Waterfront Whiffs

who represents the Customs business on the provincial dock, has become tired of raising strawberries. A crate of strawberries arrived in port this week consigned to the B.C. Butchers & Grocers, Ltd., but Theo. Collart, F.P., (fruit inspector), said "certainly not" to the delivery of same, they being that kind of a strawberry. Algy chanced along at the signing of the death warrant on the strawberries, and swore he would find a good home for the condemned wretches in his garden patch. The first thing we'll know will be that the plants will be climbing through Algy's bedroom window and dragging him out of bed. By the way, dear reader, don't fail to get Algy's address and incidentally a nice pail of the lucious fruit when the season comes along.

Can You Beat It?

He fished from the bridge at midnight,
The clock was striking the hour;
The bait he used was rather high
For the tin had turned it sour.

At last he caught a little fish,
And grabbed it from the line;
He laid it on the dock nearby
And cast a second time.

This time he felt an awful bite,
"Oh! Lawdy" shouted he;
It was a sucker on the end,
And the third one made it three.

And so the fisher went his way,
His catch tied in his pack.
If you can beat this rotten prose,
Your crazy—and that's That.

Writers may come, and writers may go, but Whiffs go on for ever.

When you hear it said that 'a man talks like a fish it means that he opens his mouth and says nothing.

The Menagerie

Doc Clapperton has a sign out at the provincial dock reading: "Clowns and circus horse riders wanted. Only those willing to accept microscopic wages need apply." Yes, our genial friend Doc is going into the circus business, or rather was, until the prize pup "Nero" went and got lost for the umpteenth time. A tame seagull, a dear old cat, the pup, and a wooden legged mule (to be imported) will form the neucleus of the menagerie. And to cap Doc's luck Mrs. Puss presented the budding tent show with eight lovely little strangers on Thursday morning. If you have nothing on your mind particularly just drop in and see Doc and give him a hand to find Nero because the show can't go on without the pup's presence. Incidentally you might give a hand withe the kittens. They are all fond of canned milk never having seen a cow. If you see a stray pup around just call "Nero" in a soft tenor voice If the pup takes a fancy to the seat of your pants, or the hem of your dress, that's Nero alright.

A Springtime Idle

Weary Willie asked for bread
Wherever he did stop;
A housewife passed the axe and said:
"First won't you have a chop?"

"Imaginary" Rheumatism Caused by Illfitting Shoes

MANY, many times physicians have diagnosed what appears to be rheumatism, as really being pains arising from the effects of Fallen Arches.

When the foot arches begin to break down, the pain is often ascribed to a sprain or rheumatism. Pain occurs along the inside of the foot, in the heel, also the calf of the leg, and is often located in the knee or hip joints.

This condition brings on general muscular weakness—the ligaments are strained, interfering with proper nourishment of the foot. The circulation becomes poor—attendant symptoms appear—numbness, cold, and at times, undue perspiration. To prevent and cure this condition the foot must be given support, combined with the utmost freedom of movement.

Arch Defender Shoes give support to the scaphoid bone where needed, while allowing full flexibility and freedom to the muscular structure of the foot.

If you value your health—join the thousands who have banished foot trouble. Get a pair today.
