SOFTBALL FIXTURES—

Ack-Acks and Air Force W.D.'s Have Their Last Chance Tonight

Two softball teams will be facing elimination from the playoffs tonight.

If Ack-Acks lose to Barrett at Gyro Park they will be out of the semi-finals, and in that event the winners will play Port Edward for the championship.

Both Barrett and Ack-Acks have made impressive showings this season. Including playoff engagements, the former have won 16 out of 17 games while the latter have been victorious in 11 out of 17.

To remain in the running for the Women's League title the Air Force W.D.'s must win their tilt at Seal Cove with the Alflies. The latter have two wins over the W.D.'s and another will give them the championship.

Second Victory Bond Coupons Due Sept. 1

An interest coupon on the Second Victory Loan three per cent bonds due 1954 becomes payable September 1.

Officials of the local National War Finance Committee suggest that holders, when presenting their coupons at the bank for payment, reinvest this interest in War Savings Certificates and Stamps.

Individuals in British Columbia and the Yukon purchased $31,395,850 of Second Victory Bonds when these were issued. If all holders put their interest into certificates and stamps, it would mean another $470,937.75 now available for weapons to keep our forces rolling on the road to victory.

CROP REPORT

Good crops of apples, pears, plums, prunes and peaches are ripening under excellent conditions and picking of early varieties is well advanced. Garnering of good crops of small fruits is nearly completed. Vegetable and field crops have made good growth and are moving in volume. The tomato crop is good, but tonnage somewhat lower than was anticipated earlier in the season. A heavy export movement of early potatoes is under way; the crop is fair to good. The onion crop is fair but is coming on well. Heavy rains have delayed gra[illegible] vesting in some sections; prospects continue good. [illegible] turage has been impro[illegible] recent rains. Grasshoppe[illegible] still doing considerable d[illegible] in some sections, but the [illegible] ation is becoming easier; [illegible] pests are normal. Moistu[illegible] ditions generally are s[illegible] tory. The Provincial De[illegible] ment of Agriculture on [illegible] 19th estimated the 194[illegible] crop at 6,480,000 boxes, [illegible] pared with 4,433,000 bo[illegible] 1943.

Braised Short Ribs

A tasty recipe for this thrifty meat is a must for wartime housekeeping

How many housewives, I wonder, have seen this tasty meat in their butcher's case, but hesitated to get it because they had no ready recipe for cooking the ribs?

In the panel, we give our favourite way of preparing this tasty dish. Do try it next time you see short-ribs for sale; your family will love it and the dish is as good nutritionally as it is delicious.

6 Servings

3 lbs. short ribs of beef
3 tsps. salt
¼ tsp. pepper
2 tbsps. fat
6 medium potatoes
6 small onions
3 parsnips
3 carrots
1½ cups boiling water

Season ribs and brown in hot lard. Add water, cover and simmer gently for one hour. Prepare vegetables, cut potatoes and onions in half . . . parsnips and carrots in quarters. Add vegetables to ribs and cook until these are tender, adding boiling water as required. Gravy may be thickened with flour blended with cold water.
