paid high tribute to the of the merchant marine ccepted the greatest dan- gers and received very little honor for their heroism. He outlined experiences of a shipmaster who ran the Philippines blockade to take supplies to General MacArthur on Bataan and who later ran between Brisbane and Port Moresby when the latter port was under heavy bombardment.

"At Bataan his crew had been given a monkey for a pet. The ship was armed with only one .30 calibre machine gun, but it managed to bring down a Jap plane. Later, at Brisbane, the sergeant gunner thought he made a fine deal when he traded the monkey to an ordnance man for two .50 calibre machine guns. He did not know that he would have been issued with the new guns anyway."

Col. Mellom was thanked by president R. C. St. Clair for his interesting talk. Guests at the meeting were Sam Joy of Vancouver, Major Stewart of the U.S. Army, and Gnr. H. Crooks and Sgt. H. J. Moore, R.C.A.

Student Nurses' Parents To Get Tax Exemption

"Parents of student nurses may now secure an income tax deduction of 20% of the amount contributed (but not exceeding $400) to the support of a daughter under twenty-one years of age training as a nurse at a public or provincially-licensed private hospital." This announcement is made by Miss Fanny Munroe, president of the Canadian Nurses' Association, following the passing of a clause in the Bill on national finance at the last session of the House of Commons. "This income tax deduction is applicable also to the sister or brother of a dependent sister under twenty-one training at such a hospital," added Miss Munroe.

CHURCH PLANS FOR "V" DAY

Order of Service When Hostilities Cease Announced

An order of service to be used when hostilities cease by both communities and churches has been published by the Canadian Council of Churches and has the approval of leading officials of Anglican, Baptist, Presbyterian, United Church and other communions.

Available to any congregation or community upon application to Dr. W. J. Gallagher, the general secretary, it contains those ever-moving hymns, "All people that on earth do dwell," "O God our help in ages past," "Praise, my soul, the King of Heaven," concluding with "Now thank we all our God."

Suggested Scripture passages are from Micah, Chapter 4; St. Matthew, Chapter 5; Isaiah, Chapter 40, and Revelation, Chapter 21.

Also included are prayers of thanksgiving, prayers for the bereaved, prayers of confession and dedication, as well as a number of litanies.

Sport Chat

Down in Wiltshire, at the historic Manton racing stable, there lives a chestnut colt that exemplifies patience and good manners. So far as the colt, Court Martial, knows life is mainly a round of eating, growing and being groomed. But the two-year-old, who stands 15 hands, 2½ inches, has had an ambitious future mapped out by his owner, Lord Astor. He will be entered in the 1945 Derby, St. Leger and 2,000 Guineas, three of Britain's five yearly classics, in the strong hope he will break Lord Astor's string of non-successes in important races. So far, Court Martial has run only twice. Each time he won without being pressed. He didn't see a racecourse until last August and then won by two lengths from 10 opponents, despite his amateurish touch of staring about as he ran.

In his second race a month later he was bumped on the stretch and nearly fell, but recovered enough to win by half a length. Now, in the winter books, he is quoted at 7-1 for the Guineas and 8-1 for the Derby. Joe Lawson, veteran trainer who has turned out nine classic winners, admits that stamina in Court Martial is a question mark. "His sire, Fair Trial, has yet to produce a strayer, and the dam, Instantaneous, hasn't produced a first-class strayer either," said Lawson. "But there are always the exceptions to the rule."
