"WINTERTIME" GAY MUSICAL

Sonja Henie Coming to Capitol Theatre This Week-end.

"Wintertime," new musical starring Sonja Henie, showing this week-end at Capitol Theatre is a tuneful comedy that has plenty of laughs, pretty girls and lilting songs.

In addition to Sonja Henie, the cast includes Jack Oakie, Cesar Romero, Carole Landis and Woody Herman and his famous orchestra.

The story is set in Canada, where an enterprising young hotel owner can't seem to make ends meet. He tries, through the aid of his overly-optimistic partner Jack Oakie, to bring a wealthy Norwegian and his attractive niece (guess who) to enhance the reputation of his resort.

This sets the stage for the sumptuous production numbers which highlight "Wintertime." Featured among the skating routines is a dramatic number known as the Snowbird sequence. There is a chorus of 48 skaters who perform in this number with Sonja.

The girls do their dance on skates to the rhythms of Woody Herman's orchestra. Included among the songs penned by Leo Robin and Nacio Herb Brown are "Wintertime," "I Like It Here" and "Dancing in the Dawn." The novelty numbers include "Drums and Dreams" and "I'm All A-Twitter Over You."

Bringing Home the Bacon:

Her fellow passengers didn't mind her bringing home the bacon but when it came to that armload of groceries, they had a right to kick. They knew that it would delay the bus, get them home a little later, leave people standing in the rain, and put more grey hairs in the driver's head.

Please, Folks, do not take large parcels on the bus during rush hours.
