CHILDREN'S CONCERT FOR TERRACE HOSPITAL

Varied Program at Event and Performers Entertained at Supper Afterwards

TERRACE, June 8.—A number of the little girls around town, under the directorship of Mr. Mrs. R. W. Clayton, staged a concert in G.W.V.A. Hall on Friday evening and raised ten dollars to be used towards providing a children's cot for the new hospital. The scheme of decoration had been carried out entirely by the children themselves and showed considerable originality. O. T. Sundal presided and the program consisted of choruses, recitations, vocal solos, character songs and step dances. Mrs. O. Von Hees acted as accompanist for the evening.

Appreciation of the children's efforts was voiced by J. Morse Hatt on behalf of the hospital board and a vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Clayton for their interest in the affair.

After the program Mr. and Mrs. Clayton served lunch to all those taking part in the program.

VANDERHOOF

George Hamilton has arrived here to relieve A. B. Laird, local manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, who has gone on his annual vacation.

Taking Lessons in Boxing

With a view to learning the art of boxing a young man went to a "professor." A few moments after they had begun the first bout the instructor floored his pupil with a neat half-hook.

"I say," spluttered the novice, as he struggled to rise, "is it necessary to knock me down like this?"

"Bless your heart, no, sir," grinned the old pugilist. "Stand up and I'll show you a dozen other ways."
