B.C. ROUNDUP

Tory leaders now Indian Chief of Shuswap tribe

SALMON ARM (CP) — The leader of the Progressive Conservative party in British Columbia is Chief Straight Tongue.

The Conservative candidate for this provincial constituency is Chief Shimmering Water.

Deane Finlayson, the leader, and Torque Macleod, were made members of the Shuswap Indian band following a party executive meeting here Saturday. Seventy-five party members watched the ceremony.

Mr. Finlayson said the Conservatives are pledged to recognize any requests from Indians and that the Social Credit government has ignored Indians' pleas for better citizenship rights.

Meanwhile, Gordon Taylor, 37, a Nelson Junior High School teacher, has been nominated Conservative candidate for Nelson-Creston.

Call school tenders

VICTORIA (CP)—Education Minister Peterson announced Friday that authority has been given for the calling of tenders to start construction on a new provincial vocational school in Prince George.

Construction will start this summer on the first workshop to house students training in heavy-duty mechanics and car repairs.

Premier challenged

VANCOUVER (CP) — Premier Bennett has been challenged to pitch a tent on one of the provincial government camp sites and "last more than one night with the heat and the mosquitoes."

Norman Dent, Progressive Conservative candidate for Vancouver East, said he found on a recent camping trip that most of the camps were in poor locations.

Fatal frolic

QUALICUM BEACH, B.C. (CP)—A 1,000-pound sea lion was shot by Mike Gorick, a fishing guide, as it was sunning itself on the deck of a power boat docked here. The big type of seal was destroyed because officials feared it might damage other boats if startled.

Body found

QUESNEL (CP)—The body of Archie Handsor, 43, drowned 10 days ago on a fishing trip on the Blackwater River, 100 miles west of here, was recovered by an RCMP search party Sunday.

Handsor and Harold Hannigar, 35, were fishing when their boat was overturned in the river's swirling rapids under a 300-foot canyon. Hannigar managed to make it to shore.

Building slower

VANCOUVER (CP) — Housing starts in Greater Vancouver for the first six months this year were about 50 per cent below the same period last year. Housing officials said starts up to the end of June totalled 2,616, compared with 5,302 at that time last year.

Woman charged

CRESTON, B.C. (CP)—Mrs. Violet May Benson was charged Friday night with murder in the shotgun slaying early Friday of her husband Russel (Benny) Benson, 56, at their nearby Arrow Creek home.

Police said Benson died soon after midnight of a wound inflicted by a 12-guage shotgun blast.

Wins scholarship

VANCOUVER (CP) — Bruce W. Francis of Victoria, a student at the University of B.C., Friday was named winner of the 1960 Vancouver Stock Exchange Scholarship.

Amendment sought

KAMLOOPS (CP)—The Kamloops labor council Friday asked the British Columbia Federation of Labor CLC to petition the B.C. government to amend the law restricting forest fire fighters from obtaining unemployment insurance stamps.

The council said mill workers now fighting fires and not obtaining stamps could be disqualified from obtaining benefits this winter.

Weekend death toll

Four provinces were responsible for the 59 accidental deaths across Canada during the weekend.

A Canadian Press survey from 6 p.m. local times Friday to midnight Sunday shows New Brunswick, Quebec, Ontario and British Columbia the only provinces reporting accidental deaths during the weekend.

Traffic claimed 37 lives and drownings 16. Six persons died in a variety of accidents.

Quebec had 20 traffic deaths, six drownings, a train wreck death and a man dead when a tree fell on him.

Traffic accidents killed 12 persons in Ontario, one accident in southern Ontario claiming three lives. Five persons drowned, two died when hit by trains and a youth was fatally mangled by the propeller of a cruiser in the St. Clair River.

Four of British Columbia's eight accidental deaths occurred in a boating accident in the Strait of Georgia when a fishing boat flipped over. British Columbia reported one other drowning, two traffic deaths and a girl killed by a train.

Salmon catch nearly doubled

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP)—A bumper catch of reds in Bristol Bay has shoved Alaska's 1960 salmon pack to nearly 500,000 cases the State Department of Fish and Game said Thursday.

Figures covering the season through last Sunday showed a total of 1,460,653 cases of salmon packed throughout the state, compared to a total of 851,136 cases packed during a comparable period a year ago.

A Bristol Bay red pack of 807,337 cases was a major factor in the big increase over the 1959 pack.

The department also said 1,013,235 pounds of salmon had been cured or frozen throughout the state during the period which ended last Sunday.

B.C. Power Commission Bonds — just like the PGE Bonds which were oversubscribed last year — give B.C. families a golden opportunity to profit financially from our Province's dynamic growth.

The B.C. Power Commission is a public utility owned and operated by the people of British Columbia. It supplies low-cost electricity to more than 250 communities in Vancouver Island and Interior B.C., including such fast-growing cities as Nanaimo, Prince George and Kamloops. The steady growth and development of the Commission and the ever-increasing need for power throughout the Province makes these new 5% Parity Bonds an exceptionally good buy.
