Jean Bailey and Myrie Bailey in skirt dances proved most pleasing.

In a short xlophone solo, Professor Douglas himself brought down the house.

The ballet act by fourteen little damsels and the flag drill were both gracefully and cleverly performed, again showing the results of Professor Douglas' excellent training.

Miss Kyle in the famous sword dance, and once again little Dorothy Hendricks in a waltz clog, brought the evening's entertainment to a close.

Tonight will conclude the performance. An entirely new programme of songs, music and dancing is to be provided. The waltz competition and fancy dancing will replace the minstrel show, and this should mean another bumper house. No one should miss seeing the remarkable little kiddies, Kyle and Hendricks, as this will be positively the last opportunity of doing so.

The programme is as follows:

1. Opening march, cast.
2. Dutch dance.
3. Irish jig, Miss Dorothy Hendricks.
4. Sailor's hornpipe, Miss Effie Kyle.
5. Xlophone solo, by Prof. Douglas.
6. "Reuben, I've Been Thinking," by six couples. Virginia reel.
7. Ball room act, showing latest dances, Miss Rowley and Prof. Douglas.
8. "Shewan Frewo," Miss Ethel Gray.
9. Flag drill competition, two companies.
10. Prof. Douglas trying to break record of dancing against time; record held by him.
11. Highland fling, Miss Effie Kyle.
12. Caprice act, specialty, Miss Mabel Westenhaver; specialty, Miss Winnifred Renworth.
13. Prize waltz, two gold medals, to be recorded as champion of Northern British Columbia; open; 10:15 p. m. Specialty, Miss Margaret Wren, Metlakahla.
14. Buck dance, Miss Dorothy Hendricks.
15. Maypole dance.

KING WILLIAM'S FLAG IS PRESENTED TO CARSON AT BELFAST LAST NIGHT; WILL DIE AS FREEMAN, SAY UNIONISTS

Three Thousand Persons Attend Meeting at Belfast and Witness Presentation of Flag Carried at Boyne to Carson---Determination Strong to Resist Home Rule

(Special to Daily News.)
Belfast, Sept. 28.—The singing of the national anthem by an audience of 3,000 persons, comprising representatives of Belfast's industrial, mercantile, civil and religious community, tonight brought to a close the great anti-home rule meeting in Ulster Hall amid a fervor never before equalled, even by the anti-home rule convention of 1892.

The most dramatic moment of the whole meeting was when the unfurling and presentation to Sir Edward Carson, the chief leader in the fight against home rule, of the flag carried by King William at the battle of the Boyne. It was greeted with frenzied cheering.

None of the speakers nor the letters they read from influential men in the Unionist party indicated any of the plans for resistance in the event that the King signed the bill.

Compared with the demonstrations held elsewhere during the week, there was a noticeable absence of talk of armed resistance, but a quiet determination not to accept home rule was manifested on all sides.

Sir Edward Carson quoted in his speech the revolutionary leaders of the American war of independence: "Under God we are determined to, wherever and howsoever called upon, to make our exit from this life, but we shall die as free men. My watchword to you is: 'Be ready.'"

BAPTIST BROTHERHOOD WILL PUT ON COMEDY "OUR BOYS"

INTERESTING COMEDY-DRAMA TO BE PRODUCED BY AMATEURS—HAD A SUCCESSFUL RUN OF FIFTEEN HUNDRED NIGHTS AT LONDON.

Prince Rupert will have the opportunity of witnessing on Tuesday next one of the best of modern comedies, when H. J. Byron's famous "Our Boys" will be staged at the Westholme Opera House by the members of the Baptist Brotherhood, under the direction of Mrs. Jack Chisholm.

The comedy of "Our Boys" was first performed at the Vaudeville Theatre, Strand, London, under the management of Messrs. David James and Thomas Thorne, on Saturday, January 16th, 1875, and had a continuous run of over 1,500 nights, a period extending over five years. Just stop and think of it. What was the cause of the truly magnetic hold that this simple picture of ordinary life in a quiet English country town had upon the public? No play of modern times has ever equalled it in its power to amuse and yet at the same time bring the audience at certain moments almost to the verge of tears.

The story is simple yet of entrancing interest. There are the two old fathers, the haughty old impecunious aristocrat, and the wealthy, ignorant, uneducated, self-made old butlerman. Both really most lovable characters in their different ways. The two sons, of course, total opposites: the good looking, handsome, breezy young Charles Middlewick, devoted to his father, though troubled at times over the old man's gramatical breaks, and Talbot Chamneys, the namby-pamby fop, who apes the blase men of the world and takes no interest in his father's natural desire that he should make a name for himself in English politics.

Then there are the two girls, cousins, the one rich and the other poor. The boys and the girls fall desperately in love with each other, of course, but not arranging things to suit the two old paterfamilias. This causes causes all kinds of complications, the boys being turned out of their comfortable homes to make a living for themselves in the great city of London.

How they succeed furnishes an evening's entertainment that to miss would be a crime. The seats will be on sale on Monday.

Following is the cast of the play and the names of the local Thespians essaying the several parts:

Sir Geoffrey Champneys (a county magnate).....
.....Mr. C. R. Simpson
Talbot Champneys (his son).....
.....Mr. Frank A. Ellis
Perkin Middlewick (a retired butlerman).....
.....Mr. Robert McIntosh
Charles Middlewick (his son).....
.....Mr. Adair Cars
Kempster (Sir Geoffrey's man servant).....Mr. Harry Miller
Poddles (Middlewick's butler).....
.....Mr. Leo Ives
Violet Melrose (an heiress).....
.....Miss Fisher
Mary Melrose (her poor cousin).....
.....Miss McDonald
Clarissa Champneys (Sir Geoffrey's sister).....Mrs. Chisholm
Belinda (a lodging house servant).....Miss Brown

MURDERER IS GIVEN LIFE

Man Who Killed Inspector Herbert at Detroit Was Given Life Term Yesterday.

(Special to Daily News.)
Detroit, Sept. 28.—William Ferguson, the man who shot and killed Canadian Customs Inspector Herbert at Detroit on July 25th, for not allowing him to enter Canada on account of physical disability, was found guilty yesterday and sentenced to life imprisonment.

Mrs. Burritt Entertained.
Mrs. W. E. Burritt entertained at her charming home on Fourth avenue last evening a delightful little party of friends in honor of the departure of her sister, Miss Miller, who has been her guest for the last few weeks. Music and bridge were played during the evening.

A number of the guests were those who had taken part in the hospital concert, that owed its successful carrying out to the efforts of Mrs. Burritt and Mrs. McNeil. Among those present were the following: Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McMaster, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Halsey, Dr. and Mrs. McNeill, Mr. and Mrs. William Manson, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Forster, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Stewart, Captain and Mrs. Broadhurst, Alderman and Mrs. Bullock-Webster, Misses Chapman, Curtin, Johnston and Jenns, and Messrs. A. Stowell, G. Garrett, Adair Cars, E. C. Gibbons and Lionel Crippen.

KING GEORGE STOPS BALL

His Majesty Suddenly Orders Cancellation of Ball to Be Held Last Night Over Ireland.

(Special to Daily News.)
London, Sept. 28.—The ball which was to have been given by H. Majesty King George last night was suddenly and without warning to the invited guests cancelled.

The reason for the sudden action is causing considerable speculation and the opinion expressed which is given the most credence is that His Majesty is too busily engaged in discussing with his ministers events in Ireland to give his attention to social functions.

BRITISH FLEET TO BE LARGER

Mediterranean Unit to Be Increased Next Year Was Statement by Admiralty.

(Special to Daily News.)
London, Sept. 28.—A statement was issued last night by the admiralty announcing that the British naval force in the Mediterranean will be greatly increased next year.

Pantorium Pioneer Cleaners, Phone 4.

Successful Raid.
Last evening at about 10 o'clock a well executed and entirely satisfactory raid was brought off upon a big Chinese joint on the corner of Eighth street and Third avenue, where the police had for some time suspected the existence of a gambling and opium den. A few minutes after the police had made their sortie, a string of jabbering and gesticulating Celestials were being escorted up to police headquarters.

Wong Long headed the list, as proprietor and leading man, followed by Lee Hai, Gee Sing, Wong Mah, Wing, King Sack, Wong Yam, Sing Wah, Wong Yet, Mah Sing, Kay and Saun Yong, in minor roles.

Bail was at once arranged. Wong Long, as proprietor in the sum of $200, Wong Yet for being found in the act of hitting the pipe, $100, and Wah for endeavoring to get away with money in sight on the fan tan table and making an ineffectual attempt to resist arrest, $50. The remainder were let go at $25 apiece. A pipe, opium, playing cards and other Chinese gambling devices were captured and taken to the police station to be used as evidence.

This morning the accused all answered to their names at the police court at 10 o'clock, when the cases were all adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

BURGLARS GET MONEY EASILY

Another daring burglary was successfully carried out last night when entry was secured to the Prince Rupert Fish & Cold Storage Co.'s Third avenue store and a considerable amount of money was secured.

Details of the crime are meagre, and it was not until the place was opened for business this morning that the loss was discovered. The safe was found open and the money, which was under $100, was missing.

The police were informed of the burglary and are investigating it, but refuse to divulge any details.

For the safe keeping of money and valuables secure a safety deposit box at the Continental Trust Co. 229

A. W. Agnew was an arrival this morning on the Prince Rupert, having returned from a short visit to Victoria, at which place his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Agnew, late of Montreal, have taken up their residence for the future.

Try Stalker & Wells' butter—best yet. Two lbs. for 75 cents. 229-1f

There were several cases up before Magistrate McMullin in the police court this morning, which were all adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon, with the exception of an ordinary case of d. and d., for which the customary five dollars and costs was imposed.

Harvest Sale at Citadel.

The annual Thanksgiving sale of the Salvation Army will be held in the citadel on Monday evening. In addition to several entertaining features the sale will prove most interesting. Mr. Frank A. Ellis will auction the goods, which include a unique collection of valuable and ornamental articles. Several excellent cameras, clocks, vases, safety razors, clothing, household articles, etc., have been donated and will be sold to the highest bidder. Any others wishing to contribute may do so by telephoning Captain Tuttle.

Our ladies' shoe shining parlors are the first in the city. Renworth & Jefferson's Shoe Store. 229

Suits! Suits! Suits!
Try one of ours and you will be satisfied. Sweder Bros., Tailor.

DUKE ARRIVES AT VICTORIA AND IS WELCOMED JOYOUSLY

PRINCESS ALICE IS ESCORTED INTO HARBOR BY FLEET OF SMALL BOATS, WHILE THE ROYAL SALUTE IS FIRED FROM THE FORTIFICATIONS.

Victoria, Sept. 28.—Victoria extended the Duke of Connaught and his party a royal welcome when they arrived yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock on board the Princess Alice.

As the steamer entered the harbor a royal salute of twenty-one guns was fired from the Work Point forts, while the sirens and whistles of the boats shrilly welcomed the Governor General to the western capital of Canada, and, forming in line on either side of the big steamer, escorted her to the dock.

As His Royal Highness, attired in the uniform of a field marshal, came down the gang plank he was welcomed by Lieutenant General Patterson and Premier Brice, who escorted him to the Parliament buildings, where Mayor Beckwith read the civic address of welcome.

In replying to the welcome, His Royal Highness referred to the great changes made in Victoria and British Columbia since the occasion of his last visit to the province, and spoke in glowing terms of the future in store for the country.

In the evening the royal party was entertained at a dinner party given at the Government house. The city presents a beautiful spectacle in its gay decorations, and last night was a blaze of light from the electric lights used in decorating.

As His Royal Highness, attired in the uniform of a field marshal, came down the gang plank he was welcomed by Lieutenant General Patterson and Premier Brice, who escorted him to the Parliament buildings, where Mayor Beckwith read the civic address of welcome.

In replying to the welcome, His Royal Highness referred to the great changes made in Victoria and British Columbia since the occasion of his last visit to the province, and spoke in glowing terms of the future in store for the country.

In the evening the royal party was entertained at a dinner party given at the Government house. The city presents a beautiful spectacle in its gay decorations, and last night was a blaze of light from the electric lights used in decorating.

'Our Boys'
A Modern Three Act Comedy
at the
Westholme Opera House
TUESDAY
Oct. 1st, 1912
By the Baptist Brotherhood, under the direction of Mrs. Chisholm
Seats on sale at Orme's Drug Store

GRAND - KIRMESS
LAST NIGHT
CHAMPIONSHIP
PRIZE WALTZ
Medals on exhibition in Gray's Jewellery Store
Prof. Douglas will try to break own record
See Latest Ballroom Dances
Westholme - Theatre
Popular Prices - $1.00, 75c., 50c.